Ceremony of Opening the Lodge in the First Degree.

THE Brethren being assembled, the W. M. gives one k...k, and is answered by the S. and J. Ws.
(The same is done at the Opening and Closing in the three Degrees.)

W. M.—Brethren, assist me to open the Lodge. (All rise.)

W. M.—(To J. W., calling him by name.) Bro. A. B., what is the first care of every Mason?

J. W.—To see that the Lodge is properly Tyled.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Direct that duty to be done.

J. W.—(To I. G., by name.) Bro.
A. B., see that the Lodge is properly
Tyled.

(I. G. gives three k...s, which are answered by the Tyler, the I. G. turns round and says to J. W., by name,) Bro. A. B., the Lodge is properly Tyled.

(J. W. gives three k...s, and says,)

J. W.—(To W. M.) The Lodge is properly Tyled.

W. M.—(To S. W., by name.) Bro. A. B., the next care?

S. W.—To see that none but Masons are present.

W. M.—To order, Brethren, in the First Degree.

(The Brethren take the s...p, and stand to order with the s...n of an E. A.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., how many principal officers are there in the Lodge?

J. W.—Three: the W. M., S. and J. Wars.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., how many assistant officers are there?

S. W.—Three, besides the Tyler or Outer Guard: namely, the S. and J. Deacons, and I. G.

W. M.—(To J. W.) The situation of the Tyler?

J. W.—Outside the door of the Lodge.

W. M.—(To J. W.) His duty?

J. W.—Being armed with a drawn sword, to keep off all intruders and Cowans to Masonry, and see that the Candidates are properly prepared.

W. M.—(To S. W.) The situation of the I. G.?

S. W.—Within the entrance of the Lodge.

W. M.—(To S. W.) His duty?

S. W.—To admit Masons on proof, receive the Candidates in due form, and obey the commands of the J. W.

W. M.—(To J. W.) The situation of the J. D.

J. W.—At the right of the S. W.

W. M.—(To J. W.) His duty?

J. W.—To carry all messages and communications of the W. M. from the S. to the J. W., and see that the same are punctually obeyed.

W. M.—(To S. W.) The situation of the S. D.?

S. W.—At or near to the right of the W. M.

W. M.—(To S. W.) His duty?

S. W.—To bear all messages and commands of the W. M. to the S. W., and await the return of the J. D.

W. M.—Bro. J. W., your place in the Lodge?

J. W.—In the South.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Why are you placed there?

J. W.—To mark the Sun at its Meridian, to call the Brethren from labour to refreshment, and from refreshment to labour, that profit and pleasure may be the result.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., your place in the Lodge?

S. W.—In the West.

W. M.—(To S. W.) Why are you placed there?

S. W.—To mark the setting Sun; to close the Lodge by command of the W. M., after having seen that every Brother has had his due.

W. M.—(To S. W.) The Master's place?

S. W.—In the East.

W. M.—(To S. W.) Why is he placed there?

S. W.—As the Sun rises in the East to open and enliven the day, so the W. M. is placed in the East to open the Lodge, and employ and instruct the Brethren in Freemasonry.

W. M.—The Lodge being duly formed, before I declare it open, let us invoke the assistance of the Great Architect of the Universe on all our undertakings; may our labours, thus begun in order, be conducted in peace, and closed in harmony.

P. M.—So mote it be.

W. M.—Brethren, in the name of the Great Architect of the Universe, I declare the Lodge duly opened for the purposes of Freemasonry in the First Degree.

(The W. M. gives three k...s, which are repeated by the S. and J. Wars., I. G., and Tyler.)

LODGE IN THE FIRST DEGREE.

Ceremony of Opening the Lodge in the Second Degree.

 AFTER requesting all below the rank of a F. C. to retire,* the W. M. gives one k...k, which is followed by the S. and J. Wars.

W. M.—Brethren, assist me to open the Lodge in the Second Degree. (All rise.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., what is the first care of every F. C. Freemason?

J. W.—To see that the Lodge is properly Tyled.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Direct that duty to be done.

J. W.—Bro. I. G., see that the Lodge is properly Tyled.

(I. G. gives three k...s, and being answered by the Tyler, he takes the s...p and

J. W.—(Gives the k...s and s...n.) Worshipful Master, the Lodge is properly Tyled.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., the next care?

S. W.—To see that the Brethren appear to order as Masons.

W. M.—To order, Brethren, in the First Degree.

(The Brethren take the s...p, and stand to order with the s...n of an E. A.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., are you a F. C. Freemason?

J. W.—I am, W. M.; try me, and prove me.

W. M.—(To J. W.) By what instrument in Architecture will you be proved?

J. W.—The S...e.

W. M.—(To J. W.) What is a S...e?

J. W.—An Angle of 90 Degrees, or the fourth part of a Circle.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Being yourself acquainted with the proper method, you will prove the Brethren Craftsmen, and demonstrate that proof to me by copying their example.

J. W.—Brethren, it is the W. Master's command that you prove yourselves Craftsmen.

8 Opening in the Second Degree.

(When the Brethren have taken the s...p and given the s...n, and the J. W. has seen them to be correct, he makes the following report:)

J. W.—W. M., the Brethren have proved themselves Craftsmen, and in obedience to your command I thus copy their example. (Done.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., I acknowledge the correctness of the s...n. (Gives it and s...p.)

W. M.—Before we open the Lodge in the Second Degree, let us supplicate the Grand Geometrician of the Universe, that the rays of heaven may shed their influence, to enlighten us in the paths of virtue and science.

P. M.—So mote it be.

W. M.—Brethren, in the name of the Grand Geometrician of the Universe, I declare the Lodge duly opened, on the S...e, for the instruction and improvement of Craftsmen.

(The Master gives the proper k...s, and is followed by the Ws., I. G., and T.)

END OF THE CEREMONY OF OPENING THE LODGE IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

Ceremony of Opening the Lodge in the Third Degree.

AFTER requesting all below the rank of a M. M. to retire, the W. M. gives one k...k, which is followed by the S. and J. Wars.

W. M.—Brethren, assist me to open the Lodge in the Third Degree. (All rise.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., what is the first care of every Master Mason?

J. W.—To see that the Lodge is properly Tyled.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Direct that duty to be done.

J. W.—Bro. I. G., see that the Lodge is properly Tyled.

(I. G. gives three k...s of F. C., and being answered by the Tyler, he takes the s...p and gives the s...n of the Second Degree, and says,) Bro. J. W., the Lodge is properly Tyled.

J. W.—(Gives the k...s and s...n.) Worshipful Master, the Lodge is properly Tyled.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., the next care?

S. W.—To see that the Brethren appear to order as Craftsmen.

W. M.—To order, Brethren, in the Second Degree.

(The Brethren take the s...p, and stand to order with the s...n of a F. C.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., are you a M. Mason?

J. W.—I am, W. M.; try me, and prove me.

W. M.—(To J. W.) By what instruments in Architecture will you be proved?

J. W.—The S...e and C...mp...s...s.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Being yourself acquainted with the proper method, you will prove the Brethren M. Masons by s...ns, and demonstrate that proof to me by copying their example.

J. W.—Brethren, it is the W. Master's command that you prove yourselves M. Masons by s...ns. (Which they do, and when he sees they are correct, he reports as follows:)

J. W.—W. M., the Brethren have proved themselves M. Masons by s...ns, and in obedience to your command, I thus copy their example. (Done.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., I acknowledge the correctness of the s...ns. (Gives them, with the s...p.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., whence come you?

J. W.—The East.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., whither directing your course?

S. W.—The West?

W. M.—(To Bro. J. W.) What inducement have you to leave the East and go to the West?

J. W.—To seek for that which was lost, which, by your instruction, and our own industry, we hope to find.

W. M.—(To Bro. S. W.) What is that which was lost?

S. W.—The genuine secrets of a M. Mason.

W. M.—(To Bro. J. W.) How came they lost?

J. W.—By the untimely death of our Master H. A...ff.

W. M.—(To Bro. S. W.) Where do you hope to find them?

S. W.—With the Centre.

W. M.—(To Bro. J. W.) What is a Centre?

J. W.—A point within a circle, from which every part of the circumference is equidistant.

12 Opening in the Third Degree.

W. M.—(To Bro. S. W.) Why with the Centre?

S. W.—That being a point from which a M. Mason cannot err.

W. M.—We will assist you to repair that loss, and may Heaven aid our united endeavours.

P. M.—So mote it be.

W. M.—Brethren, in the name of the Most High, I declare the Lodge duly opened, on the Centre, for the purposes of Freemasonry in the Third Degree.

(P. M. raises both p...s of the c...s above the s...e.)

(W. M. gives the k...s, which are repeated by the Wardens, I. G., and T.; then all give the Grand and Royal s...n, and the W. M. says,) All Glory to the Most High.

Third Degree, and says,) Bro. J. W., the Lodge is close Tyled.

J. W.—(Gives the k...s and s...n.)
Worshipful Master, the Lodge is close
Tyled.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., the next care?

S. W.—To see that the Brethren appear to order as M. Masons.

W. M.—To order, Brethren, in the Third Degree.

(The Brethren take the s...p, and stand to order with the p...l s...n of the Third Degree.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., whence come you?

J. W.—From the West, whither we have been in search of the genuine secrets of a M. Mason.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., have you found them?

S. W.—We have not, W. M., but we bring with us certain substituted secrets, which we are anxious to impart for your approbation.

W. M.—(To S. W.) Let those substituted secrets be regularly communicated to me.

*(The two Wardens come to the centre of the Lodge, and face each other about a yard apart, the S. faces the South and the J. the North; the J. communicates the substituted secrets of a M. W. M.—Bro. S. W., I will receive them with pleasure, and for the information of the Brethren you will speak the w...s aloud.

(The W. M. leaves the Chair, from his left side, and receives them as the S. W. had done; the S. W. then salutes the W. M., both return to their seats, keeping up the p...l s...n.)

(W. M. resumes the Chair, and addresses the Lodge as follows:) The substituted s...s of a M. M. thus regularly communicated to me, I, as M. of this Lodge, and thereby the humble representative of King Solomon, sanction and confirm with my approbation; and declare, that they shall designate you and all M. Masons throughout the Universe, till time or circumstances shall restore the genuine.

(The Brethren, bending the head a little forward, all exclaim,) With gratitude to our Master we bend.

(Then all the Brethren give the Grand and Royal s...n, and the W. M. says,) All gratitude to the Most High.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., the labours of this Degree being ended, you have my command to close the Lodge. (Gives the k...s.)

S. W.—Brethren, in the name of the Most High, and by command of the W. M., I close this M. Mason's Lodge. (Gives the k...s.)

(P. M. places one p...t of the c...s under the s...e.)

W. M.—Brethren, assist me to close the Lodge in the Second Degree.
(All rise.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., what is the constant care of every F. C. Freemason?

J. W.—To prove the Lodge close Tyled.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Direct that duty to be done.

J. W.—Bro. I. G., prove the Lodge close Tyled.

(The I. G. gives three k...s of F. C., which are answered by the Tyler; he takes the s...p and gives the s...n of the Second Degree, and says,) Bro. J. W., the Lodge is close Tyled.

J. W.—(Gives the k...s and s...n.) Worshipful Master, the Lodge is close Tyled.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., the next care?

S. W.—To see that the Brethren appear to order as Craftsmen.

W. M.—To order, Brethren, in the Second Degree.

(The Brethren take the s...p, and stand to order with the s...n of a F. C.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., in this position what have you discovered?

J. W.—A Sacred Symbol.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., where is it situated?

S. W.—In the centre of the building.

W. M.—To whom does it allude?

J. W.—To the Grand Geometrician of the Universe.

W. M.—Then, Brethren, let us remember, that wherever we are, or whatever we do, He is with us, and His all-seeing eye observes us, and while we continue to act in conformity with the principles of the Craft, let us not fail to discharge our duty to Him with fervency and zeal.

P. M.—So mote it be.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., the labours of this Degree being ended, you have my command to close the Lodge. (Gives the k...s.)

S. W.—Brethren, in the name of the Grand Geometrician of the Universe, and by command of the W. M., I close this F. C. Lodge. (Gives the k...s. P. M. places both p...s of the c...s under the s...e.)

J. W.—Happy we have met,
Happy may we part,
And happy meet again.

END OF THE CEREMONY OF CLOSING THE
LODGE IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

Ceremony of Closing the Lodge Generally.

THE W. M. gives one k...k, followed by the S. and J. Wars.

W. M.—Brethren, assist me to close the Lodge. (All rise.)

W. M.—Bro. J. W., what is the constant care of every Mason?

J. W.—To prove the Lodge close Tyled.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Direct that duty to be done.

J. W.—Bro. I. G., prove the Lodge close Tyled.

(I. G. gives three k...s, which are answered by the Tyler; he takes the s...p and gives the s...n of the First Degree, and says,) Bro. J. W., the Lodge is close Tyled.

J. W.—(Gives the k...s and s...n.) Worshipful Master, the Lodge is close Tyled.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., the next care?

S. W.—To see that the Brethren appear to order as Masons.

W. M.—To order, Brethren in the First Degree.

(The Brethren take the s...p, and stand to order with the s...n of an E. A.)

W. M.—Bro. S. W., your constant place in the Lodge?

S. W.—In the West.

W. M.—(To S. W.) Why are you placed there?

S. W.—As the Sun sets in the West to close the day, so the S. W. is placed in the West to close the Lodge, by command of the W. M., after having seen that every Brother has had his due.

W. M.—Before we close the Lodge, let us with all reverence and humility express our gratitude to the Great Architect of the Universe, for favours already received, and may He continue to preserve our Order by cementing and adorning it with every moral and social virtue.

P. M.—So mote it be.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., the labours of the evening being ended, you have my command to close the Lodge. (Gives the h...s.)

S. W.—Brethren, in the name of the Great Architect of the Universe, and by command of the W. M., I close the Lodge. (Gives the k...s.)

J. W.—And it is closed accordingly, until the — day of —, emergencies excepted, of which due notice will be given. (Gives the k...s, also the I. G. and T.)

P. M.—(Takes one pace forward, and says,) Brethren, nothing now remains but, according to ancient custom, to lock up our s...s in a safe repository, uniting in the act fidelity, fidelity, fidelity. (He strikes his l. b. with his r. h. each time as he says these last three words, and then closes the V. of the S. L. The S. W.'s c...n is laid down, and the J. W.'s raised.)

Questions

WHICH MUST BE ANSWERED BY CANDIDATES BEFORE PASSING.

THE Lodge being open in the First Degree, the W. M. thus proceeds:
—Brethren, Bro. A. B. is this evening a Candidate to be passed to the Second Degree, but it is first requisite that he should give proofs of his proficiency in the former; I shall therefore proceed to put the necessary questions:

(The S. D. places the Can. at the left of the p...l of the S. W., facing the W. M.)

W. M.—(To Can.) Where were you first prepared to be made a Mason?

CAN.—In my heart.

W. M.—Where next?

CAN.—In a convenient room adjoining the Lodge.

W. M.—Describe the mode of your preparation.

CAN.—I was divested of m...t...l and h...d w...d, my r...t a...m, l...t b...t and k...e, were made b...e, my r...t h...l was s...p s...d, and a c...e t...w placed about my neck.

W. M.—Where were you made a Mason?

CAN.—In the body of a Lodge, just, perfect, and regular.

W. M.—And when?

CAN.—When the Sun was at its Meridian.

W. M.—In this country Freemasons' Lodges are usually held in the evening, how do you account for that, which at the first view appears a paradox?

CAN.—The earth constantly revolving on its axis in its orbit round the Sun, and Freemasonry being universally spread over its surface, it necessarily follows that the Sun is always at its meridian with respect to Freemasonry.

W. M.—What is Freemasonry?

CAN.—A peculiar system of morality, veiled in allegory, and illustrated by Symbols.

W. M.—Name the grand principles on which the Order is founded.

CAN.—Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth.

W. M.—Who are fit and proper persons to be made Masons?

CAN.—Just, upright, and free men, of mature age, sound judgment, and strict morals.

W. M.—How do you know yourself to be a Mason?

CAN.—By the regularity of my initiation, repeated trials and approbation, and a willingness at all times to undergo an examination when properly called on.

W. M.—How do you demonstrate the proof of being a Mason to others?

CAN.—By s...ns, t...s, and the perfect points of my entrance.

W. M.—These, Brethren, are the usual Questions. If any Brother desires me to put others, I will do so.

(J. D. conducts Can. to right of W. M.)

W. M.—(To Can.) Do you pledge your honour as a man, and your fidelity as a Mason, that you will steadily persevere through the Ceremony of being passed to the Degree of a F. C.?

CAN.—I do.

W. M.—Do you likewise pledge yourself, under the penalty of your obligation, that you will conceal what I shall now impart to you with the same strict caution as the other secrets in Freemasonry?

CAN.—I do.

W. M.—Then I will intrust you with a test of merit, which is a p...s g...p and p...s w...d leading to the Degree to which you seek to be admitted. The p...s g...p is given by a distinct p...s...e of the .....between the first and second, &c. This p...s g...p demands a p...s w...d, which is S...h.

CAN.—S...h.

W. M.—(Resumes to Can.) S...h denotes p...y, and is usually depicted in our Lodges by an ear of corn, near to a f...l of w...r. You must be particularly careful to remember this word, as without it you cannot gain admission into a Lodge in a superior degree. Pass S...h.

(The J. D. takes the Can. by the right hand to the door, and directs him to salute the W. M. as an E. A. He then retires to be prepared, and in the interval the Lodge is opened in the Second Degree.)

WHICH MUST BE ANSWERED BY THE CANDIDATES BEFORE RAISING.

THE Lodge being open in the Second Degree, the W. M. thus proceeds:

—Brethren, Bro. A. B. is this evening a Candidate to be raised to the Third Degree, but it is first requisite that he should give proofs of his proficiency in the second; I shall therefore proceed to put the necessary questions. (The S. D. places the Can. at the left of the p...l of the S. W., facing the W. M.)

W. M.—(To Can.) How were you prepared to be passed to the Second Degree?

CAN.—In a manner somewhat similar to the former; save that in this Degree I was not h...d w...d; my l...t a...m, b...t, and r...t k...e were made b...e, and my l...t h...l was s...p s...d.

W. M.—On what were you admitted?

CAN.—The S...e.

W. M.—What is a S...e?

CAN.—An angle of 90 degrees, or the fourth part of a circle.

W. M.—What are the peculiar objects of research in this Degree?

CAN.—The hidden mysteries of nature and science.

W. M.—As it is the hope of reward that sweetens labour, where did our ancient brethren go to receive their wages?

CAN.—Into the middle chamber of King Solomon's Temple.

W. M.—How did they receive them?

CAN.—Without scruple or diffidence.

W. M.—Why in this peculiar manner?

CAN.—Without scruple, well knowing they were justly entitled to them; and without diffidence, from the great reliance they placed on the integrity of their employers in those days.

W. M.—What were the names of the two great pillars which were placed at the porchway or entrance of King Solomon's Temple?

CAN.—That on the l...t was called ....., and that on the r...t, .....

CAN.—The former denotes in s...h, the latter to e...h, and when conjoined, s...y, for God said, In strength I will establish this mine house to stand firm for ever.*

W. M.—These, Brethren, are the usual Questions. If any Brother desires me to put others, I will do so.

W. M.—(To Can.) Do you pledge your honour as a man, and your fidelity as a Craftsman, that you will steadily persevere through the Ceremony of being raised to the Sublime Degree of a M. M?

CAN.—I do.

W. M.—Do you likewise pledge yourself, under the penalties of both your Obligations, that you will conceal what I shall now impart to you with the same strict caution as the other secrets in Freemasonry?

CAN.—I do.

W. M.—Then I will intrust you with a test of merit, which is a p...s g...p and p...s w...d leading to the Degree to which you seek to be admitted. The p...s g...p is given by a distinct p...s...e of the ..... between the second and third.

Ceremony of Initiation.

THE Brethren being assembled, the W. M. opens the Lodge in the First Degree, and the minutes of the previous Lodge are read and put for confirmation (which must at all times be done in the First Degree, and no other). When the W. M. is informed that the Candidate is prepared, the Tyler gives three k...s, the I. G. advances to the J. W. and says, Bro. J. W., there is a report. The J. W. rises, gives the k...s and s...n, and says, W. M., there is a report.

W. M.—Bro. J. W., inquire who wants admission.

J. W.—(Resuming his seat.) Bro. I. G., see who wants admission.

(The I. G. opens the door, and says.)

I. G.—(To Tyler.) Whom have you there?

TYLER.—(To I. G.) Mr. A. B., a poor Candidate in a state of d...k...s, who has been well and worthily recommended, regularly proposed and approved in open Lodge, and now comes of his own free will and accord, properly prepared, humbly soliciting to be admitted to the mysteries and privileges of Freemasonry.

I. G.—(To T.) How does he hope to obtain those privileges?

T.—By the help of God, being free and of good report.

I. G.—(To T.) Wait while I report to the W. Master.

(The I. G. closes the door, advances with the s...p and s...n, and says,)

I. G.—(To W. M.) W. M., there is at the door of the Lodge Mr. A. B., &c. (same report as the Tyler.)

W. M.—(To I. G.) How does he hope to obtain those privileges?

I. G.—By the help of God, being free and of good report.

W. M.—The tongue of good report has already been heard in his favour; do you, Bro. I. G., vouch that he is properly prepared?

I. G.—I do, W. M. (He has before seen he was.)

W. M.—Then let him be admitted in due form. Bro. Deacons.

W. M.—(To Can.) Mr A. B., as no person can be made a Mason unless he is free and of mature age, I demand of you, are you free and of the full age of twenty-one years?

CAN.—I am.

W. M.—(To Can.) Thus assured, I will thank you to k...l, while the blessing of heaven is invoked on our proceedings.

(During the Prayer, the Deacons join their wands over the head of the Can.)

PRAYER.

Vouchsafe Thine aid, Almighty Father and Supreme Governor of the Universe, to our present convention, and grant that this Candidate for Freemasonry may so dedicate and devote his life to Thy service, as to become a true and faithful

Brother among us. Endue him with a competency of Thy Divine Wisdom, that, assisted by the secrets of our Masonic art, he may the better be enabled to unfold the beauties of true godliness, to the honour and glory of Thy Holy Name.

P. M.—So mote it be.

W. M.—(To Can.) Mr A. B., in all cases of difficulty and danger, in whom do you put your trust?

CAN.—In God.

W. M.—Right glad am I to find your faith so well founded; relying on such sure support, you may safely arise and follow your leader with a firm but humble confidence, for where the name of God is invoked we trust no danger can ensue.

W. M.—The Brethren from the N., E., S., and W. will take notice that Mr. A. B. is about to pass in view before them, to show that he is the Candidate, properly prepared, and a fit and proper person to be made a Mason.

(The S. D. resumes his seat. The J. D. takes the Can. by the right hand, and leads him up to the N., past the W. M., and round to the J. W., and with the Candidate's r...t h...d strikes the J. W. three times on the r...t shoulder.)

J. W.—How does he hope to obtain those privileges?

J. D.—By the help of God, being free and of good report.

J. W.—(Rises, takes the r...t h...d of the Can., and says,) Enter, free and of good report.

(The J. D. takes him to the r...t of the S. W., who passes him through the same examination, he is then delivered to the other side of the S. W., and his r...t h...d placed in the S. W.'s left.)

S. W.—(Rises, with the s...n, and says,) W. M., I present to you Mr A. B., a Candidate properly prepared to be made a Mason.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., your presentation shall be attended to, for which purpose I will address a few questions to the Candidate, which I trust he will answer with candour.

W. M.—(To Can.) Mr A. B., do you seriously declare on your honour, that, unbiassed by the improper solicitation of friends against your own inclination, and uninfluenced by mercenary or other unworthy motives, you freely and voluntarily offer yourself a Candidate for the mysteries and privileges of Freemasonry?

CAN.—I do.

W. M.—Do you likewise pledge yourself that you are prompted to solicit those privileges from a favourable opinion preconceived of the Institution, a general desire for knowledge, and a sincere wish to render yourself more extensively serviceable to your fellow-creatures?

CAN.—I do.

W. M.—Do you further seriously declare on your honour, that, avoiding fear on the one hand, and rashness on the other, you will steadily persevere through the ceremony of your initiation, and, if admitted, will afterwards act and abide by the ancient usages and established customs of the Order?

CAN.—I will.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., you will direct the J. D. to instruct the Candidate to advance to the p...l in due form.

S. W.—Bro. J. D., it is the W. Master's command that you instruct the Candidate to advance to the p...l in due form.

W. M.—(To Can.) It is my duty to inform you that Masonry is free, and requires a perfect freedom of inclination in every Candidate for its mysteries; it is founded on the purest principles of piety and virtue; it possesses many great and invaluable privileges; and in order to secure those privileges to worthy men, and we trust to worthy men alone, vows of fidelity are required; but let me assure you, that in those vows there is nothing incompatible with your civil, moral, or religious duties; are you therefore willing to take a solemn obligation, founded on the principles I have stated, to keep inviolate the secrets and mysteries of the Order?

CAN.—I am.

W. M.—Then you will k...l on your l...t k...e, place your r...t f...t in form of a s...e, give me your r...t h...d, which I place on this book, which is the V. of the S. L., while your l...t will be employed in supporting a pair of c...s, one p...t extended to your n. l. b. Repeat your names at length, and say after me.

OBLIGATION.

I, A. B., in the presence of the Great Architect of the Universe, and of this worthy, worshipful, and warranted Lodge of ancient, free, and accepted Masons, regularly assembled and properly dedicated, of my own free will and accord, do hereby and hereon sincerely and solemnly promise and swear, that I will always hele, conceal, and never reveal any part or parts, point or points, of the secrets or mysteries of or belonging to free and accepted Masons in Masonry, which may heretofore have been known by me, shall now, or may at any future period, be communicated to me, unless it be to a true and lawful Brother or Brothers, and not even to him or them until after due trial, strict examination,

I further solemnly promise that I will not write those secrets, indite, carve, mark, engrave, or otherwise them delineate, or cause or suffer it to be so done by others, if in my power to prevent it, on anything movable or immovable under the canopy of Heaven, whereby or whereon any letter, character, or figure, or the least trace of a letter, character, or figure, may become legible, or intelligible to myself or any one in the world, so that our secret arts and hidden mysteries may improperly become known through my unworthiness. These several points I solemnly swear to observe, without evasion, equivocation, or mental reservation of any kind, under the no less penalty on the violation of either of them, than that of having, &c., or the more effective punishment of being branded as a wilfully perjured individual, void of all moral worth, and totally unfit to be received into this worshipful Lodge, or any other warranted Lodge, or society of men who prize honour and virtue above the external advantages of rank and fortune. So help me God, and keep me steadfast in this my great and solemn obligation of an E. A. Freemason.

W. M.—What you have repeated may be considered but as a serious promise; as a pledge of your fidelity, and to render it a solemn obligation, you will seal it with your lips on the V. of the S. L.

W. M.—Having been kept a considerable time in a state of d...k...s, what in your present situation is the predominant wish of your heart?

CAN.—L...t.

W. M.—Bro. J. D., let that blessing be restored.

W. M.—Having been restored to the blessing of material l...t, let me direct your attention to what we consider the three great, though emblematical, lights in Freemasonry: the V. of the S. (The Brethren take their seats.)

W. M.—You are now enabled to discover the three lesser lights in Freemasonry; they are situated E., S., and W., and are meant to represent the Sun, Moon, and Master of the Lodge; the Sun to rule the day, the Moon to govern the night, and the M. to rule and direct his Lodge.

W. M.—(Continues.) Bro. A. B., by your meek and candid behaviour this evening, you have escaped two great dangers, but there is a third which will await you till the latest period of your existence. The dangers you have escaped are those of s...b...g and s...g, for at your entrance into the Lodge, this p...n...d was presented to your naked l...t b...t, so that had you rashly attempted to rush forward, you would have been accessory to your death by s...b...g; not so the Brother who held it, as he would have remained firm, and done his duty. There was likewise this c...e t...w with a r...g r...e about your neck, which would have rendered any attempt to retreat equally fatal; but the danger which will await you to your latest hour is the penalty of your obligation, of having y... t... c... a... should you im... disclose the S. of Freemasonry.

W. M.—Having entered on the great and solemn obligation of an E. A. Freemason, I am now permitted to inform you that there are several Degrees in Freemasonry, and peculiar s...s restricted to each; these, however, are not communicated indiscriminately, but are conferred on candidates according to merit and abilities. I shall therefore proceed to intrust you with the s...s of this Degree, or those marks by which we are known to each other, and distinguished from the rest of the world; but must premise for your general information that all sq...s, l...s, and perpendiculars, are true and proper s...ns to know a Mason by; you are therefore expected to stand perfectly erect, your feet formed in a s...e; your body being thus considered an emblem of your mind, and your feet of the rectitude of your actions. (Done.)

It is more ancient than the Golden Fleece, or Roman Eagle, more honourable than the Garter, or any other order in existence, being the badge of innocence, and the bond of friendship; and I strongly exhort you ever to wear and consider it as such; * and I further inform you, that if you never disgrace that badge (*the S. * The following is sometimes given, but it is not "Emulation" working:—You will observe that this Apron is made from the skin of a Lamb, and as the Lamb has been from time immemorial the universally acknowledged emblem of purity and innocence, you will be thereby reminded of that purity of life and actions which should at all times distinguish a F. M., and which is most essential to your gaining admission to that Grand Lodge above, where the blessed ever rest in eternal peace.

I trust you may live many years to wear that badge with pleasure to yourself, usefulness to the Craft, and honour to the Lodge in which you have been initiated, and let me further exhort you never to disgrace it, for you may be assured it will never disgrace you.

ADDRESS.

W. M.—Let me add to the observations of the S. W., that you are never to put on that badge, should there be any Bro. in a Lodge which you are about to visit with whom you are at variance, or against whom you entertain animosity ; in such a case, it is expected you will invite him to withdraw, in order amicably to settle your differences, which if happily effected, you may then clothe, enter the Lodge, and work with that love and harmony which should at all times characterise Freemasons. But if, unfortunately, your differences are of such a nature as not to be so easily adjusted, it were better that one or both of you retire, than that the harmony of the Lodge should be disturbed by your presence.

W. M.—Bro. J. D., you will place our Bro. at the N. E. part of the Lodge.

Address.

W. M.

BRO. A. B., at the erection of all stately and superb edifices it is customary to lay the first or foundation stone at the N.E. corner of the building ; you, being newly initiated into F. Masonry, are placed at the N.E. part of the Lodge, figuratively to represent that stone ; and from the foundation laid this evening may you raise a superstructure perfect in its parts and honourable to the builder. You now stand to all external appearance a just and upright Freemason, and I give it you in strong terms of recommendation ever to continue and act as such ; indeed, I shall immediately proceed to put your principles in some measure to the test, by calling on you to exercise that virtue, which may justly be denominated the distinguishing characteristic of a Freemason's heart—I mean Charity. I need not here dilate upon its excellencies; no doubt it has often been felt and practised by you; suffice it to say, that it has the approbation of heaven and earth, and, like its sister Mercy, blesses him who gives as well as him who receives. In a society so widely extended as Freemasonry, the branches of which are spread over the four quarters of the globe, it cannot be denied that we have many members of rank and opulence, neither can it be concealed that among the thousands who range under its banners, there are some who, perhaps from circumstances of unavoidable calamity and misfortune, are reduced to the lowest ebb of poverty and distress. On their behalf it is our usual custom to awaken the feelings of every new-made Bro., by making such a claim on his charity as his circumstances in life may fairly warrant; whatever, therefore, you feel disposed to give, deposit with the J. D.; it will be thankfully received, and faithfully applied.

(The J. D. appeals to the Can., who states he has been deprived of everything v...l...e previous to entering the Lodge. The J. D. then asks if he would give were it in his power, to which the Can. replies in the affirmative; the J. D. reports the same to the W. M., as follows:)

J. D.—(with s...n.) W. M., our new-made Bro. affirms that he was deprived of everything valuable previous to entering the Lodge, or he would give freely.

W. M.—(To Can.) I congratulate you, my Bro., on the honourable sentiments by which you are actuated, likewise on the inability which in the present instance precludes you from gratifying them; believe me, this trial was not made with a view to sport with your feelings; far from us be any such intention; it was done for three especial reasons, first, as I have premised, to put your principles to the test; secondly, to evince to the Brethren that you had neither ..... nor m...t...c substances about you, for if you had, the ceremony of your initiation thus far must have been repeated; and, lastly, as a warning to your heart, that should you at any future period meet a friend or Brother in distressed circumstances who might solicit your assistance, you will recollect the peculiar moment in which you were admitted into F. Masonry, poor and p...y...s, and cheerfully embrace the opportunity of practising that virtue you now profess to admire.

(The J. D. places the Can. in front of the W. M.)

W. M.—I now present to you the working tools of an E. A. Freemason: they are the 24-in. G...e, the common G...l, and C...l. The 24-in. G...e is to measure the work, the common G...l to knock off all superfluous knobs and excrescences, and the C...l to further smooth and prepare the stone, and render it fit for the hands of the more expert workman. But as we are not all operative masons, but rather free and accepted, or speculative, we apply these tools to our morals. In this sense, the 24-in. G...e represents the 24 hours of the day, part to be spent in prayer to Almighty God, part in labour and refreshment, and part in serving a friend or Brother in time of need, without detriment to ourselves or connections. The common G...l represents the force of conscience, which should keep down all vain and unbecoming thoughts which might obtrude during any of the afore-mentioned periods, so that our words and actions may ascend unpolluted to the throne of grace. The C...l points out the advantages of education, by which means we are rendered fit members for well-organised society.

W. M.—As in the course of the evening you will be called on for certain fees for

This is our charter or warrant (opens and shows it) from the Grand Lodge of England, which is open to your inspection on this or any future Lodge evening; this is our book of Constitutions, and these are our Byelaws (exhibits the former and gives a copy of the latter), both of which I recommend to your serious perusal, as by the one you will be taught the duties you owe to the Craft in general, and by the other, those you owe to this Lodge in particular. You are now at liberty to retire, in order to restore yourself to your personal comforts, and on your return to the Lodge I shall direct your attention to a charge, founded on the excellence of our institution and the qualifications of its members, should time permit.

(The J. D. takes the Can. to the left of the S. W., and directs him to salute the W. M. on retiring.)

END OF THE CEREMONY OF INITIATION

Charge after the Initiation.

W. M. (To Can.)

S you have passed through the ceremony of your initiation, allow me to congratulate you on being admitted a member of our ancient and honourable Institution : ancient no doubt it is, as having subsisted from time immemorial ; and honourable it must be acknowledged to be, as by a natural tendency it conduces to make those so who are obedient to its precepts ; indeed, no institution can boast a more solid foundation than that on which Freemasonry rests, the practice of every moral and social virtue ; and to so high an eminence has its credit been advanced, that in every age monarchs themselves have been promoters of the art, have not thought it derogatory from their dignity to exchange the Sceptre for the Trowel, have patronised our mysteries, and joined in our assemblies.

As a Freemason, I would recommend to your most serious contemplation the V. of the S. L., charging you to consider it as the unerring standard of truth and justice, and to regulate your actions by the Divine precepts it contains; therein you will be taught the important duties you owe to God, your neighbour, and yourself. To God, by never mentioning His name but with that awe and reverence which are due from the creature to his Creator, by imploring His aid in all your lawful undertakings, and by looking up to Him in every emergency for comfort and support. To your neighbour, by acting with him on the square, by rendering him every kind office which justice or mercy may require, by relieving his necessities, soothing his afflictions, and doing to him as in similar cases you would wish he should do to you. And to yourself, by such a prudent and well-regulated course of discipline as may best conduce to the preservation of your corporeal and mental faculties in their fullest energy, thereby enabling you to exert those talents wherewith God has blessed you, as well to His Glory as the welfare of your fellow-creatures.

As a citizen of the world, I am to enjoin you to be exemplary in the discharge of your civil duties ; by never proposing, or at all countenancing, any act which may have a tendency to subvert the peace and good order of society, by paying due obedience to the laws of any state which may for a time become the place of your residence, or afford you its protection ; and above all, never losing sight of the allegiance due to the sovereign of your native land, ever remembering that nature has implanted in your breast a sacred and an indissoluble attachment towards that country whence you derived your birth and infant nurture.

As an individual, I would recommend the practice of every domestic as well as public virtue. Let Prudence direct you, Temperance chasten you, Fortitude support you, and Justice be the guide of all your actions. Be especially careful to maintain, in their fullest splendour, those truly Masonic ornaments which have already been amply illustrated : Benevolence and Charity.

Still, however, as a Freemason, there are other excellences of character to length compelled to admit that n indefensible. He was therefore which your attention may be peculiarly and forcibly directed : amongst the foremost of these are Secrecy, Fidelity, and Obedience. Secrecy consists in an inviolable adherence to the O...i...n you have entered into, never improperly to disclose any of those Masonic secrets which have now been, or may at any future time be, intrusted to your keeping, and cautiously to avoid every occasion which might inadvertently lead you so to do. Your Fidelity must be exemplified by a strict observance of the constitutions of the Fraternity, by adhering to the ancient Landmarks of the Order, by never attempting to extort, or otherwise unduly obtain, the secrets of a superior degree, and by carefully refraining to recommend any one to a participation of our secrets, unless you have strong grounds to believe that by a similar fidelity he will ultimately reflect honour on our choice. Your Obedience must be proved by a close conformity to our laws and regulations, by prompt attention to all s...ns and summonses, by modest and correct demeanour in the Lodge, by abstaining from every topic of political or religious discussion, by a ready acquiescence in all votes and resolutions duly passed by a majority of the Brethren, and by a perfect submission to the Master and his Wardens, whilst acting in the discharge of their respective offices.

And as a last and general recommendation, let me exhort you to dedicate yourself to such pursuits as may render you respectable in life, useful to mankind, and an ornament to the society of which you have this day become a member. That you will more especially study such of the liberal arts and sciences as may lie within the compass of your attainment, and that, without neglecting the ordinary duties of your station, you will feel yourself called on to make a daily advancement in Masonic knowledge.

From the very commendable attention you appear to have given to this charge, I am led to hope that you will duly appreciate the value of Freemasonry, and imprint indelibly on your heart the sacred dictates of Truth, of Honour, and of Virtue.

Explanation of the First Tracing Board.

NOTE.—In the "Emulation" working, the Explanation of the First Tracing Board is recited only in the Lectures.

THE usages and customs among Freemasons have ever borne a near affinity to those of the ancient Egyptians. Their philosophers, unwilling to expose their mysteries to vulgar eyes, couched their systems of learning and polity under signs and hieroglyphical figures, which were communicated to their chief priests or Magi alone, who were bound by solemn oath to conceal them. The system of Pythagoras was founded on a similar principle, as well as many others of more recent date. Masonry, however, is not only the most ancient but the most honourable Society that ever existed, as there is not a character or emblem here depicted, but serves to inculcate the principles of piety and virtue among all its genuine professors

Let me first call your attention to the form of the Lodge, which is a regular parallelopipedon, in length from E. to W., in breadth between N. and S., in depth from the surface of the earth to its centre, and even as high as the heavens. The reason that a Freemason's Lodge is represented of that vast extent is to show the universality of the science, that a Mason's charity should know no bounds save those of prudence.

Our Lodge stands on holy ground, because the first Lodge was consecrated on account of three grand offerings thereon made, which met with Divine approbation. First, the ready compliance of Abraham with the will of God in not refusing to offer up his only son Isaac as a burnt sacrifice, when it pleased the Almighty to substitute a more agreeable victim in his stead. Secondly, the many pious prayers and ejaculations of King David, which actually appeased the wrath of God, and stayed a pestilence which then raged among his people, owing to his inadvertently having had them numbered. Thirdly, the many thanksgivings, oblations, burnt sacrifices, and costly offerings which Solomon King of Israel, made at the completion, consecration, and dedication of the Temple at Jerusalem to God's service. Those three did then, have since, and I trust ever will, render the groundwork of Freemasonry Holy.

Our Lodge is situated due E. and W., because all places of Divine worship, as well as Masons' regular, well-formed, constituted Lodges are, or ought to be, so situated; for which we assign three Masonic reasons: 1st, the Sun, the Glory of the Lord, rises in the E. and sets in the W.; 2nd, Learning originated in the E., and thence spread its benign influence to the W.; the third, last, and grand reason, which is too long to be entered upon now, is explained in the course of our Lectures, which I hope you will have many opportunities of hearing.

Our Lodge is supported by three great pillars. They are called Wisdom, Strength, and Beauty: Wisdom to contrive, Strength to support, and Beauty to adorn; Wisdom to conduct us in all our undertakings, Strength to support us under all our difficulties, and Beauty to adorn the inward man. The Universe is the Temple of the Deity whom we serve; Wisdom, Strength, and Beauty are about His throne as pillars of His works, for His Wisdom is infinite, His Strength omnipotent, and Beauty shines through the whole of the creation in symmetry and order. The Heavens He has stretched forth as a canopy; the earth He has planted as His footstool; He crowns His Temple with Stars as with a diadem, and His hands extend their power and glory. The Sun and Moon are messengers of His will, and all His law is concord. The three great Pillars supporting a Mason's L...e are emblematical of these Divine attributes; they further represent Solomon, King of I...l, H...m, King of T...e, and H...m A...ff. Solomon, King of I...l, for his Wisdom in building, completing, and dedicating the Temple at Jerusalem to God's service; H...m, King of T...e, for his Strength in supporting him with men and materials; and H...m A...ff, for his curious and masterly workmanship in beautifying and adorning the same. But as we have no noble orders in Architecture known by the names of Wisdom, Strength, and Beauty, we refer them to the three most celebrated, the Doric, Ionic, and Corinthian.

The covering of a Masonic Lodge is a celestial canopy of divers colours, even as the heavens. The way by which we, as order of recall.

Masons, hope to arrive at it is by the assistance of a ladder, in Scripture called Jacob's ladder. It is composed of many staves or rounds, which point out as many moral virtues, but three principal ones, Faith, Hope, and Charity: Faith in the Great Architect of the Universe, Hope in salvation, and to be in Charity with all men. It reaches to the heavens, and rests on the V. of the S. L., because, by the doctrines contained in that Holy Book, we are taught to believe in the dispensations of Divine Providence, which belief strengthens our faith, and enables us to ascend the first step; this faith naturally creates in us a hope of becoming partakers of the blessed promises therein recorded, which Hope enables us to ascend the second step; but the third and last being Charity, comprehends the whole, and the Mason who is possessed of this virtue in its most ample sense, may justly be deemed to have attained the summit of his profession; figuratively speaking, an ethereal mansion, veiled from mortal eyes by the starry firmament, emblematically depicted here by seven stars, which have an allusion to as many regularly made Masons, without which number no Lodge is perfect, neither can any candidate be legally initiated into the Order.

The interior of a Freemason's Lodge is composed of Ornaments, Furniture, and Jewels. The ornaments of the Lodge are the Mosaic pavement, the blazing star, and the indented or tessellated border; the Mosaic pavement is the beautiful flooring of a Freemason's Lodge, the blazing star the glory in the centre, and the indented or tessellated border, the skirtwork round the same. The Mosaic pavement may justly be deemed the beautiful flooring of the L...e, by reason of its being variegated and chequered. This points out the diversity of objects which decorate and adorn the creation, the animate as well as the inanimate parts thereof. The blazing star, or glory in the centre, refers us to the Sun, which enlightens the earth, and by its benign influence dispenses blessings to mankind in general. The indented or tessellated border refers us to the planets, which in their various revolutions form a beautiful border or skirtwork round that grand luminary, the Sun, as the other does round that of a F.Mason's L...e. The furniture of the Lodge are the V. of the S. L., the C...s, and S...e; length compelled to admit that h

the Sacred Writings are to rule and govern our faith. On them we O...i...e our Candidates for Freemasonry ; so are the C...s and S...e, when united, to regulate our lives and actions. The Sacred Volume is derived from God to man in general, the C...s belong to the Grand Master in particular, and the S...e to the whole Craft.

The Jewels of the Lodge are three movable and three immovable. The movable Jewels are the S...e, L...l, and P...b R...e. Among operative Masons the S...e is to try and adjust rectangular corners of buildings and assist in bringing rude matter into due form ; the L...l to lay levels and prove horizontals ; and the P...b R...e to try and adjust uprights while fixing on their proper bases. Among Free and Accepted Masons, the S...e teaches morality, the L...l equality, and the P...b R...e justness and uprightness of life and actions. They are called movable Jewels, because they are worn by the Master and his Wardens, and are transferable to their successors on nights of Installation. The Master is distinguished by the S...e, the Senior Warden by the L...l, and the Junior Warden by the P...b R...e. The immovable Jewels are the Tracing Board, the Rough and Perfect Ashlars. The Tracing Board is for the Master to lay lines and draw designs on; the Rough Ashlar for the E. A. to work, mark, and indent on; and the Perfect Ashlar for the experienced Craftsman to try and adjust his Jewels on. They are called immovable Jewels, because they lie open and immovable in the Lodge for the Brethren to moralise upon.

As the Tracing Board is for the Master to lay lines and draw designs on, the better to enable the Brethren to carry on the intended structure with regularity and propriety, so the V. of the S. L. may justly be deemed to be the spiritual Tracing Board of the Great Architect of the Universe, in which are laid down such Divine laws and moral plans, that were we conversant therewith, and obedient thereto, they would bring us to an ethereal mansion not built by hands, but eternal in the Heavens. The Rough Ashlar is a stone, rough and unhewn as taken from the quarry, till, by the industry and ingenuity of the workman, it is modelled, wrought into due form, and rendered fit for the intended building; this represents the mind of man in its infant or primitive state, rough and unpolished as that stone, till by the kind care and instruction of his parents or guardians, in giving him a liberal and virtuous education, his mind becomes cultivated, and he is thereby rendered a fit member of civilised society. The Perfect Ashlar is a stone of a true die or square, fit only to be tried by the S...e and C...p...s; this represents the mind of a man in the decline of years, after a well-spent life in acts of piety and virtue, which can no otherwise be tried and approved than by the S...e of God's Word and the C...p...s of his own self-convincing conscience.

In all regular, well-formed, constituted Lodges, there is a point within a c.....e round which a Mason cannot err; this c.....e is bounded between North and South by two grand parallel lines, the one representing Moses, the other King Solomon; on the upper part of this c.....e rests the V. of the S. L., supporting Jacob's ladder, the top of which reaches to the heavens; and were we as conversant with that holy book, and as adherent to the doctrines therein contained, as both those parallels were, it would lead us to Him who will not deceive us, neither will He suffer deception.

In going round this c.....e, we must of necessity touch on both those parallel lines, likewise on the V. of the S. L.; and while a Mason keeps himself thus circumscribed, he cannot err.

The word Lewis denotes strength, and is here depicted by certain pieces of metal dovetailed into a stone, which form a cramp, and enables the operative Mason to raise great weights to certain heights with little encumbrance, and to fix them on their proper bases. Lewis likewise denotes the son of a Mason; his duty is to bear the heat and burden of the day, from which his parents, by reason of their age, ought to be exempt; to help them in time of need, and thereby render the close of their days happy and comfortable; his privilege for so doing is to be made a Mason before any other person, however dignified.

Pendant to the corners of the Lodge are four tassels, meant to remind us of the four cardinal virtues, namely: Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence, and Justice, the whole of which, tradition informs us, were constantly practised by a great majority of our ancient Brethren. The distinguishing characteristics of a good Free Mason. are Virtue, Honour, and Mercy, and should these be banished from all other societies may they ever be found in a Mason's breast.

TRACING BOARD.

Ceremony of Passing to the Second Degree.

THE Lodge is open in the First Degree, and the W. M. addresses the Brethren and examines the Candidate (see Questions before Passing, ante); he retires to be prepared, and the Lodge is then opened in the Second Degree. When the Candidate is ready, the Tyler gives the k...s of the First Degree, the I. G. advances towards the J. W. with the s...p and s...n of the Second Degree, and says, Bro. J. * See foot-note at page 77.

CAN.—From the r...t-h...d p...r at the p...h...y or entrance of K. S. T., so named after J...n, the Assistant H. P., who officiated at its dedication.

S. W.—The import of the w...d?

CAN.—To e...b...h.

S. W.—And what when conjoined with that in the former Degree?

CAN.—S...a...y, for God said, In s...h I will establish this mine house to stand firm for ever.*

S. W.—Pass, J...n.

(The Can. is taken to l...t of S. W., who, taking him by the r...t h...d, with the s...n, presents him to the W. M.)

S. W.—W. M., I present to you Bro. A. B., on his being passed to the Second Degree, for some mark of your favour.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., I delegate you to invest him with the distinguishing b...e of a F. C. Freemason.

S. W.—(To Can.) Bro. A. B., by the W. Master's command, I invest you with the distinguishing b...e of a F. C. Freemason, to mark the progress you have made in the science.

W. M.—(To Can.) Let me add to what has been stated by the S. W., that the b...e with which you have just been invested, points out to you that, as a Craftsman, you are expected to make the liberal arts and sciences your future study, that you may the better be enabled to discharge your duty as a Mason, and estimate the wonderful works of the Almighty.

W. M.—Bro. S. D., you will place our Bro. at the S.E. part of the Lodge.

W. M.—(To Can.) Masonry being a progressive science, when you were made an E. A. you were placed at the N.E. part of the Lodge to show that you were newly admitted; you are now placed at the S.E. part, to mark the progress you have made in the science; you now stand, to all external appearance, a just and upright F. C. Freemason, and I give it you in strong terms of recommendation ever to continue and act as such, and as I trust the import of the former charge neither is, nor ever will be, effaced from your memory, I shall content myself with observing, that as in the former Degree you made yourself acquainted with the principles of moral truth and virtue, you are now permitted to extend your researches into the hidden mysteries of nature and science.

W. M.—(To Can.) I now present to you the working tools of a F. C. Freemason, which are the S...e, L...l, and P...b...e: the S...e is to try and adjust rectangular corners of buildings, and assist in bringing rude matter into due form; the L...l to lay l...ls and prove horizontals; and the P...b...e to try and adjust uprights, while fixing them on their proper bases. But as we are not all operative masons, but rather free and accepted, or speculative, we apply these tools to our morals. In this sense, the S...e teaches morality, the L...l equality, and the P...b...e justness and uprightness of life and actions.* Thus, by s...e conduct, l...l

* Sometimes a longer explanation of the symbolic teaching of the working tools is given as follows, but it is not adopted in the "Emulation" working:—

The S...e teaches us to regulate our actions by the Masonic line and rule, and so to correct and harmonize our conduct in this life, as to render us acceptable to the Divine Being from whom all goodness emanates, and to whom we must give an undisguised account of our lives and actions.

The L...l demonstrates that we are all sprung from the same stock, are partakers of the same nature, and sharers of the same hope; and that although distinctions among men are highly necessary to preserve due subordination, and to reward steps, and upright intentions, we hope to ascend to those immortal mansions, whence all goodness emanates.

W. M.—You are now at liberty to retire, in order to restore yourself to your personal comforts, and on your return to the Lodge, I shall call your attention to merit and ability, yet that no eminence of station should cause us to forget that we are Bru., and that he who is placed on the lowest spoke of fortune's wheel is equally entitled to our regard with him who has attained its highest, as a time will most assuredly come—and the best and wisest of us know not how soon—when all distinctions save those of piety and virtue shall cease, and death, the great leveller of all human greatness, shall reduce us all to the same state.

The infallible P...b...e, which like Jacob's ladder forms a line of union between heaven and earth, and is the criterion of moral rectitude and truth, teaches us that to walk with humility and uprightness before God, neither turning to the right hand nor to the left, from the strict path of virtue, is a duty incumbent on every Mason. Not to be an enthusiast, persecutor, slanderer, or reviler of religion; not bending towards avarice, injustice, malice, or envy and contempt of our fellow-creatures, but giving up every selfish propensity which may tend to injure others, and steering the bark of this life over the rough seas of passion without quitting the helm of rectitude, is the highest degree of perfection to which human nature is capable of attaining.

As the builder raises his column by the level and the perpendicular, so ought every Mason to carry himself in this life as to observe a due medium between avarice and profusion, to hold the scales of justice with an equal poise, to make every passion and prejudice coincide with the strict line of his duty, and in every pursuit to have eternity in view.

Hence, the S...e teaches us morality, the L...l equality, and the P...b...e justness and uprightness of life and actions.

Explanation of the Second Tracing Board.

HEN the Temple at Jerusalem was completed by King Solomon, its costliness and splendour became objects of admiration to the surrounding nations, and its fame spread to the remotest parts of the then-known world. There was nothing, however, in connection with this magnificent structure more remarkable, or which more particularly struck the attention, than the two great pillars which were placed at the porch-way or entrance. That on the l...t was called ....., which denotes in s...h, that on the r...t, ....., which denotes to e.....h, and when conjoined s...a...y, for God said, In s...h I will establish this mine house to stand firm for ever.* The height of those pillars was 17 cubits and a half each, the circumference 12, the diameter 4; they were formed hollow, the better to serve as archives to Masonry, for therein were deposited the constitutional rolls. Being formed hollow, the outer rim or shell was four inches or a hand's breadth in thickness. They were made of molten brass; and were cast on the banks of the Jordan, in the clayey ground between Succoth and Zeredatha, where King Solomon ordered those and all his holy vessels to be cast. The superintendent of the casting was H...m A...ff. Those pillars were adorned with two chapiters, each 5 cubits high; the chapiters were enriched with network, lily-work, and pomegranates: network, from the connection of its meshes, denotes unity; lily-work, from its whiteness, peace; and pomegranates, from the exuberance of their seed, denote plenty. There were two rows of pomegranates on each chapter, one hundred in a row. Those pillars were further adorned with two spherical balls, on which were delineated maps of the celestial and terrestrial globes, pointing out "Masonry universal." They were considered finished when the network or canopy was thrown over them; and were set up at the entrance of the Temple, as a memorial to the children of Israel of that miraculous pillar of fire and cloud, which had two wonderful effects: the fire gave light to the Israelites during their escape from their Egyptian bondage; the cloud proved darkness to Pharaoh and his followers when they attempted to overtake them. King Solomon ordered them to be placed at the entrance of the Temple, as the most proper and conspicuous situation for the children of Israel to have the happy deliverance of their forefathers continually before their eyes, in going to and returning from Divine worship.

At the building of K. S. Temple, an immense number of Masons were employed. They consisted of E. As. and F. Cs.: the E. As. received a weekly allowance of Corn, Wine, and Oil; the F. Cs. were paid their wages in specie, which they went to receive in the middle chamber of the Temple; they got there by the p...h...y or entrance at the south side. After our ancient Brn. had entered the porch, they arrived at the foot of a winding staircase, leading to the middle chamber of the Temple, where their ascent was opposed by the J. W., who demanded of them the p...s g...p and p...s w...d leading from the First to the Second Degree.

The p...s g...p you are already in possession of, and the p...s w...d, I dare say you recollect, is ..... S...h denotes p...y, and is here depicted by an ear of corn near to a f...l of w...r. The word S...h dates its origin from the time that an army of Ephraimites crossed the river Jordan in a hostile manner against Jephtha, the renowned Gileaditish general; the reason they assigned for this unfriendly visit was, that they had not been called out to partake of the honours of the Ammonitish war, but their true aim was to partake of the rich spoils, with which, in consequence of that war, Jephtha and his army were then laden. The Ephraimites were always considered a clamorous and turbulent people, but then broke out into open violence, and, after many severe taunts to the Gileadites in general, threatened to destroy their victorious commander and his house with fire. Jephtha, on his part, tried all lenient means to appease them, but, finding these ineffectual, had recourse to rigorous ones; he therefore drew out his army, gave the Ephraimites battle, defeated and put them to flight, and in order to render his victory decisive, and secure himself from a like molestation in future, he sent detachments of his army to secure the passages of the river Jordan, over which he knew the insurgents must of necessity attempt to go in order to regain their own country, giving strict orders to his guards, that if a fugitive came that way, owning himself an Ephraimite, he should be immediately slain; but if he prevaricated, or said nay, a test w...d was to be put to him, to pronounce the w...d Sh...o...h; they, through a defect in aspiration, peculiar to their dialect, could not pronounce it properly, but called it Si...o...h, which small variation discovered their country and cost them their lives, and Scripture informs us that there fell on that day, on the field of battle and on the banks of the Jordan, forty and two thousand Ephraimites. And as S...o...h was then a test w...d to distinguish friend from foe, K...g S...n afterwards caused it to be adopted as a p...s w...d in a F. C. L., to prevent any unqualified person from ascending the winding staircase, leading to the middle chamber of the Temple.

After our ancient Brn. had given those convincing proofs to the J. W., he said, Pass, S...o...h, they then passed up the winding staircase, consisting of 3, 5, 7, or more s...ps; 3 rule a Lodge, 5 hold a Lodge, 7 or more make it perfect: the 3 that rule a Lodge are the W. M. and his two Ws.; the 5 that hold a Lodge are the W. M., 2 Wardens, and 2 F. C. ; the 7 that make it perfect are 2 E. A. added to the former five. 3 rule a Lodge, because there were but 3 Grand Masters who bore sway at the building of the first Temple at Jerusalem—viz., Solomon, King of Israel, H., King of T...e, and H...m A...ff. 5 hold a Lodge, in allusion to the 5 noble Orders of Architecture—viz., the Tuscan, Doric, Ionic, Corinthian, and Composite ; 7 or more make a perfect Lodge, because King Solomon was 7 years and upwards in building, completing, and dedicating the Temple at Jerusalem to God's service ; they have likewise an allusion to the 7 liberal arts and sciences—viz., G., R., L., A., G., M., and A. After our ancient Brn. had gained the summit of the winding staircase, they arrived at the door of the middle chamber, which they found open, but properly tyled against all under the Degree of a F. C. by the S. W., who demanded of them the s...n, t...n, and w...d of a F. C. After they had given those convincing proofs to the S. W., he said, Pass, J...n, they then passed into the middle chamber of the Temple, where they went to receive their wages, which they did without scruple or diffidence : without scruple, well knowing they were justly entitled to them ; and without diffidence, from the great reliance they placed on the integrity of their employers in those days. When our ancient Brethren were in the middle chamber of the Temple, their attention was peculiarly drawn to certain Hebrew characters, which are here depicted by a letter, G, denoting God, the Grand Geometrician of the Universe, to whom we must all submit, and whom we ought humbly to adore.

Charge after the Passing.

NOTE.—Not given in "Emulation" working.

W. M.—(To Can.)

HAVING advanced to the Second Degree, we congratulate you on your elevation. It is unnecessary to recapitulate the duties which as a Mason you are now bound to discharge, or enlarge on the necessity of a strict adherence to them, as your own experience must have established their value. Your past behaviour and regular deportment have merited the honour which we have conferred; and in your new character it is expected that you will not only conform to the principles of the Order, but steadily persevere in the practice of every virtue. The Study of the liberal Arts, which tend so effectually to polish and adorn the mind, is earnestly recommended to your consideration, especially the Science of Geometry, which is established as the basis of our Art. As the solemnity of our Ceremonies requires a serious deportment, you are to be particularly attentive to your behaviour in our regular assemblies ; you are to preserve our ancient usages and customs sacred and inviolable, and induce others by your example to hold them in veneration. The laws and regulations of the Order you are strenuously to support and maintain. You are not to palliate or aggravate the offences of your Brethren ; but in the decision of every trespass against our rules, judge with candour, admonish with friendship, and reprehend with mercy. As a Craftsman, in our private assemblies you may offer your sentiments and opinions on such subjects as are regularly introduced in the lecture, under the superintendence of an experienced Master, who will guard the Landmarks against encroachment. By this privilege, you may improve your intellectual powers, qualify yourself to become a useful member of society, and like a skilful Brother, strive to excel in what is good and great. You are to duly honour and obey all regular Signs and summonses given and received. You are to encourage industry, and reward merit, supply the wants and relieve the necessities of Brethren and Fellows to the utmost of your power and ability, and on no account to wrong them, or see them wronged, but timely to apprise them of approaching danger, and to view their interest as inseparable from your own. Such is the nature of your engagements as a Fellow-Craft, and these duties you are bound by the most sacred ties to observe.

END OF THE CHARGE AFTER THE PASSING.

Ceremony of Raising to the Third Degree.

THE Lodge is open in the Second Degree, the W. M. addresses the Brethren and examines the Can. (see Questions before Raising, ante); he retires to be prepared, and the Lodge is then opened in the Third Degree. When the Can. is ready, the Tyler gives the k...s of the Second Degree, the I. G. advances towards the J. W., with the s...p and p...l s...n of a M. M., and says, Bro. J. W., there is a report; the J. W. rises, gives the k...s and s...n of the Third Degree, and reports the same to the W. M.

W. M.—Bro. J. W., inquire who wants admission.

J. W.—(Resuming his seat.) Bro. I. G., see who wants admission.

(The I. G., opens the door, and asks the Tyler whom he has there.)

TYLER.—(To I. G.) Bro. A. R., who has been regularly initiated into Freemasonry, passed to the Degree of a F. C., and has made such further progress as he hopes will entitle him to be raised to the sublime Degree of a M. M., for which ceremony he is properly prepared.

I. G.—(To Tyler.) How does he hope to obtain the privileges of the Third Degree?

TYLER.—(To I. G.) By the help of God, the united aid of the s...e and c...p...s, and the benefit of a p...s w...d.

(The I. G. demands of the Can. the p...s g...p and p...s w...d, which he gives him. The I. G. closes the door, advances one pace towards the W. M., and makes the same report to him that he has received from the Tyler.)

W. M.—We acknowledge the powerful aid by which he seeks admission; do you, Bro. I. G., vouch that he is in possession of the p...s w...d?

I. G.—I do, W. M. (Having received it from the Can.)

W. M.—Then let him be admitted in due form. Bro. Deacons.

(The Can. is met at the door by the I. G., who applies the p...s of the c...s to both b...s of the Can., and then raises them above his own head, to show that he has so applied them. The Deacons (the S. on the right side) then lead the Can. to the left of the S. W., and the S. D. directs him to advance as a F. C., first as an E. A.

W. M.—Let the Can. kneel, while the blessing of Heaven is invoked on what we are about to do.

PRAYER.

Almighty and Eternal God! Architect and Ruler of the Universe, at whose creative fiat all things first were made, we, the frail creatures of Thy providence, humbly implore Thee to pour down on this convocation assembled in Thy Holy Name the continual dew of Thy blessing. Especially we beseech Thee to impart Thy grace to this Thy servant, who offers himself a Candidate to partake with us the mysterious s...s of a M. M. Endue him with such fortitude that in the hour of trial he fail not, but that passing safely under Thy protection, through the valley of the shadow of death, he may finally rise from the tomb of transgression, to shine as the stars for ever and ever.

P. M.—So mote it be.

W. M.—Let the Can. rise.

(The S. D., leads the Can. three times round the Lodge, as follows: the first time he salutes the W. M. as a Mason, and advances to the J. W. as such, showing the s...n and communicating the t...n and w...d. The J. W. then goes through the same examination as at page 72. He then salutes the S. W. as a Mason. The second time he salutes the W. M. and J. W. as a F. C., and advances to the S. W. as such, showing the s...n and communicating the t...n and w...d of that Degree. The S. W. says—)

S. W.—Have you anything to communicate?

CAN.—I have.

(The S. W. rises, and Can. gives g...p.)

S. W.—What is this?

CAN.—The g...p or t...n of a F. C. F.

S. W.—What does it demand?

CAN.—A w...d.

S. W.—Give me that word, freely and at length.

CAN.—.....

S. W.—Pass, .....

(He is then brought round to the l...l of the S. W.)

W. M.—(Knocks, followed by S. and J. Ws.) The Brethren will take notice that Bro. A. B., who has been regularly initiated into Freemasonry, and passed to the Degree of a Fellow-Craft, is about to pass in view before them, to show that he is the Can. properly prepared to be raised to the sublime Degree of a M. M.

(In going round the third time, he salutes the W. M. and J. W. as a F. C., advances to the S. W. as such, showing the s...n and communicating the p...s g...p and p...s w...d he received from the W. M. previous to leaving the Lodge. The S. W. says—)

S. W.—(To Can.) Have you anything to communicate?

CAN.—I have.

(The S. W. rises, and Can. gives p...sg...p.)

S. W.—What is this?

CAN.—The p...s g...p leading from the Second to the Third Degree.

S. W.—What does this p...s g...p demand?

CAN.—A p...s w...d.

S. W.—Give me that p...s w...d.

CAN.—T. C.

S. W.—What was T. C.?

CAN.—The first artificer in M.

S. W.—The import of the w...d?

CAN.—W. P.

S. W.—Pass, T. C.

(The S. W. rises, and, with the p...l s...n, takes the r...t hand of the Can. and presents him to the W. M., as follows:—)

S. W.—W. M., I present to you Bro

A. B., a Can. properly prepared to be raised to the Third Degree.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., you will direct the Deacons to instruct the Can. to advance to the E. by the proper s...ps.

S. W.—Bro. Deacons, it is the W. M.'s command that you instruct the Can. to advance to the E. by the proper steps.

(The S. D. stands opposite the W. M., and instructs the Can. that the method of advancing from W. to E. is by s...n s...s, the first three as if stepping over a g...e; he then goes through them, and after placing the Can. in the proper position, teaches him to do likewise.)

W. M.—(To Can.) Bro. A. B., it is but fair to inform you that a most serious trial of your fortitude and fidelity, as well as a more solemn Ob., await you. Are you prepared to meet them as you ought?

CAN.—I am.

W. M.—Then you will k...l on both k...s, place both h...s on the V. of the S. L., repeat your names at length, and say after me.

(The W. M. and W. S. give one knock, the Brethren rise and place the r...t h...a on l...t b...t.)

OBLIGATION.

I, A. B., in the presence of the Most High, and of this worthy and worshipful Lodge of M. M., duly constituted regularly assembled, and properly dedicated, of my own free will and accord, do hereby and hereon most solemnly and sincerely promise and swear, that I will always hcle, conceal, and never reveal any or either of the secrets or mysteries of or belonging to the Degree of a M. M. to any one in the world, unless it be to him or them to whom the same may justly and lawfully belong ; and not even to him or them, until after due trial, strict examination, or full conviction that he or they are worthy of that confidence, or in the body of a M. Mason's Lodge, duly opened on the c...e. I further solemnly pledge myself to adhere to the principles of the s...e and c...s..., answer and obey all lawful s...ns and summonses sent to me from a M. M.'s Lodge if within the length of my c...e t...w, and to plead no excuse except sickness or the pressing emergency of my own public or private avocations. I further solemnly engage myself to maintain and uphold the five p...s of f...w...p in act as well as in word, that my h...d

given to a M. M. shall be a sure pledge of brotherhood, that my f...t shall travel through dangers and difficulties to unite with his in forming a column of mutual defence and support, that the posture of my daily supplications shall remind me of his wants, and dispose my heart to succour his weakness and relieve his necessities, so far as may fairly be done without detriment to myself or connections; that my breast shall be the sacred repository of his secrets when intrusted to my care, murder, treason, felony, and all other offences contrary to the laws of God and the ordinances of the realm being at all times most especially excepted; and, finally, I will maintain a M. M.'s honour, and carefully preserve it as my own; I will not injure him, myself, or knowingly suffer it to be done by others, if in my power to prevent it; but, on the contrary, will boldly repel the slanderer of his good name, and most strictly respect the chastity of those nearest and dearest to him, in the persons of his wife, his sister, and his child. All these points I solemnly swear to observe, without evasion, equivocation, or mental reservation of any kind, under the no less penalty, on the violation of any of them, than that of &c. So that no trace or remembrance of so vile a wretch may longer be found among men, particularly M. M. So help me the Most High, and keep me steadfast in this my solemn Ob. of a M. M.

W. M.—(To Can.) As a pledge of your fidelity, and to render this binding as a solemn O...i...n so long as you shall live, you will seal it with your l...s thrice on the V. of the S. L.

W. M.—(To Can.) Let me once more call your attention to the position of the s...e and c...p...s; when you were made an E. A. both p...s were hid, in the Second Degree one was disclosed, in this the whole is exhibited, implying that you are now at liberty to work with both those p...s in order to render the circle of your Masonic duties complete (takes him by v...t h...d). Rise, newly O...i...d M. M.

The Exhortation.

W. M.

BRO. A. B., having entered on the solemn O...i...n of a M. M., you are now entitled to demand that last and greatest trial, by which alone you can be admitted to a participation of the s...s of this Degree. But it is first my duty to call your attention to a retrospect of those Degrees in Freemasonry through which you have already passed, that you may the better be enabled to distinguish and appreciate the connection of our whole system, and the relative dependency of its several parts. Your admission among Masons in a state of helpless indigence, was an emblematical representation of the entrance of all men on this their mortal existence; it inculcated the useful lessons of natural equality and mutual dependence, it instructed you, in the active principles of universal bene-science and charity, to seek the solace of your own distress by extending relief and consolation to your fellow-creatures in the hour of their affliction; above all, it taught you to bend with humility and resignation to the will of the Great Architect of the Universe; to dedicate your heart, thus purified from every baneful and malignant passion, fitted only for the reception of truth and wisdom, to His glory and the welfare of your fellow-mortals.

Proceeding onwards, still guiding your progress by the principles of moral truth, you were led, in the Second Degree, to contemplate the intellectual faculty, and to trace it, from its development, through the paths of Heavenly science, even to the throne of God Himself. The secrets of nature and the principles of intellectual truth were then unveiled to your view. To your mind, thus modelled by virtue and science, nature, however, presents one great and useful lesson more, she prepares you, by contemplation, for the closing hour of existence, and when, by means of that contemplation, she has conducted you through the intricate windings of this mortal life, she finally instructs you how to die.

Such, my Brother, are the peculiar objects of the Third Degree in Freemasonry; they invite you to reflect on this awful subject, and teach you to feel that to the just and virtuous man death has no terrors equal to the stain of falsehood and dishonour; of this great truth the annals of Masonry afford a glorious example in the unshaken fidelity and noble death of our Master, H...m A...ff, who was s...n just before the completion of K...g S...o...n's Temple, at the construction of which he was, as you no doubt are well aware, the principal Architect. The manner of his death was as follows:—

W. M.—Bro. Wardens.

W. M.—Fifteen F. Cs., of that superior class appointed to preside over the rest, finding that the work was nearly completed, and that they were not in possession of the s...s of the Third Degree, conspired to obtain them by any means, and even to have recourse to violence; at the moment, however, of carrying their conspiracy into execution, twelve of the fifteen recanted, but three of a more determined and atrocious character than the rest persisted in their impious design, in the prosecution of which they planted themselves respectively at the E., N., and S. entrances of the Temple, whither our M. had retired to pay his adoration to the MOST HIGH, as was his wonted custom at the hour of high twelve. Having finished his devotions, he attempted to return by the S. entrance, where he was opposed by the first of those ruffians, who, for want of other weapons, had armed himself with a heavy p...b r...e, and in a threatening manner demanded the s...s of a M. M., warning him that death would be the consequence of a refusal; but our M., true to his O...i...n, answered that those s...s were known but to t...e in the world, and without the consent and co-operation of the other t...o, he neither could nor would divulge them, but intimated he had no doubt that patience and industry would in due time entitle the worthy Mason to a participation of them, but that, for his own part, he would rather suffer death than betray the sacred trust reposed in him. This answer not proving satisfactory, the ruffian aimed a violent blow at the h...d of our M., but being startled by the firmness of his demeanour, missed his f...e...d, and only glanced on his r...t t...e (here the J. W. may touch the Can.'s r...t t...e with p...b r...e), but with such force as to cause him to reel and sink on his l...t k...e (here the Can. may sink on his l...t k...e). Recovering from this shock, he made for the N. entrance, where he was accosted by the second of those ruffians, to whom he gave a similar answer with undiminished firmness, when the ruffian, who was armed with the l...l, struck him a violent blow on the l...t t...e (here the S. W. may touch the Can.'s l...t t...e with l...l), which brought him to the ground on his r...t k...e (here the Can. may sink on his r...t k...e). Finding his retreat cut off at both these points, he staggered faint and bleeding to the E. entrance, where the third ruffian was posted, who received a similar answer to his insolent demand (for even at this trying moment our M. remained firm and unshaken), when the villain, who was armed with a heavy m...l, struck him a violent blow on the f...e...d (here the W. M. may touch Can.'s f...e...d with m...l), which laid him l...s at his feet (which the Can. may imitate. The two Ws. stand behind him, and when called upon to raise him, come forward, but retire to make their report to the W. M.)

W. M.—The Brethren will take notice, that in the recent ceremony, as well as in his present situation, our Brother has been made to represent one of the brightest characters recorded in the annals of Masonry, namely, H. A., who lost his life in consequence of his unshaken fidelity to the sacred trust reposed in him; and I hope this will make a lasting impression on his and your minds, should you ever be placed in a similar state of trial.

W. M.—Bro. J. W., you will endeavour to raise the representative of our M. by the E. A.'s g...p. (Which he does, and reports with p...l s...n.)

J. W.—W. M. it proves a s...p.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., try the F. C.'s. (Which he does, and reports, with p...l s...n.)

S. W.—W. M., it proves a s...p likewise.

W. M.—Bro. Ws., having both failed in your attempts, there remains a third method, by taking a more firm hold of the ..... of the ..... and r...g him on the f...e p...s of f...w...p, which with your assistance I will now make trial of. (He leaves the chair from the l...t, and they raise the Can.)

W. M.—(To Can.) It is thus that all M. Ms. are r...d from a figurative d...h to a reunion with the former companions of their toil.

W. M.—Bro. Ws., resume your seats.
(Which they do.)

W. M.—(To Can.) Let me now beg you to observe, that the light of a M. M. is darkness visible, serving only to express that gloom which rests on the prospect of futurity; it is that mysterious veil which the eye of human reason cannot penetrate, unless assisted by that light which is from above; yet even by this glimmering ray you may perceive that you stand on the very brink of the g...e, into which you have just figuratively descended, and which, when this transitory life shall have passed away, will again receive you into its cold bosom; let the emblems of mortality which lie before you lead you to contemplate on your inevitable destiny, and guide your reflections to that most interesting of all human studies, the knowledge of yourself. Be careful to perform your allotted task while it is yet day, continue to listen to the voice of nature, which bears witness that even in this perishable frame resides a vital and an immortal principle, which inspires a holy confidence that the Lord of life will enable us to trample the king of terrors beneath our feet, and lift our eyes to that bright morning star, whose rising brings peace and salvation to the faithful and obedient of the human race.

W. M.—(Continues.) I cannot better reward the attention you have paid to this Exhortation and Charge, than by intrusting you with the s...s of this Degree. You will therefore advance towards me as a F. C., first as an E. A. (which is done); you will now take another short pace with your l...t f...t, bringing the r...t h...l into its hollow, as before—that is the third regular s...p in Freemasonry, and it is in this position the s...s of this Degree are communicated: they consist of s...ns, a t...n, and w...d; of the s...ns, the first and second are casual, and the third penal. The first casual s...n is called the s...n of h...r, and is given from the F. C.'s, (Stand to order as a F. C.) by dropping, &c. &c., as if s...k with h...r at some d. and a s...t. The second casual s...n is called the s...n of s...p...y, and is given by &c. Place your hand in this position, &c. The p...l s...n is given by drawing the h...d, &c.; this is in allusion to the p...y of your O. B., implying, that as a man of honour and a M. M. you would rather be, &c. The g...p or t...n is the first of the F. P. of F., which are : * H...d to H...d, F...t to F...t, K...e to K...e, B...t to B...t, and H...d over B...k, and may be thus briefly explained : * H...d to h...d, I greet you as a Bro. F...t to f...t, I will support you in all your laudable undertakings. K...e to k...e, the posture of my daily supplications shall remind me of your wants. B...t to b...t, your lawful secrets, when intrusted to me as such, I will keep as my own. And h...d over b...k, I will support your character in your absence as in your presence. It is in this position, and in this only, and then only in a w...r, except in open Lodge, that the w...d is given ; it is ..... or .....

W. M.—You are now at liberty to retire, in order to restore yourself to your personal comforts, and on your return to the Lodge, the s...ns, t...n, and w...d will be further explained.

* The F. P. of F. are actually given both times.

S. W.—(Rising, with the s...n). W. M., I present to you Bro. A. B., on his being raised to the Third Degree, for some further mark of your favour.

W. M.—Bro. S. W., I delegate you to invest him with the distinguishing b...e of a M. M.

S. W.—(To Can.) By the W. Master's command, I invest you (puts it on) with the distinguishing b...e of a M. M., to mark the further progress you have made in the science.

W. M.—(To Can.) I must state, that the b...e with which you have now been invested, not only points out your rank as a M. M., but is meant to remind you of those great duties you have just solemnly engaged yourself to observe, and while it marks your own superiority, it calls on you to afford assistance and instruction to the Brethren in the inferior Degrees.

(The Deacons place the Can. before W. M.)

W. M.—We left off at that part of our traditional history which mentions the d...h of our Master H...m A...f; a loss so important as that of the principal Architect could not fail of being generally and severely felt; the want of those plans and designs which had hitherto been regularly supplied to the different classes of the workmen was the first indication that some heavy calamity had befallen our M. The Menatschin, or Prefects, or more familiarly speaking, the Overseers, deputed some of the most eminent of their number to acquaint King Solomon with the utter confusion into which the absence of H...m had plunged them, and to express their apprehension that to some fatal catastrophe must be attributed his sudden and mysterious disappearance. King Solomon immediately ordered a general muster of the workmen throughout the different departments, when three of the same class of Overseers could not be found. On the same day the twelve Craftsmen who had originally joined the conspiracy came before the King, and made a voluntary confession of all that they knew down to the time of withdrawing themselves from the number of the conspirators. This naturally increased the fears of King Solomon for the safety of his chief artist; he therefore selected fifteen trusty F. Cs., and ordered them to make a diligent search after the person of our M. if he were yet alive, or had suffered death in the attempt to extort from him the secrets of his exalted Degree. Accordingly, a stated day having been appointed for their return to Jerusalem, they formed themselves into three F. C. l...s and departed from the three entrances of the Temple, many days were spent in fruitless search; indeed, one class returned without having made any discovery of importance; a second, however, were more fortunate, for on the evening of a certain day, after having suffered the greatest privations and personal fatigues, one of the Brethren who had rested himself in a reclining posture, to assist his rising caught hold of a shrub that grew near, which, to his surprise, came easily out of the ground; on a closer examination he found that the earth had been recently disturbed; he therefore hailed his companions, and with their united endeavours reopened the ground, and there found the body of our M. very indecently interred. They covered it again with all respect and reverence, and to distinguish the spot, stuck a sprig of A...a at the head of the g...e; they then hastened to Jerusalem to impart the afflicting intelligence to King Solomon; he, when the first emotions of his grief had subsided, ordered them immediately to return, and raise our M. to such a sepulture as became his rank and exalted talents ; at the same time informing them that by his untimely death the s...s of a M. M. were lost ; he therefore charged them to be particularly careful in observing whatever casual s...n, t...n, or w...d might occur, whilst paying this last sad tribute of respect to departed merit. They performed their task with the utmost fidelity, for on re-opening the ground, one of the Brethren, looking round, observed some of his companions in this position (gives the s...n of h...r...r), struck with h...r...r at the dreadful and afflicting sight, while others, viewing the ghastly w...d, still visible on his f...e...d, smote their own in sympathy with his sufferings. two of the Brethren then descended the grave, and endeavoured to raise our M. by the E. A.'s g...p, which proved a s...p ; they then tried the F. C.'s, which proved a s...p likewise ; having both failed in their attempts, a zealous and expert Brother took a more f...m h...d of the ..... of the ....., and with their assistance raised him on the five p...s of f...w...p, while others, more animated, exclaimed ..... or ....., both words having a nearly similar import ; the one signifying the d...h of the B., the other the B. is s...n. King Solomon therefore ordered that those casual s...ns, and that t...n and w...d, should designate all M. Ms. throughout the universe, until time or circumstances should restore the genuine.

It only remains to account for the third class, who had pursued their researches in the direction of Joppa, and were meditating their return to Jerusalem, when accidentally passing the mouth of a cavern they heard sounds of deep lamentation and regret. On entering the cave to ascertain the cause, they found three men answering the description of those missing, who, on being charged with the m...r, and finding all chance of escape cut off, made a full confession of their guilt. They were then bound and led to Jerusalem, where King Solomon sentenced them to that death the heinousness of their crime so amply merited.

W. M.—(Continues.) Our M. was ordered to be re-interred as near the Sanctum Sanctorum as the Israelitish law would permit, there, in a G...e, from the centre, three feet E., and three feet W., three feet between N. and S., and five feet or more perpendicular. He was not buried in the Sanctum Sanctorum, because nothing common or unclean was allowed to enter there, not even the High Priest but once a year, nor then, until after many washings and purifications against the great day of expiation for sin, for by the Israelitish law all flesh was deemed unclean. The same fifteen trusty F. Cs. were ordered to attend the funeral, clothed in w...e a...s and g...s, as emblems of their innocence.

You have already been informed that the W. T. with which our M. was slain were the P., L., and H. M. The ornaments of a M. M.'s l...e are the Porch, Dormer, and Square Pavement. The Porch was the entrance to the Sanctum Sanctorum; the Dormer, the window that gave light to the same; and the Square Pavement for the High Priest to walk on. The High Priest's office was to burn incense to the honour and glory of the Most High, and to pray fervently that the Almighty, of His unbounded wisdom and goodness, would be pleased to bestow peace and tranquillity on the Israelitish nation, during the ensuing year. The Coffin, Skull, and Cross-bones, being emblems of mortality, allude to the untimely death of our Master H. A. He was slain three thousand years after the creation of the world.*

* The foregoing may also be considered explanatory of the Third Tracing Board.

W. M.—You have already been informed of three s...ns in this Degree: the whole are five, corresponding in number with the five p...ts of f...p. They are the s...n of h...r, the s...n of s...y, the p...l s...n, the s...n of g...f and d...s, and the s...n of j...y and e...n, likewise called the g...d or r...l s...n. For the sake of regularity, I will go through them, and you will copy me. This is the s...n of h...r; this of s...y. This the p...l s...n. The s...n of g...f and d...s is given by, &c.; this took its rise at the time when our M. was making his way from the N. to the E. entrance of the Temple, when his agony was so great that the perspiration stood in large drops on his forehead, and he made use of this s...n as a temporary relief to his sufferings. This is the s...n of j...y and e...n, likewise called the g...d or r...l s...n; it took its rise at the time when the Temple was completed, and K. S. and the princes of his household went to view it, when they were so struck with its magnificence, that with one simultaneous motion they exclaimed, Oh, wonderful Masons!

On the Continent of Europe, the s...n of g...f and d...s is given differently; by clasping the h...s and raising them with their backs to the f...d, exclaiming, "C. t. m. a., y. c. o. t. w.," on the supposition that all M. Ms. are Bros. to H. A., who was a w.'s son.

In Scotland, Ireland, and the States of America, the s...n of g...f and d...s is given still differently, by throwing up the h...s with the p...s extended to the heavens, and dropping them with three distinct motions to the sides, exclaiming, "O, L. m. G. ; O, L. m. G. ; O, L. m. G., i. t. n. h. f. t. w.'s s.?"

I now present to you the working tools of a M. M. ; they are the S...t, P...l, and C...s. The S...t is an implement which acts on a centre pin, whence a line is drawn to mark out ground for the foundation of the intended structure ; with the P...l the skilful artist delineates the building in a draft or plan, for the instruction and guidance of the workmen ; the C...s enable him with accuracy and precision to ascertain and determine the limits and proportions of its several parts. But as we are not all operative masons, but rather free and accepted, or speculative, we apply these tools to our morals. In this sense, the S...t points out that straight and undeviating line of conduct laid down for our pursuit in the V. of the S. L. ; the P...l teaches us that our words and actions are observed and recorded by the Almighty Architect, to whom we must give an account of our conduct through life; and the C...s remind us of His unerring and impartial justice, Who, having defined for our instruction the limits of good and evil, will reward or punish as we have obeyed or disregarded His divine commands. Thus, the working tools of a M. M. teach us to bear in mind, and to act according to, the laws of our Divine Creator, that when we shall be summoned from this sub-lunary abode, we may ascend to the Grand Lodge above, where the world's great Architect lives and reigns for ever.

END OF THE CEREMONY OF RAISING TO THE THIRD DEGREE.

Charge after the Raising.

NOTE.—Not given in "Emulation" working.

W. M.—(To Can.) Brother, your zeal for the institution of Freemasonry, the progress which you have made in the art, and your conformity to the general regulations, have pointed you out as a proper object of our favour and esteem. In the character of a Master Mason, you are henceforth authorised to correct the errors and irregularities of Brethren and Fellows, and guard them against a breach of fidelity. To improve the morals and correct the manners of men in society must be your constant care. With this view, therefore, you are always to recommend to inferiors obedience and submission; to equals, courtesy and affability; to superiors, kindness and condescension. You are to inculcate universal benevolence, and by the regularity of your own behaviour, afford the best example for the conduct of others. The ancient Landmarks of the Order, which are here intrusted to your care, you are to preserve sacred and inviolable, and never suffer an infringement of our rites, or a deviation from established usage and custom. Duty, honour, and gratitude now bind you to be faithful to every trust, to support with becoming dignity your new character, and to enforce, by example and precept, the tenets of the system. Let no motive, therefore, make you swerve from your duty, violate your vows, or betray your trust; but be true and faithful, and imitate the example of that celebrated Artist whom you have once represented. By this exemplary conduct, you will convince the world that merit has been your title to our privileges, and that on you our favours have not been undeservedly bestowed.

END OF THE CHARGE AFTER THE RAISING.

Test Questions of the ph. M.
Degree.

QUESTION.

HOW got you raised to the s. d. of a
M. M. ?

A.—By undergoing a previous examination in open L...e, and being intrusted with a test of merit leading to that Degree.

Q.—Where were you then conducted ?

A.—To a convenient room adjoining a M. M.'s L...e, for the purpose of being p...d.

Q.—How were you p...d ?

A.—I had both a...s, both b...s, and both k...s made b...e, and both h...s

Q.—What enabled you to claim admission ?

A.—The help of G...d, the united aid of the s...e and c...s, and the benefit of a p...s w...d.

Q.—Which I will thank you to give.

A.— ... ..

Q.—The import of the word?

A.— ... ..

Q.—How did you gain admission?

A.—By the K...s of a F. C.

Q.—On what were you admitted?

A.—On both the p...s of the c...s extended to both my n...d b...s.

Q.—On being admitted into the L...e, did you observe anything different in form from its usual character?

A.—I did; all was d...k...s, save a g...m...g l...t in the E...t.

Q.—To what does that d...k...s allude?

A.—To the d...k...s of d...h.

Q.—Am I then to understand that d...h is the peculiar subject of the t...d d...e?

A.—It is indeed.

Q.—From what circumstance?

A.—The untimely d...h of our Master,
H. A. B.

Q.—What were the w. t. with which our M. H. was s...n?

A.—The p...b r...e, l...l, and h...y
m...l.

Q.—How became you acquainted with his d...h?

A.—By having figuratively represented him when I was raised to the s. d. of a M. M.

Q.—Were you raised, and on what?

A.—I was; on the five p...s of f...w. .p.

The Ceremony of Calling-off and Calling on.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Bro. J. W., what time is it?

J. W.—(To W. M.) Past high time, W. M.

W. M.—(To J. W.) Your duty?

J. W.—To call the Brn. from refreshment to labour.

W. M.—(To J. W.) I will thank you to declare it.

J. W.—(To the L...e.) Brn., it is the W. M.'s command that you cease refreshment and return to labour, for the further despatch of Masonic buisness.

(He gives one k...k, which is answered as before. He lays down his column, and the S. W. raises his. They then take their seats, and the P. M. opens the v...e of the S...d L...w.)

Ceremony of Opening Grand Lodge.

M. W. G. M.

BRETHREN, assist me to open this Grand Lodge. (All rise.)

M. W. G. M.—Bro. Grand Pursuivant, where is your situation in Grand Lodge?

G. P.—Within the Inner Porch of Grand Lodge, M. W. G. M.

M. W. G. M.—What is your duty?

G. P.—To give a due report of all approaching Brethren, and to see that they are properly clothed, and ranged under their respective banners.

M. W. G. M.—Do you find them so placed?

G. P.—To the best of my knowledge, M. W. G. M.

M. W. G. M.—Where is the situation of the J. G. W.

G. P.—In the South, M. W. G. M.

M. W. G. M.—Bro. J. G. W., whom do you represent?

J. G. W.—B..., prince of the people, on Mount Tabor.

M. W. G. M.—Where is the situation of the S. G. W.?

S. G. W.—In the West, M. W. G. M.

M. W. G. M.—Bro. S. G. W., whom do you represent?

S. G. W.—J..., the Assistant High Priest on Mount Sinai.

M. W. G. M.—Where is the situation of the Deputy G. M.?

S. G. W.—At the right of the M. W. G. M.
M. W. G. M.—Bro. D. G. M., whom do you represent?

D. G. M.—H. A., the Prince of Architects.

M. W. G. M.—What is your duty?

D. G. M.—To lay schemes, draw designs, and assist the M. W. G. M. in the execution of the work.

M. W. G. M.—Where is the situation of the M. W. G. M.?

D. G. M.—In the East.

M. W. G. M.—Whom does he represent?

D. G. M.—The Royal Solomon.

M. W. G. M.—Then, Brethren, after the G. Chaplain has invoked the blessing of the G. A. O. T. U., I shall, in the name of the Royal Solomon, declare this Grand Lodge opened in due form.

(The G. Chaplain offers up Prayer. The Brethren are then called to order by the M. W. G. M., who gives one knock, followed by the Ws.)

(THE CEREMONY OF CLOSING IS THE SAME AS OPENING.)

Ceremonies of Opening and Closing Provincial Grand Lodge.

Precisely the same as for Opening and Closing G. L., simply prefixing the word "Provincial" to Lodge and Officers, the Master's style being R. W. P. G. M.

First Lecture.

INTRODUCTORY ADDRESS.

BRETHREN, Masonry, according to the general acceptation of the term, is an Art founded on the principles of Geometry, and directed to the service and convenience of mankind. But Freemasonry embracing a wider range, and having a more noble object in view, namely, the cultivation and improvement of the human mind, may, with more propriety, be called a Science, although its lessons for the most part are veiled in Allegory and illustrated by Symbols, inasmuch, as veiling itself under the terms of the former, it inculcates principles of the purest morality.

To draw aside this veil therefore, or more properly speaking, to penetrate through its mysteries, is the object of our Masonic Lectures, and by a faithful and appropriate attention to them we hope ultimately to become acquainted with all its mysteries. The Lecture of this Degree is divided into seven Sections, and throughout the whole, virtue is depicted in its most beautiful colours, the duties of morality are everywhere strictly enforced.

The nature, character, the attributes and perfections, of the Deity are faithfully delineated and forcibly portrayed, and are well calculated to influence our conduct towards Him, as our Father, Benefactor, and Moral Governor, as also in the proper discharge of the duties of social life. The mode of Masonic instruction is the catechetical, or in more familiar terms, by question and answer; therefore, Bro. S. W., from a previous conviction that you are a Mason, permit me to ask you in that character, How did you and I first meet?

Q.—How do we hope to part?

A.—On the S...e.

Q.—Why meet and part in this peculiar manner?

A.—As Masons we should so act on the one as to enable us to part on the other with all mankind, particularly our brethren in Masonry.

Q.—Whence come you?

A.—From the W...t.

Q.—Whither directing your course?

A.—To the E...t.

Q.—What inducement have you to leave the W...t, and go to the E...t?

A.—To seek a Master, and from him to gain instruction.

Q.—Who are you that want instruction?

A.—A Free and Accepted Mason.

Q.—What manner of man ought a Free and an Accepted Mason to be?

A.—A free man born of a free woman, brother to a King, fellow to a Prince, or a beggar, if a Mason and found worthy.

Q.—Why so free-born?

A.—It alludes to that grand festival which Abraham made at the weaning of his son Isaac, when Sarah, Abraham's wife, observing Ishmael son to Hagar, the Egyptian bondwoman, teasing and perplexing her son, she remonstrated with her husband, and said, Put away that bondwoman and her son, for such as he shall not inherit with the free-born, even with my son Isaac. She spake as being endowed with a prophetic spirit, well knowing that from Isaac's loins should spring a great and mighty people, who would serve the Lord with freedom, fervency, and zeal; and fearing that if the two youths were brought up together, Isaac might imbibe some of Ishmael's slavish principles, it being a general remark in those days, as well as the present, that the minds of slaves were more vitiated and less enlightened than those of the free-born.

Q.—Why those equalities among Masons?

A.—We are all created equal, which is strengthened by our Masonic O...i...n.

Q.—Masonically speaking, whence come you?

A.—From a worthy and worshipful Lodge of Brothers and Fellows.

Q.—What recommendation do you bring?

A.—To greet your worship well. (Gives the s...n.)

Q.—Any other recommendation?

A.—Hearty good wishes.

Q.—As you bring nothing but hearty good wishes, what come you here to do?

A.—To learn to rule and subdue my passions, and make a further progress in Masonry.

Q.—By this I presume you are a Mason?

A.—I am so taken and accepted among Brothers and Fellows.

Q.—How do you know yourself to be a Mason?

A.—By the regularity of my initiation, repeated trials with approbation, and a willingness at all times to undergo examination when properly called upon.

Q.—How do you demonstrate the proof of your being a Mason to others?

A.—By s...s, t...s, and perfect points of my entrance.

Q.—What are s...s?

A.—All S...s, L...s, and P...d...s are true and proper s...s to know a Mason by.

Q.—What are t...s?

A.—Certain regular and friendly g...s, whereby we know a Brother by n...t as well as by d...y.

Q.—Give me the points of your entrance.

A.—If you will give me the first, I will give you the second.

Q.—I HELE.

A.—I conceal.

Q.—What do you wish to conceal?

A.—All s...s and m...t...s of or belonging to Free and Accepted Masons in Masonry.

Q.—This being open L...e, you may safely reveal.

A.—Of, At, and On.

Q.—Of, At, and On what?

A.—Of my own free will and accord; at the door of the L...e; on the point of a sharp instrument presented to my n...d l...t b...t.

Q.—When were you made a Mason?

A.—When the sun was at its meridian.

Q.—In this country Freemasons' L...s are usually held in the evening, how do you account for that, which at first view appears a paradox?

A.—The centre of the solar system being within the sun, and the earth constantly revolving round it on its own axis, and Freemasonry being universally spread over its surface, it necessarily follows that the sun must always be at its meridian with respect to Freemasonry.

Q.—What is Freemasonry?

A.—A peculiar system of morality, veiled in allegory, and illustrated by symbols.

Q.—Where were you made a Freemason?

A.—In the body of a L...e just, perfect, and regular.

Q.—What is a L...e of Freemasons?

A.—An assemblage of the Brethren, met to expatiate on the m...t...s of the Craft.

Q.—When met, what makes them just?

A.—The vol. of the S...d L...w unfolded.

Q.—What perfect?

A.—S...n or more regularly made Masons.

Q.—What regular?

A.—The charter or warrant of constitution.

Q.—Why were you made a Freemason?

A.—For the sake of obtaining the s...s of M...s and to be brought from darkness.

Q.—Have they any s...s?

A.—They have, many invaluable ones.

Q.—Where do they keep them?

A.—In their h...s.

Q.—To whom do they reveal them?

A.—To Masons, and them only.

Q.—How do they reveal them?

A.—By s...s, t...s, and particular w...s.

Q.—As Masons, how do we hope to get at them?

A.—By the assistance of a key.

Q.—Does that key hang or lie?

A.—It hangs.

Q.—Why is the preference given to hanging?

A.—It should always hang in a Brother's defence, and never lie to his prejudice.

Q.—What does it hang by?

A.—The thread of life, in the passage of utterance, between G...t...l and P...c...l.

Q.—Why so nearly connected with the heart?

A.—That being the index of the mind, should utter nothing but what the heart truly dictates.

Q.—It is a curious key, of what m...l is it composed?

A.—No m...l, it is the tongue of good report.

SECOND SECTION.

Q.—Where were you first prepared to be made a Mason?

A.—In my heart.

Q.—Where next?

A.—In a convenient room adjoining the L...e.

Q.—Who brought you to be made a Mason?

A.—A friend, whom I afterwards found to be a brother.

Q.—Describe the mode of your p...p...t...n.

A.—I was divested of m...l and h...d-w...d, I had my r...t arm l...t b...t and k...e made b...e, my r...t h...l s...p...d, and a c...e t...w about my neck.

Q.—Why were you divested of m...l?

A.—That I might bring nothing offensive or defensive into the L...e to disturb its harmony.

Q.—There is a second reason?

A.—That as I was received into Masonry in a state of p...y, it was to remind me to relieve all indigent brethren, knowing them to be worthy, that not being detrimental to myself or connections.

Q.—A third reason?

A.—That at the building of King Solomon's Temple, there was not heard the sound of m...l...c tools.

Q.—Is it possible that so stately an edifice as King Solomon's Temple is represented to have been, could have been carried on and completed without the aid of m...l...c tools?

A.—It was; the stones were hewn in the quarries, there squared, carved, marked, and numbered. The timbers were felled and prepared in the forest of Lebanon, there carved, marked, and numbered also, they were then floated to Joppa, and thence conveyed in carriages to Jerusalem, where they were set up with wooden mauls and other implements prepared for that purpose.

Q.—Why were the stones and timber prepared so far off?

A.—To distinguish the excellency of the Craft in those days, for although the materials were hewn and prepared at so great a distance, when they were brought to Jerusalem, and came to be put together, each piece fitted with that exact nicety, that it appeared more like the work of the Great Architect of the Universe, than of human hands.

Q.—Why were you h...d-w...d?

A.—That in case I had refused to go through the usual ceremony observed in making a Mason, I might be led out of the L...e without discovering its form.

Q.—There is a second reason?

A.—That as I was received into Freemasonry in a state of d...k...s, it was to remind me to keep all the world so, with respect to our Masonic s...s, unless they came legally by them as I was then about to do.

Q.—A third reason?

A.—That my heart might conceive before my eyes could discover.

Q.—Why were you s...p-s...d?

A.—It alludes to a certain passage in Scripture, when the Lord spake to Moses from the Burning Bush, saying, "Put thy shoes from off thy feet, for the ground whereon thou standest is holy."

Q.—Being thus properly prepared, where were you conducted?

A.—To the door of the L...e.

Q.—How did you find that door?

A.—Shut and close t...d.

Q.—By whom?

A.—One whom I afterwards found to be the t...r of the L...e.

Q.—His duty?

A.—Being armed with a drawn s...d, to keep off all cowans and intruders to Masonry, and see that the candidates come properly prepared.

Q.—Being in a state of d...k...s, how did you know it to be a door?

A.—By meeting an opposition, and afterwards gaining admission.

Q.—How did you gain admission ?

A.—By three distinct k...s.

Q.—To what do those three distinct k...s allude ?

A.—To an ancient and venerable exhortation, Seek, and ye shall find ; ask, and ye shall have ; k...k, and it shall be opened unto you.

Q.—How did you apply that exhortation to your then situation ?

A.—Having sought in my mind, I asked of my friend, he k...d, and the door of Freemasonry became open to me.

Q.—When the Masonic door became opened to you, who first came to your assistance ?

A.—One whom I afterwards found to be the I. G.

Q.—What did he demand of your friend, or the t...r ?

A.—Whom he had there.

Q.—The t.'s answer ?

A.—Mr A. B., a poor candidate, in a state of d...k...s, who has been well and worthily recommended, regularly proposed and approved in open L...e, now comes of his own free will and accord, properly prepared, humbly soliciting to be admitted to the m...t...s and p...l...s of Freemasonry.

Q.—What did he further demand ?

A.—How I hoped to obtain those p...l...s.

Q.—Your answer ?

A.—By the help of God, being free, and of good report.

Q.—How did the I. G. then proceed ?

A.—He desired me to wait, while he reported to the W. M., who was afterwards pleased to order my admission.

Q.—Were you admitted? And on what?

A.—I was, on the p...t of a S. I. presented to my n...d l...t b...t.

Q.—Why was the p...t of a S. I. presented to your ... on your entrance into the L...e?

A.—It was to intimate to me that I was about to engage in something serious and solemn, likewise to distinguish the sex.

Q.—After gaining admission into the Lodge, where were you conducted?

Q.—What was the first question put to you by the W. M.?

A.—Mr A. B., As no person can be made a Mason unless he is free and of mature age, I demand of you, are you free, and of the full age of twenty-one years? Which I answered in the affirmative.

Q.—What were you then directed to do?

A.—K...l, and receive the benefit of a Masonic p...r.

Q.—For which I will thank you (all rise).

A.—Vouchsafe Thine aid, Almighty Father and Supreme Governor of the Universe, to our present convention, and grant that this Candidate for Freemasonry may so dedicate and devote his life to Thy service, as to become a true and faithful Brother among us. Endue him with a competency of Thy Divine wisdom, that, assisted by the secrets of our Masonic art, he may the better be enabled to unfold the beauties of true godliness, to the honour and glory of Thy holy name.—P. M.—So mote it be.

Q.—After the recital of this p...r, what was the next question put to you by the W. M.?

A.—In all cases of difficulty and danger, in whom do you put your trust?

Q.—Your answer?

A.—God.

Q.—The Master's reply?

A.—Right glad am I to find your faith so well founded; relying on such sure support, you may safely arise and follow your leader with a firm but humble confidence, for where the name of God is invoked, we trust no danger can ensue.

Q.—How did the W. M. then address the L...e?

A.—The brethren from the North, East, South, and West will take notice that Mr A. B. is about to pass in view before them, to show that he is a candidate properly prepared, and a fit and proper person to be made a Mason.

Q.—How were you then disposed of?

A.—Being neither naked nor clothed, barefoot nor shod, but in an humble, halting, moving posture, the J. D. friendly took me by the right hand, led me up the N. past the W. M. in the E., down the S., and delivered me over to the S. W. in the W.

Q.—What was required of you during your progress?

A.—To go through a similar examination with the J. and S. Ws. as I had done at the door of the L...e.

Q.—Why were you led round the L...e in this conspicuous manner?

A.—It was figuratively to represent the seeming state of poverty and distress in which I was admitted into F...m...y, on the miseries of which (if realised) were I for a moment to reflect, it could not fail to make that lasting impression on my mind, never to close my ears unkindly to the cries of the distressed, but listening with attention to their complaints, pity would naturally flow from my breast, accompanied with that relief their necessities required and my ability could afford. It was likewise to show that I was a candidate properly prepared, and a fit and proper person to be made a Mason.

Q.—Who are fit and proper persons to be made Masons?

A.—Just, upright, and free men, of mature age, sound judgment, and strict morals.

Q.—Why are the p...l...s of Freemasonry restricted to free men?

A.—That the vicious habits of slavery might not contaminate the true principles of freedom on which our Order is founded.

Q.—Why of mature age?

A.—That we may the better be enabled to judge for ourselves, as well as the Fraternity at large.

Q.—Why of sound judgment and strict morals?

A.—That both by precept and example we may the better be enabled to enforce a due obedience to those excellent laws and tenets laid down for us in Freemasonry.

Q.—When delivered over to the S. W. in the West, how did he proceed?

A.—He presented me to the W. M. as a candidate properly prepared to be made a Mason.

Q.—The W. Master's answer?

A.—Bro. S. W., your presentation shall be attended to, for which purpose I will address a few questions to the candidate, which I trust he will answer with candour.

Q.—The first of those questions?

A.—Mr A. B., do you seriously declare on your honour, that, unbiassed by the improper solicitation of friends against your own inclination, uninfluenced by mercenary or other unworthy motives, you freely and voluntarily offer yourself a candidate for the m...s and p...s of Freemasonry?

Q.—The second question?

A.—Do you likewise pledge yourself that you are prompted to solicit those p...l...s from a favourable opinion preconceived of the Institution, a general desire for knowledge, and a sincere wish to render yourself more extensively serviceable to your fellow-creatures?

Q.—The third question?

A.—Do you further seriously declare on your honour, that avoiding fear on the one hand, and rashness on the other, you will steadily persevere through the ceremony of your initiation, and if once admitted, will afterwards act and abide by the ancient usages and established customs of the Order? To all which questions, answers in the affirmative were given.

Q.—What did the W. Master then order?

A.—The S.W. to direct the J.D. to instruct me to advance to the pedestal in due form.

Q.—I will thank you to show the form of advancing from W. to E. in this degree.

A.—(This is done.)

Q.—Of what do those three irregular s...s consist?

A.—Right lines and angles.

Q.—What do they morally teach?

A.—Upright lives and well-squared actions.

Q.—When brought before the W. M. in the East, how did he address you?

A.—Mr A. B., it is my duty to inform you that Masonry is free, and requires a perfect freedom of inclination in every Candidate for its mysteries; it is founded on the purest principles of piety and virtue; it possesses great and invaluable privileges; but in order to secure those privileges to worthy men, and we trust to worthy men alone, vows of fidelity are required; but let me assure you, that in those vows there is nothing incompatible with your civil, moral, or religious duties; are you therefore willing to take a solemn obligation, founded on the principles I have stated, to keep inviolate the secrets and mysteries of our Order?

Q.—Having answered this question in a satisfactory manner, were you made a M...n?

A.—I was, and that in due form.

Q.—Describe the due form observed in making a M...n.

A.—L...t k...e b...e and b...t, r...t f...t formed in a s...e, b...y erect within the s...e, right hand on the vol. of the S...d L...w, while my l...t was employed in supporting a pair of c...p...s, one point extended to my n...d l...t b...t.

Q.—Why were the c...p...s presented to your n...d l...t b...t at your initiation?

A.—As the c...p...s were then an emblem of torture to my body, so might the recollection prove to my mind, should I ever be about illegally to reveal any of those Masonic s...s I was then on the point of being intrusted with.

Q.—And in that attitude what were you about to do?

A.—Take the great and solemn O...i...n of an E. A. F.

Q.—For which I will thank you.

A.—I, A. B., in the presence of the Great Architect of the Universe, and of this worthy, worshipful, and warranted Lodge of ancient, free, and accepted Masons, regularly assembled and properly dedicated, of my own free will and accord, do hereby and hereon sincerely and solemnly promise and swear, that I will always hele, conceal, and never reveal any part or parts, point or points, of the secrets or mysteries of or belonging to free and accepted Masons in Masonry, which may heretofore have been known by me, shall now, or at any future time may be communicated to me, unless it be to a true and lawful Brother or Brothers, and not even to him or them until after due trials, strict examination, or sure information from a well-known Brother that he or they are worthy of that confidence, or in the body of a just, perfect, and regular Lodge of ancient, free, and accepted Masons. I further solemnly promise that I will not write those secrets, indite, carve, mark, engrave, or otherwise them delineate, or cause or suffer it to be so done by others, if in my power to prevent it, on anything movable or immovable under the canopy of Heaven, whereby or whereon any letter, character, or figure, or the least trace of a letter, character, or figure, may become legible, or intelligible to myself or to any one in the world, so that our secret arts and hidden mysteries may improperly become known through my unworthiness. These several points I solemnly swear to observe, without evasion, equivocation, or mental reservation of any kind, under no less penalty on the violation of either of them, than that of having, &c., or the more effective punishment of being branded as a wilfully perjured individual, void of all moral worth, and totally unfit to be received into this worshipful Lodge, or any other warranted Lodge, or society of men who prize honour and virtue above the external advantages of rank and fortune. So help me God, and keep me steadfast in this my great and solemn obligation of an E. A. Freemason.

O...i...n of an E. A. F., how did the W. M. address you ?

A.—What you have repeated may be considered but a sacred promise ; as a pledge of your fidelity, and to render it binding as a solemn O...i...n, I will thank you to seal it with your lips on the V. of the S. L.

Q.—How did he further address you ?

A.—Having been kept a considerable time in a state of d...k...s, what in your present situation is the predominant wish of your h...t ?

Q.—Your answer ?

A.—L...t. Which the J. D. by command of the W. M. was pleased to restore me to.

Q.—After being restored to the blessings of material l...t, what was particularly pointed out to your attention ?

A.—The three great though e...m...l l...s in Masonry, viz., The V. of the S. L., the S., and C.

Q.—Their uses ?

A.—The S. Ws. are to rule and govern our faith ; the Sq. to regulate our lives and actions ; and the c...p...s to keep us in due bounds with all mankind, particularly our Brn. in Masonry.

Q.—How did the W. M. then proceed ?

A.—He friendly took me by the r...t h...d, and said, Rise, newly O...i...d Bro. among Masons.

THIRD SECTION.

Q.—After quitting your kneeling posture, what was next pointed out to your attention?

A.—The three lesser L...s in Masonry.

Q.—How are they situated?

A.—E., S., and W.

Q.—For what purpose?

A.—To show the due course of the Sun, which rises in the E., gains its meridian lustre in the S., and sets in the W.; likewise to light men to, at, and from labour.

Q.—Why was there none in the N.?

A.—The Sun being then below our horizon, darted no rays of L...t from that quarter to this our hemisphere.

Q.—Whom do those lesser lights represent?

A.—The Sun, Moon, and Master of the L...e.

Q.—Why the Sun, Moon, and Master of the L...e?

A.—The Sun to rule the day, the Moon to govern the night, and the Master to rule and direct his L...e.

Q.—Why is the M. of a F. M.'s L...e put in comparison with those two grand luminaries?

A.—As it is by the blessed and benign influence of the Sun and Moon we, as men, are enabled to perform the duties of social life, so it is by the kind care and instruction of the W. M. we, as Masons, are enabled to perform the duties which the Craft require.

Q.—How did the W. M. then address you?

A.—Bro. A. B., by your meek and candid behaviour this evening, you have escaped two great dangers, but there is a third which will await you till the latest period of your existence. The dangers you have escaped are those of s...b...g and s...g; for at your entrance into the Lodge, this p...n...d was presented to your naked l...t b...t, so that had you rashly attempted to rush forward, you would have been accessory to your own death by s...b...g; not so the Brother who held it, as he would have remained firm, and only done his duty. There was likewise this C...e t...w with a running noose about your neck, which would have rendered any attempt to retreat equally fatal; but the danger which will await you to your latest hour is the penalty of your obligation, implying that as a man of honour and a Mason you would rather have y... t... c... a... th... im... disclose the S. of F. M.

Q.—How did he further address you?

A.—Having entered on the great and solemn obligation of an E. A. Freemason,

I am now permitted to inform you that there are several Degrees in Freemasonry, and peculiar s...s restricted to each; these, however, are not communicated indiscriminately, but are conferred on candidates according to merit and ability. I shall now proceed to intrust you with the s...s of this Degree, or those marks by which we are known to each other, and distinguished from the rest of the world, but must premise for your general information that all sq...s, l...s, and perpendiculars, are true and proper s...ns to know a Mason by; you are therefore expected to stand perfectly erect, with your feet formed in a s...e; your body being thus considered an emblem of your mind, and your feet of the rectitude of your actions.

Q.—What were you then ordered to do?

A.—Take a short pace with my l...t f...t, bringing the r...t h...l into the h...w; that, he informed me, was the first regular s...p in Freemasonry, and it was in this position the s...s of the degree were communicated.

Q.—Of what do those s...s consist?

A.—A s...n, t...n, and w...d.

Q.—I will thank you for the s...n in due form.

A.—(Which is given.)

Q.—Communicate the t...n to Bro. —

A.—(Which is done.)

Q.—Is that correct?

A.—It is.

Q.—What does that demand?

A.—A w...d.

Q.—Give me that w...d.

him who receives. In a society so widely extended as Freemasonry, the branches of which are spread over the four divisions of the globe, it cannot be denied that we have many members of rank and opulence, neither can it be concealed that among the thousands who range under its banners, there are some who, from circumstances of unavoidable calamity and misfortune, are reduced to the lowest ebb of poverty and distress. On their behalf it is our usual custom, to awaken the feelings of every new-made Bro., by such a claim on his charity as his circumstances in life may faithfully warrant; whatever you feel disposed to give deposit with the J. D., it will be thankfully received, and faithfully applied.

Q.—Your answer?

A.—I was deprived of everything v...l...e previous to entering the L...e, or I would have given freely.

Q.—The W. Master's reply?

A.—I congratulate you on the honourable sentiments by which you are actuated, likewise on the inability which in the present instance precludes you from gratifying them; believe me, this trial was not made with a view to sport with your feelings, far from us be any such intention, it was done for three especial reasons.

Q.—The first of those reasons?

A.—To put my principles to the test.

Q.—The second?

A.—To evince to the brethren that I had neither m...y nor m...c substances about me, for if I had, the ceremony of my initiation thus far must have been repeated.

Q.—The third reason?

A.—As a warning to my own heart, that should I at any future period meet a brother in distressed circumstances who solicits my assistance, I might recollect the peculiar moment in which I was admitted into Masonry p...r and p...y...s, and I should cheerfully embrace the opportunity of practising that virtue I now professed to admire.

Q.—With what were you then presented?

A.—The working tools of an E. A. Freemason, which are the 24-inch G...e, the common G...l, and C...l.

Q.—Their uses?

A.—The 24-inch G...e is to measure our work, the common G...l to knock off all superfluous k...s and excrescences; and the C...l to further smooth and prepare the stone, and render it fit for the hands of the more expert workman.

Q.—But as we are not all operative, but rather Free and Accepted or speculative M...s, how do we apply these tools to our morals?

A.—In this sense, the 24-inch G...e represents the 24 hours of the day, part to be spent in prayer to Almighty God, part in labour and refreshment, and part to serve a friend or brother in time of need, that not being detrimental to ourselves or our connections. The common G...l represents the force of conscience, which should keep down all vain and unbecoming thoughts which might obtrude during any of the before-mentioned periods, that our words and actions may ascend unpolluted to the throne of grace. The C...l points out to us the advantages of education, by which means alone we are rendered fit members of regularly organised society.

Q.—How did the W. M. further address you?

A.—As in the course of the evening you will be called on for certain fees for your initiation, it is right you should know by what authority we act. This, therefore, is our charter or warrant of Constitution (opening and showing it) from the Grand Lodge of England, which is open to your inspection on this or any future Lodge evening. This is our book of Constitutions, and these are our bylaws (exhibiting the former and giving a copy of the latter), both of which I recommend to your serious perusal, as by the one you will be taught the duties you owe to the Craft in general, and by the other, those you owe to this Lodge in particular.

Q.—What permission did you then receive from the W. Master?

A.—To retire, in order to restore myself to my personal comforts, and he informed me that on my return into the L...e, he would direct my attention to a charge founded on the excellency of the Institution, and the qualification of its members, likewise to an explanation of the Tracing Board, if time would permit.

Q.—When placed at the N.E. part of the Lodge, by the assistance of the lesser lights, what were you further enabled to discover?

A.—The form of the L...e.

Q.—Of what form?

A.—A regular parallelopipedon.

Q.—Describe its dimensions.

A.—In length from E. to W., in breadth between N. and S., in depth from the surface of the earth to the centre, and even as high as the Heavens.

Q.—Why is a Freemason's Lodge represented of that vast extent?

A.—To show the universality of the science, and that a Mason's charity should know no bounds, save those of prudence.

FOURTH SECTION.

Q.—On what ground does our L...e stand?

A.—Holy ground.

Q.—Why so?

A.—On account of three grand offerings thereon made, which met with Divine approbation.

Q.—Which I will thank you to specify.

A.—First, the ready compliance of Abraham to the will of God in not refusing to offer up his only son Isaac as a burnt sacrifice, when it pleased the Almighty to substitute a more agreeable victim in his stead. Secondly, the many pious prayers and ejaculations of King David, which actually appeased the wrath of God, and stayed a pestilence which then raged among his people, owing to his inadvertently having had them numbered. Thirdly, the many thanksgivings, oblations, burnt sacrifices, and costly offerings which Solomon, King of Israel made at the completion, consecration, and dedication of the Temple at Jerusalem to God's service. Those three did then, have since, and I trust ever will, render the groundwork of Freemasonry Holy.

Q.—How is our L...e situated?

A.—Due E. and W.

Q.—Why so?

A.—Because all places of Divine worship, as well as Masons' regular, well-formed, constituted L...s, are or ought to be so situated.

Q.—For which we assign three Masonic reasons ; I will thank you for the first.

A.—The Sun, the Glory of the Lord, rises in the E. and sets in the W.

Q.—Second reason ?

A.—Learning originated in the E., and thence spread its benign influence to the W.

Q.—The third, last, and grand reason ?

A.—Whenever we contemplate on the works of creation, how ready and cheerful ought we to be to adore the Almighty Creator, who has never left himself without a living witness among men. From the earliest period of time, we have been taught to believe in the existence of a Deity. We read of Abel bringing a more acceptable offering to the Lord than his brother Cain ; of Enoch walking with God ; of Noah being a just and upright man in his day and generation, and a teacher of righteousness ; of Jacob wrestling with an angel, prevailing, and thereby obtaining a blessing for himself and his posterity. But we never hear or read of any place being set apart for the public solemnisation of Divine worship, until after the happy deliverance of the children of Israel from their Egyptian bondage, which it pleased the Almighty to effect with a high hand and an outstretched arm, under the conduct of his faithful servant Moses, according to a promise made to his forefather, Abraham, that he would make of his seed a great and mighty people, even as the stars in Heaven for number, and the sands of the sea for multitude. And as they were to possess the gates of their enemies, and inherit the promised land, the Almighty thought proper to reveal to them those three most excellent institutions, the Moral, Ceremonial, and Judicial Laws. And for the better solemnisation of Divine worship, as well as a receptacle for the Books and Tables of the Law, Moses caused a Tent or Tabernacle to be erected in the wilderness, which by God's special command was situated due E. and W., for Moses did everything according to a pattern shown to him by the Lord on Mount Sinai. This Tent or Tabernacle proved afterwards to be the ground-plan with respect to situation of that most magnificent Temple built at Jerusalem, by that wise and mighty Prince, King Solomon, whose regal splendour, and unparalleled lustre, far transcends our ideas. This is the third, last, and grand reason I as a Freemason give why all places of Divine worship, as well as Masons' regular, well-formed, constituted Lodges are or ought to be so situated.

Q.—By what is our L...e supported?

A.—Three great Pillars.

Q.—What are they called?

A.—Wisdom, Strength, and Beauty.

Q.—Why so?

A.—Wisdom to contrive, Strength to support, and Beauty to adorn.

Q.—I will thank you to moralise them.

A.—Wisdom to conduct us in all our undertakings, Strength to support us under all our difficulties, and Beauty to adorn the inward man.

Q.—A further illustration.

A.—The Universe is the Temple of the Deity whom we serve ; Wisdom, Strength, and Beauty are about His throne as pillars of His works, for His Wisdom is infinite, His Strength omnipotent, and Beauty shines through the whole of the creation in symmetry and order. The Heavens He has stretched forth as a canopy ; the earth He has planted as His footstool ; He crowns His Temple with Stars as with a diadem, and His hands extend their power and glory. The Sun and Moon are messengers of His will, and all His law is concord. The three great Pillars supporting a Mason's L...e are emblematical of these Divine attributes, they further represent Solomon, King of I...l, H...m, King of T...e, and H...m A...ff.

Q.—Why those three great personages ?

A.—Solomon, King of I...l, for his wisdom in building, completing, and dedicating the Temple at Jerusalem to God's service. H...m, King of T...e, for his strength in supporting him with men and materials ; and H...m A...ff, for his curious and masterly workmanship in beautifying and adorning the same.

swered in our Masonic profession, will bring us to those blessed mansions, where we shall be eternally happy with God the great Architect of the Universe.

Q.—HOPE.

A.—Hope is an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and enters into that within the veil; then let a firm reliance on the Almighty's faithfulness animate our endeavours, and teach us to fix our desires within the limits of His most blessed promises, so shall success attend us; if we believe a thing to be impossible, our despondency may render it so, but he who perseveres in a just cause will ultimately overcome all difficulties.

Q.—CHARITY.

A.—Charity, lovely in itself, is the brightest ornament that can adorn our Masonic profession, it is the best test and surest proof of the sincerity of our religion: benevolence rendered by Heaven-born Charity, is an honour to the nation whence it springs, is nourished, and cherished. Happy is the man who has sown in his breast the seeds of benevolence, he envies not his neighbour, he believes not a tale when reported to his prejudice, he forgives the injuries of men, and endeavours to blot them from his recollection. Then, Bro., let us remember that we are free and accepted Masons, ever ready to listen to him who craves our assistance, and from him who is in want let us not withhold a liberal hand, so shall a heartfelt satisfaction reward our labours, and the produce of love and Charity will most assuredly follow.

Q.—On what does this Ladder rest in a F. Mason's L...e?

A.—The V...e of the S...d L...w.

Q.—Why there?

A.—By the doctrines contained in that Holy Book, we are taught to believe in the dispensations of Divine Providence, which belief strengthens our faith, and enables us to ascend the first step; this faith naturally creates in us a hope of becoming partakers of the blessed promises therein recorded, which Hope enables us to ascend the second step; but the third and last being Charity, comprehends the whole, and the Mason who is possessed of this virtue in its most ample sense, may justly be deemed to have attained the summit of his profession; figuratively speaking, an ethereal mansion, veiled from mortal eyes by the starry firmament, emblematically depicted here by seven stars, which have an allusion to as many regularly made Masons, without which number no Lodge is perfect, neither can any candidate be legally initiated into the Order.

FIFTH SECTION.

Q.—Of what is the interior of a Freemason's L...e composed?

A.—Ornaments, Furniture, and Jewels.

Q.—Name the Ornaments.

A.—The Mosaic Pavement, the Blazing Star, and the Indented or Tesselated Border.

Q.—Their situations?

A.—The Mosaic Pavement is the beautiful flooring of the L...e; the Blazing Star the glory in the centre; and the Indented or Tesselated Border the skirtwork round the same.

Q.—I will thank you to moralise them.

A.—The Mosaic Pavement may justly be deemed the beautiful flooring of the L...e, by reason of its being variegated and chequered. This points out the diversity of objects which decorate and adorn the creation, the animate as well as the inanimate parts thereof. The Blazing Star, or glory in the centre, refers us to the Sun, which enlightens the earth, and by its benign influence dispenses blessings to mankind in general. The Indented or Tesselated Border refers us to the Planets, which, in their various revolutions, form a beautiful border or skirtwork round that grand luminary, the Sun, as the other does round that of a F. Mason's L...e.

Q.—Why was Mosaic work introduced into Masonry?

A.—As the steps of man are trod in the various and uncertain incidents of life, and his days are variegated and chequered by a strange contrariety of events, his passage through this existence, though sometimes attended with prosperous circumstances, is often beset by a multitude of evils; hence is our L...e furnished with Mosaic work, to point out the uncertainty of all things here on earth. To-day we may travel in prosperity, to-morrow we may totter on the uneven paths of weakness, temptation, and adversity; and while such emblems are before us, we are morally instructed not to boast of anything, but to give heed to our ways, to walk uprightly and with humility before God, there being no station in life on which pride with stability can be well founded; for although some are born to more elevated situations than others, yet when in the grave we are all on the level, death destroying all distinctions; then while our feet tread on this Mosaic work, let our ideas recur to the original whence we copy, let us, as good men and Masons, act as the dictates of reason shall prompt us, to practise charity, cultivate harmony, and endeavour to live in unity and brotherly love.

Q.—Name the furniture of the L...e.

A.—The V...e of the S...d L...w, the C...p...s, and S...e.

Q.—Their uses?

A.—The S...d w...s are to rule and govern our faith, on them we O...i...e our candidates for Freemasonry; so are the C...p...s and S...e, when united, to regulate our lives and actions.

Q.—From whom is the first derived, and to whom do the other two more properly belong?

A.—The S...d V...e is derived from God to man in general, the C...p...s belong to the Grand Master in particular, and the S...e to the whole Craft.

Q.—Why the S...d V...e from God to man in general?

A.—Because the Almighty has been pleased to reveal more of his Divine will in that Holy Book than by any other means.

Q.—Why the C...p...s to the Grand Master in particular?

A.—That being the chief instrument made use of in the formation of Architectural plans and designs, is peculiarly appropriate to the Grand Master in particular, as an emblem of his dignity, he being the chief head and governor of the Craft.

Q.—Why the S...e to the whole Craft?

A.—The Craft being O...i...d within the S...e, are consequently bound to act thereon.

Q.—Before our ancient brethren had the advantage of such regular, well-formed, constituted Lodges as we now enjoy, where did they assemble?

A.—On high hills and low vales, even in the valley of Jehoshaphat, and many other secret places.

Q.—Why so high, low, and very secret?

A.—The better to observe all who might ascend or descend, and if stranger should approach, the tyler might give timely notice to the W. Master, he hail the brethren, close the L...e, put by the J...s, and prevent any of our Masonic secrets being illegally obtained.

Q.—You speak of J...s, and seem careful of them; how many have we in the L...e?

A.—Three movable, and three immovable.

Q.—Name the movable J...s.

Q.—Their uses?

A.—The S...e is to construct rectangular corners of buildings, and assist in bringing rude matter into due form, the L...l to lay l...ls and prove horizontals, and the P...b to try and adjust uprights, while fixing on their proper bases. /

Q.—These appear mere mechanical tools, why are they called J...s?

A.—Because they have a moral tendency, which renders them J...s of inestimable value.

Q.—I will thank you for their moral tendency.

A.—The S...e teaches us to regulate our lives and actions according to the Masonic line and rule, and to harmonise our conduct in this life, so as to render us acceptable to that Divine Being from whom all goodness springs, and to whom we must give an account of all our actions. The L...l demonstrates that we have all sprung from the same stock, are partakers of the same nature, and sharers of the same hope, and although distinctions among men are necessary to preserve subordination, yet ought no eminence of situation make us forget that we are brothers, for he who is placed on the lowest spoke of fortune's wheel is equally entitled to our regard, as a time will come, and the wisest of us know not how soon, when all distinctions, save those of goodness and virtue, shall cease, and death, the grand leveller of human greatness, reduce us to the same state. The infallible P...b which, like Jacob's ladder, connects Heaven and Earth, is the criterion of rectitude and truth, it teaches us to walk justly and uprightly before God and man, neither turning to the right nor left of the paths of virtue. Not to be an enthusiast, persecutor, slanderer, or reviler of religion; neither bending towards avarice, injustice, malice, revenge nor the envy and contempt of mankind, but giving up every selfish propensity which might tend to injure others. To steer the bark of this life over the seas of passion, without quitting the helm of rectitude, is one of the highest perfections to which human nature can attain; and as the builder raises his column by the level and perpendicular, so ought every Mason to conduct himself towards this world, to observe a due medium between avarice and profusion, to hold the scales of justice with equal poise, to make all his passions and prejudices coincide with the just line of his conduct, and in all his pursuits to have Eternity in view. Thus the S...e teaches morality, the L...l equality, and the P...b justness and uprightness of life and actions.

Q.—Why are they called movable J...s?

A.—Because they are worn by the Master and his Wardens, and are transferable to their successors on nights of Installation.

Q.—What is the Master distinguished by?

A.—The S...e; and why, W. M.?

W. M. to Brethren.—As it is by the assistance of the S...e rude matter is brought into due form, so it is by the S...e conduct of the Master that animosities are made to subside, should any unfortunately arise in the L...e, and that the business of Masonry be conducted with harmony and decorum.

Q.—Bro. S. W., why are you distinguished by the L...l?

A.—[He takes it in his left hand.] This being an emblem of equality, points out the equal measures I am bound to pursue, in conjunction with your W., [rises and salutes] in the well ruling and governing of the L...e.

Q.—Bro. J. W., why are you distinguished by the P...b.

A.—This [takes it the same as S. W.] being an emblem of uprightness, points out the integrity of measures I am bound to pursue, in conjunction with [rises and salutes] your W. and my Bro. S. W., in the well ruling and governing of the L...e, particularly in the examination of visitors, lest through my neglect any unqualified person should gain admission into our assemblies, and the brethren be thereby innocently led to violate their O...i...n.

Q.—Name the Immovable J...s.

A.—The Tracing Board, and the rough and perfect Ashlars.

Q.—Their uses?

A.—The Tracing Board is for the Master to lay lines and draw designs on, the rough Ashlar for the E. A. to work, mark, and indent on, and the perfect Ashlar for the experienced craftsman to try and adjust his J...s on.

Q.—Why are they called Immovable J...s?

A.—Because they lie open and immovable in the L...e, for the brethren to moralise on.

Q.—There is a beautiful comparison between the immovable J...s and the furniture of the L...e, which I will thank you for.

A.—As the Tracing Board is for the Master to lay lines and draw designs on, the better to enable the brethren to carry on the intended structure with regularity and propriety, so the V...e of the S...d L...w may justly be deemed the spiritual Tracing Board of the great Architect of the Universe, in which are laid down such Divine laws and moral plans, that were we conversant therewith, and adherent thereto, they would bring us to an ethereal mansion not built by hands, but one eternal in the Heavens. The rough Ashlar is a stone, rough and unhewn as taken from the quarry, till, by the industry and ingenuity of the workman, it is modelled, wrought into due form, and rendered fit for the intended building ; this represents the mind of man in its infant or primitive state, rough and unpolished as that stone, till by the kind care and instruction of his parents or guardians, in giving him a liberal and virtuous education, his mind becomes cultivated, and he is thereby rendered a fit member of civilised society. The perfect Ashlar is a stone of a true die or square, fit only to be tried by the S...e and C...p...s ; this represents the mind of a man in the decline of years, after a well-spent life in acts of piety and virtue, which can no otherwise be tried and approved than by the S...e of God's Word, and the C...p...s of His own self-convincing conscience.

Q.—Our L...e being thus finished, furnished, and decorated, to whom do we dedicate it as a general L...e?

A.—To God and His service.

Q.—To whom next?

A.—King Solomon.

Q.—Why to King Solomon?

A.—He being the first Prince who excelled in Masonry, under whose regal patronage many of our Masonic secrets gained their first sanction.

SIXTH SECTION.

Q.—Name the first point in Masonry.

A.—L...t k...e b...e and bent.

Q.—Why is that the first point?

A.—On my bended k...s I was taught to adore my Creator, and on my l...t k...e b...e and bent I was initiated into Freemasonry.

Q.—A chief point?

A.—To be happy ourselves and to communicate happiness to others.

Q.—A principal point?

A.—A point within a circle.

Q.—I will thank you to define that point.

A.—In all regular, well-formed, constituted Lodges, there is a point within a c...e round which a Mason cannot err; this c...e is bounded between North and South by two grand parallel lines, the one representing Moses, the other King Solomon; on the upper part of this c...e rests the V. of the S. L., supporting Jacob's ladder, the top of which reaches to the heavens; and were we as conversant with that holy book, and as adherent to the doctrines therein contained, as both those parallels were, it would lead us to Him who would not deceive us, neither will He suffer deception. In going round this c...e, we must of necessity touch on both those parallel lines, likewise on the V. of the S. L.; and while a Mason keeps himself thus circumscribed, he cannot err.

Q.—Name the principles on which the Order is founded.

A.—Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth.

Q.—I will thank you to define Brotherly Love.

A.—By the exercise of Brotherly Love, we are taught to regard the whole human species as one family, the high and low, rich and poor, created by One Almighty Being, and sent into the world for the aid, support, and protection of each other. On this principle Masonry unites men of every country, sect, and opinion, and by its dictates cultivates true friendship among those who might otherwise have remained at a perpetual distance.

Q.—RELIEF?

A.—To relieve the distressed is a duty incumbent on all men, particularly among Masons, who are linked together by one indissoluble bond of sincere affection; hence, to soothe the unhappy, sympathise in their misfortunes, compassionate their miseries, and restore peace to their troubled minds, is the grand aim we have in view; on this basis we establish our friendship and form our connections.

Q.—TRUTH?

A.—Truth is a Divine attribute, and the foundation of every Masonic virtue; to be good men and true is a lesson we are taught at our Initiation, on this grand theme we contemplate, and by its unerring dictates endeavour to regulate our lives and actions.

Hence hypocrisy and deceit are or ought to be unknown to us, sincerity and plain dealing our distinguishing characteristics, while the heart and tongue join in promoting each other's welfare, and in rejoicing in the prosperity of the Craft.

Q.—How many original forms have we in Freemasonry?

Q.—I will thank you to show Masonically to what parts of the body they allude.

A.—G...t...l the t...e, alludes to the penalty contained in the O...i...n, implying that as a man of honour I would rather have my, &c. P...c...l the b...t, where those s...s are deposited safe and secure from the undeserving and popular world who are not M...s. M...n...l the h...d placed on the Vol. of the S...d L...w, as a token of my assent to the O...i...n of a M...n. P...d...l the f...t formed into a s...e at the N.E. part of the L...e, denoting a just and upright Freemason.

Q.—They have a further allusion.

A.—To the four cardinal virtues, namely Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence, and Justice.

Q.—I will thank you to define TEMPERANCE.

A.—Temperance is that due restraint of our passions and affections, which renders the body tame and governable, and relieves the mind from the allurements of vice. This virtue ought to be the constant practice of every Mason, as he is thereby taught to avoid excess, or the contracting of any vicious or licentious habits, whereby he might, unwarily, be led to betray his trust, and subject himself to the penalty contained in his O...i...n, alluding to the G...t...l.

Q.—FORTITUDE?

A.—Fortitude is that noble and steady purport of the soul, which is equally distant from rashness and cowardice; it enables us to undergo any pain, labour, danger, or difficulty, when thought necessary, or deemed prudentially expedient. This virtue, like the former, ought to be deeply impressed on the breast of every Mason, as a fence or security against any attempts that might be made by threats or violence to extort from him any of those Masonic s...s he has so solemnly engaged himself to HELE, conceal, and never improperly reveal, the illegally revealing of which might prove a torment to his mind, as the C...p...s were emblematically to his body when extended to his naked l...t b...t at the time of his Initiation, alluding to the P...c...l.

Q.—PRUDENCE?

A.—Prudence teaches us to regulate our lives and actions according to the dictates of reason, and is that habit of the mind whereby men wisely judge and prudentially determine all things relative to their temporal and eternal interest. This virtue ought to be the distinguishing characteristic of every Free and Accepted Mason, not only for the good regulation of his own life and actions, but as a pious example to the

Q.—JUSTICE?

A.—Justice is that station or boundary of right, by which we are taught to render to every one his just due, and that without distinction. This virtue is not only consistent with Divine and moral Law, but is the standard and cement of civil society. Without the exercise of this Virtue, universal confusion would ensue, lawless force would overcome the principles of equity, and social intercourse no longer exist; and as Justice in a great measure constitutes the really good man, so it ought to be the invariable practice of every Free and Accepted Mason never to deviate from the minutest principles thereof, ever having in mind the time when I was placed at the N.E. part of the L...e, f...t formed in a s...e, body erect, when I received that excellent injunction from the W. Q.—Which of those are you ?

A.—Free and Accepted.

Q.—What do you learn by being a Free and Accepted M...n ?

A.—Secrecy, Morality, and Good Fellowship.

Q.—What do Operative M...ns learn ?

A.—The useful rules of Architecture, to hew, square, and mould stones into the forms required for the purposes of building, and to unite them by means of joints—level, perpendicular, or otherwise ; and by the aid of cement, iron, lead, or copper ; which various operations require much practical dexterity and some skill in geometry and mechanics.

Q.—In what degree of F. Masonry were you initiated ?

A.—In that of an E. A.

Q.—How long should an E. A. serve his Master ?

A.—Seven years is the stipulated time, but less will suffice, if found qualified for preferment.

Q.—How should he serve him ?

A.—With Freedom, Fervency, and Zeal.

Q.—Excellent qualities, what are their emblems ?

A.—Chalk, Charcoal, and Clay.

Q.—Why Chalk, Charcoal, and Clay ?

A.—Nothing so free as Chalk, as the slightest touch will leave its trace ; nothing so fervent as Charcoal, as when properly lit few metals can resist its force ; nothing more zealous than Clay, our mother Earth, she is continually labouring for our good, thence we came and thither we must all return.

Q.—If you wished to give your son a Masonic name, what would you call him ?

A.—Lewis.

Q.—What does Lewis denote ?

A.—Strength.

Q.—How is it depicted in our Lodges ?

A.—By certain pieces of metal dovetailed in a stone, which form a cramp, which enables the operative M...n to raise great weights to certain heights with little encumbrance, and to fix them on their proper bases.

Q.—Lewis being the son of a M...n, what is his duty to his aged parents?

A.—To bear the heat and burthen of the day, from which they by reason of their age ought to be exempt; to assist them in time of need, and thereby render the close of their days happy and comfortable.

Q.—His privilege for so doing?

A.—To be made a M...n before any other person, however dignified.

Q.—Why are we called Free M...ns?

A.—Because we are free to, and free from.

Q.—Free to, and free from what?

A.—Free to good fellowship, and ought to be free from vice.

Q.—If a person of that description, that is to say, a good F. M...n, were missing, where would you hope to find him?

A.—Between the S...e and C...p...s.

Q.—Why there?

A.—Because by acting on the one he would be sure to be found within the other.

Q.—How do you wish to clothe your Master?

A.—With the distinguishing badge of a Mason.

Q.—How blows the wind in Masonry?

A.—Favourably, due E. or W.

Q.—Why so?

A.—To cool and refresh men at labour.

Q.—It has a further allusion?

A.—To that miraculous wind which proved so essential in working the happy deliverance of the children of Israel from their Egyptian bondage.

Q.—I will thank you to state why the wind is deemed favourable to Masonry at only those two points of the Compass.

A.—When the Great Architect of the Universe thought proper to deliver His chosen people from their Egyptian bondage, He commanded His faithful servant Moses to lead them towards the land of Canaan, which He had promised them for an inheritance; he accordingly conducted them through the desert at the extremity of Egypt, where they encamped for the night on the borders of the Red Sea. Pharaoh, regretting the loss of so many useful slaves, gathered together a mighty army of horse, foot, and chariots, in order to bring them back to their former captivity, not doubting of success, as he knew the Israelites were unarmed and undisciplined, and their journey impeded by cattle and baggage. The Israelites seeing the Red Sea in their front, impassable mountains on the right and left, and the Egyptian army rapidly advancing in their rear, murmured against their leader, and said, Why hast thou brought us into the wilderness to perish, was there not ground enough in Egypt for our interment? But Moses spake comfortably to them, and bade them be of good cheer, for on that day they should experience the salvation of the Lord. He then, after a fervent prayer to the throne of grace, stretched his sacred rod over the Red Sea, which caused a strong east wind to blow, which divided the waters that they stood as a wall on each side, affording the Israelites a passage through on dry ground; Pharaoh seeing this, followed them without hesitation, and already deemed the fugitives within his power, when the Almighty, to check his presumption, sent a miraculous pillar of fire and cloud, which had two wonderful effects, the fire gave light to the Israelites and facilitated their progress, the cloud proved darkness to Pharaoh and his followers, and retarded their march. The Almighty sent a further impediment to the enemy, which was an angel who struck off their chariot wheels, occasioning them to drag heavily, so that the Egyptian army and the children of Israel came not together. At the dawn of day, Pharaoh, perceiving the hand of the Lord work sorely against him, gave orders for his troops to discontinue their pursuit, and return by the way they came; but it was then too late, for by that time the children of Israel had gained the opposite coast, when Moses bade them look back on their long-dreaded enemies, for from this time forward they should see them no more ; he then again stretched his sacred rod over the waters, which caused them to burst their invisible chains, and rush into their primitive channels, overwhelming Pharaoh and all his host. In commemoration of this happy deliverance, the children of Israel went many days' journey into the wilderness, singing psalms and thanksgivings to their Omnipotent deliverer ; since which time the wind when blowing due E. or W. has been deemed favourable to Freemasonry.

Q.—What are the distinguishing characteristics of a good Freemason ?

A.—Virtue, Honour, and Mercy, and should these be banished from all other societies, may they ever be found in a M...n's breast.

Q.—There are beautiful illustrations of these Virtues. I will thank you for that of VIRTUE.

A.—In reading the history of ancient Rome, we find that the Consul Marcellus intended to erect a Temple dedicated to Virtue and Honour, but being at that time prevented from carrying his design into execution, he afterwards altered his plan, and erected two Temples, contiguous to each other, so situated that the only avenue to the Temple of Honour was through that of Virtue, thereby leaving an elegant moral to posterity, that Virtue is the only direct road to Honour. Virtue is the highest exercise and improvement to reason ; the integrity, harmony, and just balance of affection; the health, strength, and beauty of the soul. The perfection of Virtue is to give reason its full scope to obey the authority of conscience with alacrity, to exercise the defensive talents with fortitude, the public with justice, the private with temperance, and all of them with prudence, that is in a due proportion to each other with a calm and diffusive beneficence, to love and adore God with an unrivalled and a disinterested affection, and to acquiesce in the dispensations of Divine providence with a cheerful resignation. Every approach to this standard is a step towards perfection and happiness, and every deviation therefrom has a tendency to vice and misery.

Q.—HONOUR?

A.—Honour may justly be defined to be the spirit and supererogation of Virtue, the true foundation of mutual faith and credit, and the real intercourse by which the business of life is transacted with safety and pleasure. It implies the united sentiments of Virtue, Truth, and Justice carried by a generous mind beyond those mere moral obligations which the laws require or can punish the violation of. True honour, although a different principle from religion, is that which produces the same effects; the lines of action, although drawn from different parts, terminate in the same point. Religion embraces Virtue, as it is enjoined by the laws of God; Honour, as it is graceful and ornamental to human nature. The religious man fears, the man of Honour scorns to do, and immediately assumed com-and a few days afterwards, an ill action ; the latter considers vice as something which is beneath him, the other as something offensive to the Divine Being. A true man of Honour will not content himself with the literal discharge of his duties as a man and citizen, he raises and dignifies them to magnanimity : he gives, when he may with propriety refuse ; and forgives, when he may with justice resent. The whole of his conduct is guided by the noblest sentiments of his own unvitiated heart ; a true moral rectitude is the uniform rule of his actions ; and a just praise and approbation is his due reward.

Q.—MERCY ?

A.—Mercy is a refined virtue, and when possessed by the monarch adds a lustre to every gem that adorns his crown ; if by the warrior, it gives an unceasing freshness to the wreath which shades his brow. It is the companion of true honour, and the ameliorator of justice, on whose bench when enthroned it interposes a shield of defence in behalf of the victim, impenetrable to the sword. And as the vernal showers descend upon the earth, to enliven and invigorate the whole vegetable creation, so mercy acting on the heart, when the vital fluids are condensed by rancour and revenge, by its exhilarating warmth returns nature to its source in purer streams. It is the peculiar attribute of the Deity, on which the best and wisest of us must rest our hopes and dependence, for at the final day of retribution, when arraigned at His bar, and the actions of this mortal life are unveiled to view, though His justice may demand the fiat, we hope and trust His Mercy will avert the doom.

Second Lecture.

INTRODUCTORY ADDRESS.

MASONRY is a progressive science, consisting of different Degrees, calculated for the more gradual advancement in the knowledge of its mysteries; according to the progress we make, we limit or extend our inquiries, and in proportion to our capacities, we attain to a greater or lesser degree of perfection. The Lecture of this Degree is divided into five sections, which are devoted to the study of human science, and to tracing the goodness and majesty of the Creator by minutely analysing His works. Throughout the First Degree, virtue is depicted in its most beautiful colours, and the principles of knowledge are impressed on the mind by sensible and lively images; it is therefore considered the best introduction to the Second Degree, which not only extends the same plan but embraces a more diffusive system; from this proceeds a rational amusement, while the mental faculties are fully employed, the judgment is properly exercised, a spirit of emulation prevails, and each vies as to who shall excel in promulgating the valuable principles of the institution. Having stated this much as introductory to the Second Lecture, I shall now proceed to ask you, Bro. S. W.,

Q.—Where were you passed to the Degree of a Fellow-Craft?

A.—In a L...e of Fellow-C...s.

Q.—Consisting of how many?

A.—F...e.

Q.—Under what denomination?

A.—The W. M., S. and J. Ws., and two F. Cs.

Q.—How got you p...d?

A.—By undergoing a previous examination in open L...e, and being intrusted with a test of merit leading to that degree.

Q.—Where were you then c...d...d?

A.—To a convenient room, adjoining a F. C. L...e, for the purpose of being properly p...d.

Q.—How were you p...d?

A.—In a manner somewhat similar to the former, but with this difference, that in this degree I was not h...d-w...d, nor had I a c...e t...w. I had my l...t a...m, r...t b...t and k...e, made b...e, and my l...t h...l s...p...d.

Q.—What enabled you to claim admission to a F. C. L...e?

A.—The help of God, the assistance of the s...e, and the benefit of a p...s w...d.

Q.—How did you gain admission?

A.—By the k...s of an E. A.

Q.—On what were you a...d?

A.—The s...e.

Q.—What is a s...e?

A.—An angle of 90 degrees, or the fourth part of a circle.

er, on the 3rd October 1778.
dard immediately assumed comps, and a few days afterwards, uch from Rajegurn, in Bundel-Verbuddel.

Q.—What are the peculiar objects of research in this degree?

A.—The hidden mysteries of nature and science.

Q.—After gaining admission to the L...e, how were you disposed of?

A.—I was conducted between the S. and J. Ds. to the l...t of the S.W. and directed to advance as a M...n. [Showing the s...n.]

Q.—What were you next directed to do?

A.—K...l, and receive the benefit of a Masonic p...r.

Q.—Which I will thank you for.

A.—We supplicate the continuance of Thine aid, O merciful Lord, on behalf of ourselves and him who k...ls before Thee, may the work begun in Thy name, be continued to Thy Glory, and evermore established in us, by obedience to Thy precepts.

—P. M.—So mote it be.

Q.—After the recital of this p...r, how were you disposed of?

A.—I was conducted twice round the L...e.

Q.—What was required of you the first time?

A.—To salute the W. M. as a M...n, to advance to the J. W. as such, showing the s...n and communicating the t...n and w...d.

Q.—What were the B...n then called on to observe?

A.—That I who had been regularly initiated into Freemasonry was about to pass in view before them to show that I was a candidate properly prepared to be passed to the degree of a F. C.

Q.—What was required of you the second time?

A.—To salute the W. M. and J. W. as a M...n, to advance to the S. W. as such, showing the s...n and communicating the p...s g...p and p...s w...d leading from the First to the Second Degree.

Q.—When delivered over to the S. W. in the West, how did he proceed?

A.—He presented me to the W. M. as a candidate properly prepared to be passed to the Second Degree.

Q.—What did the W. M. then order?

A.—The S. W. to direct the S. D. to instruct me to advance to the pedestal in due form.

Q.—I will thank you to show the method of advancing from W. to E. in this degree.

A.—The method of advancing from W. to E. in this degree is by f...e s...ps, as if ascending a w...g s...e; placing l...t f...t pointing to the W. M. and r...t f...t to the J. W., and commencing with the l...t f...t.

Q.—When brought before the W. M. in the East, how did he address you?

A.—As in every case the different degrees of Freemasonry are to be kept separate and distinct, another O...i...n will now be required of you, in many respects similar to the former, are you willing to take it?—to which I gave my assent.

Q.—What were you then directed to do?

A.—K...l on my r...t k...e, with my l...t f...t formed in a s...e, my r...t h...d placed on the vol. of the S...d L...w, while my left arm was supported within the angle of a S...e, and in this attitude I took the solemn O...i...n of a F. C. F. M.

Q.—Which I will thank you for.

A.—I, A. B., in the presence of the Grand Geometrician of the Universe, and of this worthy and worshipful Lodge of Fellow-Craft Freemasons, regularly held, assembled, and properly dedicated, of my own free will and accord, do hereby and hereon most solemnly promise and swear that I will for ever conceal, and never reveal any or either of the s...s or mysteries of or belonging to the Second Degree in Freemasonry, denominated the F.-Craft's, to him who is but an E. A., any more than I would either of them to the uninstructed world who are not Masons; I further solemnly promise to act as a true and faithful craftsman, answer s...ns, obey summonses, and maintain the principles inculcated in the First Degree; these several points I solemnly swear to observe, without evasion, equivocation, or mental reservation of any kind, under no less a penalty, on the violation of any of them, than that of having my l...t b...t, &c. So help me Almighty God, and keep me steadfast in this my solemn ob. of a F. C. Freemason.

Q.—After taking the solemn O...i...n of a F. C. F. M., how did the W. M. address you?

A.—As a pledge of your fidelity, and to render this a solemn O...i...n, which might otherwise be considered but a serious promise, you will seal it with your lips twice on the vol. of the S...d L...w.

Q.—How did he further address you?

A.—Your progress in Masonry is marked by the position of the S...e and C...p...s. When you were made an E. A. both p...s were hidden, in this degree one is disclosed, implying that you are now midway in Free masonry, superior to an E. A., but inferior to what I trust will hereafter be communicated to you.

Q.—How did he then proceed?

A.—He friendly took me by the r...t h...d and said, Rise, newly Ob. F. C. F. M.

Q.—Repeat the address you then received from the W. M.

A.—Having taken the solemn ob. of a F. C. F. M., I shall now proceed to intrust you with the s...s of this degree, you will therefore advance to me as a M...n.

Q.—What were you then directed to do?

A.—Take another short pace with my l...t f...t, bringing the r...t h...l into the h...w as before; that, the W. M. informed me, was the s...d regular s...p in Freemasonry, and it was in this position the s...s of the degree were communicated.

Q.—Of what do they consist?

A.—As in the former, of a s...n, t...n, and w...d, with this difference, that in this degree the s...n is of a threefold nature.

Q.—I will thank you to show the first part of this threefold s...n.

A.—(Which is given.)

A.—The S. of F., emblematically to shield the repository of my s...s from the attacks of the insidious.

Q.—I will thank you for the second part.

A.—(Which is given.)

Q.—What is that?

A.—The H. S. or S. of P.

Q.—When did it take its rise?

A.—At the time when J. fought the battles of the Lord in the valley of Jehoshaphat. It was in this position he prayed fervently to the Almighty to continue the light of day, that he might complete the overthrow of his enemies.

Q.—The third part?

A.—(Which is given.)

Q.—What is that?

A.—The P. S.

Q.—To what does it allude?

A.—The P. of my ob., implying that as a man of honour and a F. C. F. M., I would rather, &c., than improperly disclose the s...s of this degree.

Q.—Communicate the T. to Bro. —.

A.—(Which is given.)

Q.—What does this demand?

A.—A w...d.

Q.—Give me that w...d.

A.—In this degree I was taught to be equally cautious as in the former, I will l...r or h...e it with you.

Q.—Which you please, and begin.

A.—(Which is done.)

Q.—Being intrusted, were you invested?

A.—I was, with the distinguishing b...e of a F. C. F. M...n, which the S. W. informed me was to mark the progress I had made in the science.

Q.—Repeat the address you received from the W. M. on being invested.

A.—Let me add to what has been stated by the S. W. that the b...e with which you have been invested, points out to you that as a C...sm...n you are expected to make the liberal arts and sciences your future study, that you may the better be enabled to discharge your duties as a Mason, and estimate the wonderful works of the Almighty.

Q.—Where were you then ordered to be placed?

Q.—Repeat the charge you then received from the W. M.

A.—Bro. A. B., Masonry being a progressive science, when you were made an E. A. you were placed at the N.E. part of the Lodge, to show that you were newly admitted; you are now placed at the S.E. part, to mark the progress you have made in the science; you now stand, to all external appearance, a just and upright F. C. Freemason, and I give it you in strong terms of recommendation ever to continue and act as such, and as I trust the import of the former charge neither is, nor ever will be, effaced from your memory, I shall content myself with observing, that as in the former degree you made yourself acquainted with the principles of moral truth and virtue, you are now permitted to extend your researches into the hidden mysteries of nature and science.

Q.—With what were you then presented?

A.—The working tools of a F. C. F. Mason, which are the S...e, L...l, and P...b.

Q.—Their uses?

A.—The S...e is to try and construct rectangular corners of buildings, and to assist in bringing rude matter into due form. The L...l to lay l...s and prove horizontals. And the P...b...e to try and adjust uprights while fixing on their proper bases.

Q.—But as we are not all operative M...ns, but Free and Accepted, or speculative, how do we apply these tools to our morals?

A.—In this sense, the S...e teaches morality, the L...l equality, and the P...b justness and uprightness of life and actions. Thus by s...e conduct, l...l s...s, and upright intentions, we hope to ascend to those immortal mansions whence all goodness emanates.

Q.—What permission did you then receive from the W. M.?

A.—To retire, in order to restore myself to my personal comforts, and the W. M. informed me, that on my return to the L. he would call my attention to an explanation of the Tracing Board.

SECOND SECTION.

Q.—Why were you passed to the degree of a F. C.?

A.—For the sake of Geometry, the fifth science on which Freemasonry is founded.

Q.—What is Geometry?

A.—Geometry is the science whereby we find out the contents of bodies unmeasured by comparing them with those already measured, its proper subjects, Magnitude and Extension, or a regular progression of science from a point to a line, a line to a superficies, a superficies to a solid.

Q.—What is a point?

A.—The beginning of geometric matter.

Q.—A line?

A.—A continuation of the same.

Q.—A superficies?

A.—Length and breadth without a given thickness.

Q.—A solid?

A.—Length and breadth with a given thickness, which forms a cube, and comprehends a whole.

Q.—Where was Geometry founded as a science?

A.—At Alexandria in Egypt.

Q.—How came Geometry to be founded at Alexandria?

A.—The River Nile annually overflowing its banks caused the inhabitants to retire

Colonel Leslie
on a fever, on the 3rd October 1778.
and Goddard immediately assumed com-troops, and a few days afterwards, to the high and mountainous parts of the country; when the waters subsided they returned to their former habitations, but the floods frequently washing away their landmarks, caused grievous disputes among them, which often terminated in a civil war. They hearing that a F. M.'s L...e was held at Alexandria, the capital of their country, where Euclid presided, a deputation of the inhabitants repaired thither, and laid their grievance before him; he with the assistance of his Wardens and the rest of the Brethren gathered together the scattered elements of Geometry, arranged, digested, and brought them into a regular system, such as was practised by most nations in those days, but is better than the present, by the use of fluxions, conic sections, and other improvements. By the science of Geometry, he taught the Egyptians to measure and ascertain their different districts of land; by that means put an end to their quarrels, and amicably terminated their differences.

Q.—I will thank you for the moral advantages of Geometry.

A.—Geometry, the first and noblest of sciences, is the basis on which the superstructure of Freemasonry is erected. By Geometry we may curiously trace nature through her various windings to her most concealed recesses. By it we may discover the wisdom, power, and goodness of the Grand Geometrician of the Universe, and view with amazing delight the wonderful proportions which connect and grace this vast machine. By it we may discover how the planets move in their different orbits, and mathematically demonstrate their various revolutions. By it we may rationally account for the return of seasons, and the mixed variety of scenes which each season produces to the discerning eye; numberless worlds are around us, all framed by the same Divine artist, which roll through this vast expanse, and are all conducted by the same unerring laws of nature. Then while such objects engage our attention, how must we improve, and with what grand ideas must such knowledge fill our minds! It was a survey of nature, and the observation of her beautiful proportions, first determined man to imitate the Divine plan and study symmetry and order; this gave rise to society, and birth to every useful art; the architect began to design, and the plans which he laid down, having been improved by time and experience, have produced some of those excellent works which have been the admiration of every age.

Q.—Did you ever travel?

A.—My ancient forefathers did.

Q.—Whither did they travel?

A.—Due East and West.

Q.—What was the object of their travel?

A.—E. in search of instruction, and W. to impart the knowledge they had gained.

Q.—Did you ever work?

A.—My ancient Brethren did.

Q.—As they worked I presume they received wages?

over, on the 3rd October 1778.
 dard immediately assumed com-

 the Nerbudda.

A.— They did.

Q.— How soon did they receive them ?

A.— Six days or less.

Q.— Why not on the seventh ?

A.— Because the Almighty was pleased to be six days periodically in creating the Heavens and the Earth, and all things therein or thereon contained, and rested on the seventh.

Q.— There is a beautiful Illustration of the Grand Architect's six periods of the creation, for which I will thank you.

A.— When we consider that the formation of this world was the work of that Omnipotent being who created this beautiful system of the Universe, and caused all nature to be under His immediate care and protection, how ought we to magnify and adore His Holy name for His infinite wisdom, goodness, and mercy towards the children of men ! Before the Almighty was pleased to command this vast whole into existence, the elements and materials of the Creation lay blended together without form or distinction, darkness was over the great deep, and the spirit of God moved on the face of the waters. And as an example to man, that things of moment ought to be done with due deliberation, He was pleased to be six days periodically in commanding it from chaos to perfection.

The first instance of His supreme power was made manifest by commanding Light ; and being pleased with the operation of His divine goodness, He gave it His sacred approbation and distinguished it by a name, the light He called day, and the darkness He called night. In order to keep this new-framed matter within just limits, He employed the second period in laying the foundations of the Heavens, which He called firmament, designed to keep the waters within the clouds and those beneath them asunder. The third period was employed in commanding those waters within due limits, on the retreat of which, dry land appeared, which He called Earth; and the gathering together of the mighty waters He called Seas. The Earth being as yet irregular and uncultivated, God spake the word, and it was immediately covered with a beautiful carpet of grass, designed as pasture for the brute creation, to which succeeded herbs, plants, shrubs, flowers, and trees of all sorts, in full growth, maturity, and perfection. On the fourth period, those two grand luminaries, the Sun and the Moon, were created, the one to rule the day, the other to govern the night. The sacred historian further informs us, they were ordained for signs, for seasons, for days, and for years. Besides the Sun and the Moon the Almighty was pleased to bespangle the ethereal concave with a multitude of Stars, that man, whom He intended to make, might contemplate thereon, and justly admire the majesty and glory of His creator.

On the fifth period He created the birds to fly in the air that man might please both his eyes and ears, in being delighted with of a fever, on the 3rd October 1778.

Goddard immediately assumed com-troops, and a few days afterwards,

Nerbuddah.

some for their beautiful plumage and uncommon instinct, and with others for their melodious notes. On the same period He caused the waters to bring forth a variety of fish, and to impress man with a reverential awe of His Divine omnipotence, He created great whales, which, with other inhabitants of the deep, after their kind, multiplied and increased exceedingly.

On the sixth period He created the beasts of the field, and the reptiles that crawl on the earth. And here we may plainly perceive the wisdom and goodness of the Almighty made manifest in all His proceedings, by producing what effects He pleased, without the aid of natural causes, such as giving light to the world before He created the Sun, and causing the earth to be fruitful without the influence of the Heavenly Bodies. He did not create the beasts of the field until he had provided them with sufficient herbage for their support, nor did He make man until He had completed the rest of His works and finished and furnished him a dwelling, with everything requisite both for life and pleasure. Then still more to dignify the works of His hands, he created man, who came into the world with greater splendour than any creature that had preceded him, they coming into existence by no other than a single command,—God spake the word, and it was done,—but at the formation of man, there was a consultation. God expressly said, Let us make man : who was accordingly formed out of the dust of the earth, the breath of life was breathed into his nostrils, and man became a living soul. In this one creature was amassed whatever is excellent in the whole creation, the quality or substance of an animal being, the life of plants, the sense of beasts, and above all the understanding of Angels, created after the immediate image of God, with a rectitude of body, thereby intimating to him that integrity and uprightness should ever influence him to adore his Benign Creator, who had so liberally bestowed upon him the faculty of speech, and endued him with that noble instinct called reason.

The Almighty as His last and best gift to man then created woman; under His forming hands a creature grew man-like but different in sex, so lovely fair that what seemed fair in all the world seemed now mean or in her summed up, in her contained. On she came led by her heavenly Maker, though unseen and guided by His voice, adorned with what all earth or Heaven could bestow to make her amiable, grace was in all her steps, Heaven in her eye, in every gesture dignity and love. On the sixth period God's works being ended, on the seventh He rested from His labours; He therefore blessed, hallowed, and sanctified the seventh day, thereby teaching men a useful lesson, to work six days industriously for the support of themselves and their families, strictly commanding them to rest on the seventh, the better to contemplate on the works of the creation, and adore Him as

THIRD SECTION.

Q.—Where did our ancient B...n go to receive their wages?

A.—In the middle chamber of K...g S...o ...n's Temple.

Q.—How did they get there?

A.—By the P...h...y or entrance on the south side of the building.

Q.—At the entrance of which, what particularly struck their attention?

A.—Two great P...s.

Q.—What was that on the L...t called?

A.—B...

Q.—What does it denote?

A.—In S...h.

Q.—What was that on the R...t called?

A.—J....

Q.—What does it denote?

A.—To E...b...h.

Q.—And what when conjoined with the former?

A.—S...b...y; for God said, In s...h will I e...b...h this mine house to stand firm for ever.

Q.—What was the height of those P...s?

A.—Thirty-five cubits—seventeen and a half cubits each.

Q.—Their circumference?

A.—Twelve.

Q.—Diameter?

A.—Four.

Q.—Were they formed hollow or solid?

A.—Hollow, the better to serve as Archives to M...y, for therein were deposited the constitutional rolls.

Q.—Being formed hollow, what was the thickness of the outer shell or rim?

A.—Four inches, or a hand's breadth.

Q.—Of what were they made?

A.—Molten brass.

Q.—Where were they cast?

A.—In the clayey grounds on the banks of the Jordan, between Succoth and Zeredathah, where King Solomon ordered those and all his holy vessels to be cast.

Q.—Who superintended the casting?

A.—H...m A...ff.

Q.—With what were those pillars adorned?

A.—With Chapters.

Q.—What was their height?

A.—Five cubits each.

Q.—How were they enriched ?

A.—With Net-work, Lily-work, and Pomegranates.

Q.—What do Net-work, Lily-work, and Pomegranates denote ?

A.—Net-work from the connection of its meshes denotes unity, Lily-work from its whiteness peace, and Pomegranates from the exuberance of their seed denote plenty.

Q.—How many rows of Pomegranates were there on each Chapter, and how many in a row ?

A.—There were two rows of Pomegranates on each Chapter, one hundred in a row.

Q.—How were these pillars further adorned ?

A.—With two Spherical Balls.

Q.—What was delineated upon them ?

A.—Maps of the Celestial and Terrestrial Globes.

Q.—What did they point out ?

A.—Masonry universal.

Q.—When were they considered finished ?

A.—When the net-work or canopy was thrown over them.

Q.—Why were they placed at the entrance of the Temple ?

A.—That they might serve as a memorial to the children of Israel of the miraculous pillar of fire and cloud which had two wonderful effects, the fire gave light to the Israelites during their escape from their Egyptian bondage, the cloud proved darkness to Pharaoh and his followers when they attempted to overtake them. K...g S...n ordered them to be placed at the entrance of the Temple, as the most proper and conspicuous situation for the children of Israel to have the happy deliverance of their forefathers continually before their eyes, in going to and returning from Divine Worship.

Q.—After our ancient B...n had entered the P...h...y, where did they arrive?

A.—At the foot of the winding staircase.

Q.—Whom did they meet to oppose their ascent?

A.—The ancient J. W.

Q.—What did he demand of them?

A.—The P...s g...p and P...s w...d leading from the first to the second degree.

Q.—Communicate the T. to Br. —.

A.—(Which is done.)

Q.—What does it demand?

A.—A P...s w...d.

Q.—Give me that word.

A.—(Which is given.)

Q.—What does this denote?

A.—P...y.

Q.—How is it depicted in a F. C. Lodge?

A.—By an ear of C...n near to a fall of water.

Q.—I will thank you to state whence it dates its origin.

A.—The word S...o...h dates its origin from the time that an army of Ephraimites crossed the River Jordan in a hostile manner against Jephtha, the renowned Gileaditish general: the reason they assigned for this Colonel Goddard immediately assumed command of the troops, and a few days afterwards, he commenced his march from Rajegurh, in Bundelkhand, towards the Nerbudda.

unfriendly visit was, that they had not been called out to partake of the honours of the Ammonitish war, but the true aim was to partake of the rich spoils with which, in consequence of that war, Jephtha and his army were then laden. The Ephraimites were always considered a clamorous and turbulent people, but then broke out into open violence, and after many severe taunts to the Gileadites in general, threatened in particular to destroy their victorious commander and his house with fire. Jephtha on his part tried all lenient means to appease them, but finding these ineffectual, had recourse to rigorous ones; he therefore drew out his army, gave the Ephraimites battle, defeated and put them to flight, and to render his victory decisive, and secure himself from a like molestation in future, he sent detachments of his army to secure the passages of the River Jordan, over which he knew the insurgents must of necessity attempt to go in order to regain their native country, giving strict orders to his guards, that if a fugitive came that way, owning himself an Ephraimite, he should be immediately slain; but if he said nay, or prevaricated, a test-w...d was to be put to him, which was to pronounce the w...d S...o...h, which they, through a defect in aspiration peculiar to their dialect, could not pronounce properly, but called it S...o...t, which slight variation discovered their country and cost them their lives, and Scripture informs us that there fell on that day in the field of battle, and on the banks of the Jordan, forty and two thousand Ephraimites. And as S...o...h was then a test w...d to distinguish a friend from foe, K...g S...n afterwards caused it to be adopted in a F. C. L., to prevent any unqualified person from ascending the winding staircase, which led to the middle Chamber of the Temple.

Q.—Who are the three that r...e a L...e?

A.—The W. M. and his two W...s.

Q.—Who are the five that h...d a L...e?

A.—The W. M., his two Ws. and two F. Cs.

Q.—Who are the seven or more that make it perfect?

A.—Two E. A...s added to the former five.

Q.—Why do three r...e a L...e?

A.—Because there were but three Grand Masters who presided at the building of K...g S...n's Temple, namely, S...n K...g of I...l, H...m K...g of T...e, and H...m A...ff.

Q.—Why do five h...d a L...e?

A.—In allusion to the five noble orders in Architecture, namely, the Tuscan, Doric, Ionic Corinthian, and Composite.

Q.—I will thank you for the rise of the orders?

A.—In the history of man, there is nothing more remarkable than that Masonry and civilisation like twin sisters have gone hand in hand, the Orders of Architecture mark their growth and progress. Dark, dreary, and comfortless were those days when Masonry had not laid her line, nor extended her compass; the race of mankind, in full possession of wild and savage liberty, mutually afraid of and offending each other, hid themselves in thickets of the woods, or dens and caverns of the earth. In those poor recesses and gloomy solitudes Masonry found them, and the Grand Geometrician of the Universe, pitying their forlorn situation, instructed them to build houses for their ease, defence, and comfort. It is easy to conceive that in the early state of society genius had expanded but little; the first efforts were small, and the structure simple and rude; perhaps no more than a number of trees leaning together at the top, in the form of a cone, interwoven with twigs, and plastered with mud to exclude the air and complete the work.

In this early period we may suppose each desirous to render his own habitation more convenient than his neighbour's by improving on what had already been done; thus in time observation assisting that natural sagacity inherent even in uncultivated minds, led them to consider the inconveniences of the round sort of habitations, and to build others more spacious and convenient of the square form, by placing trunks of trees perpendicularly in the ground to form the sides, filling the interstices between them with branches closely woven and covered with clay; horizontal beams were then placed upon the upright trunks, which being strongly joined at the angles, kept the sides firm, and likewise served to support the roof or covering of the building composed of joists on which were laid several beds of reeds, leaves, and clay.

Yet rough and inelegant as these buildings were, they had this salutary effect, that by aggregating mankind together they led the way to new improvements in arts and civilisation; for the hardest bodies will polish by collision, and the roughest manners by communion and intercourse; thus by degrees mankind improved in the art of building, and invented methods to make their huts lasting and handsome as well as convenient; they took off the bark and other unevennesses from the trunks of the trees that formed the sides, raised them above the earth and humidity on stones, and covered each of them with a flat stone or tile to keep off the rain; the spaces between the ends of the joists were closed with clay or some other substance, and the ends of the joists covered with boards, cut in the manner of triglyphs; the form of the roof was likewise altered, for being on account of its flatness unfit to throw off the rains that fell during the winter seasons, they raised it in the middle, giving it the form of a gable roof by placing rafters on the joists to support the clay and other materials that composed the covering.

From these simple forms the orders of architecture took their rise, for when buildings of wood were set aside, and men began to erect solid and stately edifices of stone, they imitated the parts which necessity had introduced into the primitive huts, and adapted them to their Temples, which, although at first simple and rude, were in course of time and by the ingenuity of succeeding architects wrought and improved to such a degree of perfection on different models, that each was by way of eminence denominated an Order.

Of the Orders:—Three are of Grecian origin, and are called Grecian Orders ; they are distinguished by the names of the Doric, Ionic, and Corinthian ; they exhibit three distinct characters of composition suggested by the diversity of form in the human frame. The other two are of Italian origin, and are called Roman Orders ; they are distinguished by the names of the Tuscan and Composite.

The Tuscan Order is the strongest and most simple, and is placed first in the list of the five Orders of Architecture on account of its plainness ; its column is seven diameters high, the base, capital, and entablature have but few mouldings, and no other ornaments, whence it has been compared to a sturdy labourer dressed in homely apparel ; this Order is no other than the Doric more simplified or deprived of its ornaments to suit certain purposes, and adapted by the inhabitants of Tuscany, who were a colony of the Dorians, yet there is a peculiar beauty in its simplicity which adds to its value, and renders it fit to be used in structures, where the rich and more delicate Orders might be deemed superfluous. The Doric is the first of the Grecian Orders, and is placed second in the list of the five Orders of Architecture ; its column, agreeable to the modern proportions, is eight diameters high, it has no ornaments except mouldings on either base or capital, its frieze is distinguished by triglyphs and metopes, and its cornice by mutules. Being the most ancient of all the Orders it retains more of the primitive hut style in its form than any of the rest ; the triglyphs in the frieze represent the ends of the joists, and the mutules in the cornice represent the rafters. The composition of this Order is both grand and noble, being formed after the model of a muscular full-grown man—delicate ornaments are contrary to its characteristic solidity; it therefore succeeds best in the regularity of its proportions, and is principally used in warlike structures where strength and a noble simplicity are required. At this era, their buildings, although admirably calculated for strength and convenience, wanted something in grace and elegance which a continual observation of the softer sex supplied, for the eye that is charmed with symmetry must be conscious of woman's elegance and beauty. This gave rise to the Ionic Order, its column is nine diameters high, its capital is adorned with volutes, and its cornice has dentils. History informs us that the famous Temple of Diana, at Ephesus (which was upwards of two hundred years in building), was composed of this Order: both elegance and ingenuity are displayed in the invention of this column; it is formed after the model of a beautiful woman, of an elegant shape, dressed in her hair, as a contrast to that of the Doric, which represents a strong robust man. Thus the human genius began to bud, the leaf and flower ripening to perfection producing the fairest and finest fruits, every liberal art, every ingenious science, that could civilise, refine, and exalt mankind. Then it was that Masonry put on her richest robes and decked herself out in her most gorgeous apparel: a new capital was invented at Corinth by Calimachus, which gave rise to the Corinthian, which is deemed the richest of the Orders and masterpiece of art. Its column is ten diameters high, its capital is adorned with two rows of leaves and eight volutes, which sustain the abacus. This Order is chiefly used in stately and superb structures. Calimachus took the hint of the capital of this Order from the following remarkable circumstance. Accidentally passing the tomb of a young lady, he perceived a basket of toys which had been left there by her nurse, covered with a tile, and placed over an Acanthus root, as the leaves grew up they encompassed the basket, till arriving at the tile, they met an obstruction and bent downwards; Calimachus, struck with the object, set about imitating the figure, the vase of the capital he made to represent the basket, the abacus the tile, and the volutes the bending leaves. Yet not content with this utmost production of her own powers, Masonry held forth her torch and illumined the whole circle of arts and sciences: this gave rise to the Composite Order, so named from being composed of parts of the other Orders; its capital is adorned with the two rows of leaves of the Corinthian, and the volutes of the Ionic, and has the quarter round of the Tuscan and Doric Orders, its column is ten diameters high, and its cornice has dentils or simple modillions. This Order is chiefly used in structures where strength, elegance, and beauty are displayed : Painting and Sculpture strained every nerve to decorate the buildings fair science had raised, while the curious hand designed the furniture and tapestry, beautifying and adorning them with MUSIC, ELOQUENCE, POETRY, TEMPERANCE, FORTITUDE, PRUDENCE, JUSTICE, VIRTUE, HONOUR, MERCY, FAITH, HOPE, CHARITY, and many other Masonic emblems, but none shone with greater splendour than BROTHERLY LOVE, RELIEF, AND TRUTH.

Q.—Why do seven or more make it perfect?

A.—Because K...g S...n was seven years and upwards in building, completing, and dedicating the T...e at Jerusalem to God's service.

Q.—They have a further allusion?

A.—To the seven liberal arts and sciences, viz. : Grammar, Rhetoric, Logic, Arithmetic, Geometry, Music, and Astronomy.

Q.—I will thank you to define GRAMMAR.

A.—Grammar teaches the proper arrangement of words according to the idiom or dialect of any particular kingdom or people, and is that excellency of pronunciation which enables us to write or speak a language with accuracy and propriety, agreeably to reason, authority, and the strict rules of literature.

Q.—I will thank you to define RHETORIC.

A.—Rhetoric teaches us to speak copiously and fluently on any subject, not merely with propriety alone, but with all the advantages of force and elegance, wisely contriving to captivate the hearer by strength of argument and beauty of expression, whether it be to instruct, exhort, admonish, or applaud.

Q.—LOGIC?

A.—Logic teaches us to guide our reason discretionally in the general knowledge of things, and to direct our inquiries after truth, as well for the instruction of others, as our own improvement; it consists in a regular train of argument, whence we infer, deduce, and conclude, according to certain premises laid down, admitted, or granted; in it are employed the faculties of conceiving, reasoning, judging, and disposing, all of which are naturally led on from one gradation to another, till the point in question is finally determined.

Q.—ARITHMETIC?

A.—Arithmetic treats of the powers and properties of numbers, and is variously effected by letters, tables, figures, and instruments. By this art reasons and demonstrations are given for finding any certain number whose relation or affinity to another number is already discovered.

Q.—GEOMETRY?

A.—Geometry treats of the powers and properties of magnitude in general, where length, length and breadth, and length, breadth and thickness are considered. By this science, the Architect is enabled to execute his plans, and estimate his designs;

the General to arrange his soldiers ; the Engineer to mark out ground for encampments ; the Geographer to give the dimensions of the world, to delineate the extent of seas, and specify the divisions of empires, kingdoms, and provinces. And by it the Astronomer is enabled to make his observations, to calculate and fix the duration of times, seasons, years, and cycles ; in fine, Geometry is the foundation and root of the mathematics.

Q.—MUSIC ?

A.—Music teaches the art of forming concords, so as to make a delightful harmony, by a proportionate and mathematical arrangement of acute, grave, and mixed sounds : this art by a series of experiments is reduced to a demonstrative science, with respect to tones and the intervals of sounds. It inquires into the nature of concords and discords, and enables us to find out a due proportion between them by numbers, and is never employed to such advantage as in the praise of the Grand Geometrician of the Universe.

Q.—ASTRONOMY ?

A.—Astronomy is that Divine art by which we are taught to read the Wisdom, Strength, and Beauty of the Almighty Creator in those sacred pages, the Celestial hemisphere : assisted by Astronomy, we may observe the motions, measure the distances, comprehend the magnitudes, and calculate the periods and Eclipses of the Heavenly Bodies ; by it we learn the use of the Globes, the system of the World, and the primary laws of Nature, and while we are employed in the study of this science, we may perceive unparalleled instances of wisdom and goodness, and on every hand may trace the Glorious Author by His works.

FIFTH SECTION.

Q.—When our ancient B...n had gained the summit of the W. staircase, where did they arrive?

A.—At the door of the middle chamber of the Temple.

Q.—How did they find that door?

A.—Open, but properly t...d.

Q.—By whom was it t...d?

A.—The ancient S. W.

Q.—What did he demand of our ancient Brethren?

A.—The S...n, T...n, and W...d of a F. C.

Q.—After they had given him those convincing proofs what did he say to them?

Colonel Goddard immediately assumed command of the troops, and a few days afterwards, he marched his troops from Rajegurh, in Bundeltowards the Nerbudda.

A.—Pass J...n.

Q.—Where did they then pass?

A.—Into the middle Chamber of the T.

Q.—What did they go there to receive?

A.—Their wages.

Q.—How did they receive them?

A.—Without scruple or diffidence.

Q.—Why in this peculiar manner?

A.—Without scruple, knowing they were justly entitled to them; and without diffidence, from the great reliance they placed in the integrity of their employers in those days.

Q.—Before I proceed further in this Lecture, I wish to know into how many classes the workmen were divided.

A.—K...g S...n divided the various artificers into three classes, a circumstance particularly marked by Masons, as it is from the plans of that monarch in the carrying on of this magnificent structure we deduce the origin of our present system of government.

Q.—Name the classes.

A.—Rulers or general directors, Overseers or comforters of the people, and Craftsmen or executors of the work.

Q.—Name the numbers in each class?

A.—There were three hundred Rulers, three thousand three hundred Overseers, and eighty thousand Craftsmen. The Rulers and Overseers were all skilled Craftsmen, or men of science. For the purpose of dividing the various employments of the people, they were formed into companies or Lodges, consisting of seven E. A...s and five F. Crafts, and over each Lodge a skilled Craftsman presided.

Q.—Why this division?

A.—Because this triple division, besides being symbolical, was the best means to ensure promotion to merit, preserve due subordination, and prevent confusion in the work.

Q.—Were there any others employed?

A.—There were seventy thousand others employed as men of burden and hewers of stone, under the conduct of Adonhiram, a skilled craftsman, who by his zeal and fidelity arrived at the highest honours, so that the total number of men employed in the building was one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred.

Q.—How long were they employed?

A.—Seven years and six months, as the Temple was begun in the fourth year of the reign of K...g S...n, on the second day of the second month, and ended in the eleventh year of his reign. In the following year it was dedicated to God in the presence of the twelve tribes of Israel, and a vast concourse of spectators from the surrounding nations, with all the splendour and magnificence which human ingenuity could devise, to acknowledge the goodness and display the glory of the Creator, and the prayer used on that solemn occasion is still extant in the sacred records.

Q.—When our A. Bn. were in the middle Chamber of K...g S...n's Temple, to what was their attention particularly drawn?

Colonel Goddard immediately assumed command of the troops, and a few days afterwards, commenced his march from Rajegurh, in Bundel-

A.—To certain Hebrew characters, depicted in a F. C. L...e by the letter G.

Q.—What does that letter G. denote?

A.—God, the Grand Geometrician of the Universe, to whom we must all submit, and whom we ought humbly to obey.

a perfect knowledge of this Degree few attain, but it is an infallible truth, that he who gains by merit those marks of pre-eminence and distinction which the Degree affords, receives a reward which amply compensates for all his attention and assiduity. From the Brethren of this Degree the rulers of the Craft are selected, as it is only from those who are capable of giving instruction that we can expect properly to receive it. The Third Lecture, divested of those duties and ceremonies which appertain to the Installation of the W. M. and his officers, is divided into three sections, and throughout the whole we are taught to circumscribe our conduct within the limits of the boundary line of our duty to God and man, and by practising out of the Lodge that which we are taught in it, we shall convince the world that the principles of Masonry are pure and its requirements just. Having premised this much by way of introduction to the Third Lecture, I shall now proceed to inquire of you, Bro. S. W., Q.—Where were you raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason?

A.—In a L...e of M. Masons.

Q.—Consisting of how many?

A.—Three.

Q.—Under what denomination?

A.—The W. M. and his two Ws.

Q.—How got you raised?

A.—By undergoing a previous examination in open L...e, and being intrusted with a test of merit leading to that degree.

Q.—Where were you then c...d...d?

A.—To a convenient room adjoining a M. L...e for the purpose of being p...p...d.

Q.—How were you p...p...d?

A.—I had both a...s, both b...s, and both k...s made b...e, and both h...s s...p s...d.

Q.—What enabled you to claim admission into a M. M. L...e?

A.—The help of G...d, the united aid of the s...e and c...p...s, and the benefit of a p...s w...d.

Q.—How did you gain a...m...n?

A.—By the k...s of a F. C.

Q.—On what were you a...m...d?

A.—On both the p...s of the c...p...s extended to my b...s.

Q.—On being admitted into the L...e, did you observe anything different in its form from its usual character?

A.—I did, all was d...k...s save a g...m...g l...t in the E...t.

Q.—To what does that d...k...s allude?

A.—To the d...k...s of d...h.

Q.—Am I then to understand that d...h is the peculiar subject of the T...d Degree?

A.—It is, indeed.

Q.—When admitted into the L...e how were you disposed of?

A.—I was conducted between the Ds. to the l...t of the S. W. and directed to advance as a F. C.

Q.—What were you next directed to do?

A.—Almighty and Eternal God ! Architect and Ruler of the Universe, at whose creative fiat all things first were made, we, the frail creatures of Thy providence, humbly implore Thee to pour down on this convocation assembled in Thy Holy name the continual dew of Thy blessing. Especially we beseech Thee to impart Thy grace to this Thy servant, who offers himself to partake of the mysterious s...s of a M. M. Endue him with such fortitude that in the hour of trial he fail not, but pass him safely under Thy protection, through the valley of the shadow of death, that he may finally arise from the tomb of transgression, to shine as the stars for ever and ever.—P. M.—So mote it be.

Q.—After the recital of this p...r how were you disposed of?

A.—I was c...d...d three times round the L...e.

Q.—What was required of you the first time?

A.—To salute the W. M. as a M...n, advance to the J. W. as such, showing the s...n, and communicating the t...n and w...d thereto belonging.

Q.—What was required of you the second time?

A.—To salute the W. M. and J. W. as a F. C., advance to the S. W. as such, showing the s...n, and communicating the t...n and w...d of that degree.

Q.—What were the B...n then called upon to observe?

A.—That I, who had been regularly initiated into Freemasonry, and passed to the degree of a F. C., was about to pass in view before them, to show that I was a candidate properly prepared to be raised to the sublime degree of a M. M.

Q.—What was required of you the third time?

A.—To salute the W. M. and J. W. as a F. C., advance to the S. W. as such, showing the s...n, and communicating the p...s g...p and p...s w...d leading from the Second to the Third Degree.

Q.—After having given those convincing proofs to the S. W., how did he proceed?

A.—He presented me to the W. M. as a candidate properly prepared to be raised to the Third Degree.

Q.—The W. M.'s answer.

A.—Bro. S. W., you will direct the Ds. to instruct the candidate to advance to the pedestal in due form.

Q.—I will thank you to show the method of advancing from W. to E. in this degree.

A.—The method of advancing from W. to E. in this degree is by s...n s...s, the first three as though stepping over a new-made g...e, the other four regular.

Q.—When brought before the W. M. in the East how did he address you?

A.—Bro. A. B., it is but fair to inform you that a most serious trial of your fortitude and fidelity, as well as a most solemn Ob., await you. Are you prepared to meet them as you ought? which I answered in the affirmative.

Q.—What were you then required to do?

Q.—Which I will thank you for.

A.—I, A. B., in the presence of the Most High, and of this worthy, worshipful, and warranted Lodge of M. M., duly constituted, regularly assembled, and properly dedicated, of my own free will and accord, do hereby and hereon most solemnly and sincerely promise and swear, that I will always heke, conceal, and never reveal any or either of the secrets or mysteries of or belonging to the Degree of a M. M. to any one in the world, unless it be to him or them to whom the same may justly and lawfully belong; and not even to him or them, until after due trials, strict examination, or full conviction that he or they are worthy of that confidence, or in the body of a M. Mason's Lodge, duly opened on the c...e. I further solemnly pledge myself to adhere to the principles of the s...e and c...s ...s, to answer and obey all lawful s...ns and summonses which I may receive from a M. M.'s Lodge if within the length of my c...e t...w, and to plead no excuse save sickness or the pressing emergency of my own public or private avocations. I further solemnly engage myself to maintain and uphold the five p...s of f...w...p in act as well as in word, that my h...d given to a M. M. shall be the sure pledge of brotherhood, that my f...t shall traverse through dangers and difficulties to unite with his in forming a column of mutual defence and support, that the posture of my daily supplications shall remind me of his wants, and dispose my heart to succour his weakness and relieve his necessities, so far as may fairly be done without detriment to myself or connections; that my breast shall be the sacred repository of his secrets when intrusted to my care, murder, treason, felony, and all other offences contrary to the laws of God and the ordinances of the realm being at all times most especially excepted; and, finally, that I will maintain a M. M.'s honour, and carefully preserve it as my own; I will not injure him, myself, nor knowingly suffer it to be so done by others, if in my power to prevent it; but, on the contrary, will boldly repel the slanderer of his good name, and most strictly respect the chastity of those nearest and dearest to him, in the persons of his wife, his sister, and his child. These several points I solemnly swear to observe, without evasion, equivocation, or mental reservation of any kind, under no less penalty on the violation of either of them, than that of being, &c. So that no trace or remains of so vile a wretch may longer be found among men, particularly M. M. So help me the Most High, and keep me steadfast in this my solemn Ob. of a M. M.

Q.—After taking the solemn Ob. of a M. M., how did the W. M. address you?

as you shall live, you will seal it with your lips thrice on the V...e of the S...d L...w.

Q.—How did he further address you?

A.—Let me once more call your attention to the position of the s...e and c...p...s; when you were made an E. A. both p...s were hid, in the Second Degree one was disclosed, in this the whole is exhibited, implying that you are now at liberty to work with both these p...s in order to render the circle of your Masonic duties complete.

Q.—How did the Master then proceed?

A.—He friendly took me by the r...t h...d and said, Rise, newly Ob. M. M.

Q.—Repeat the exhortation you then received from the W. M.

A.—Bro. A. B., having entered into the solemn O...i...n of a M. M., you are now entitled to demand that last and greatest trial, by which alone you can be admitted to a participation in the s...s of this Degree. But it is first my duty to call your attention to a retrospect of those Degrees in Freemasonry through which you have already passed, that you may the better be enabled to distinguish and appreciate the connection of our whole system, and the relative dependency of its several parts. Your admission among Masons in a state of helpless indigence, was an emblematical representation of the entrance of all men on this their mortal existence; it inculcated the useful lessons of natural equality and mutual dependence, it instructed you in the active principles of universal beneficence and charity, to seek the solace of your own distress, by extending relief and consolation to your fellow-creatures in the hour of their affliction; above all, it taught you to bend with humility and resignation to the will of the Great Architect of the Universe, to dedicate your heart, thus purified from every baneful and malignant passion, fitted only for the reception of truth and wisdom, to His Glory and the welfare of your fellow-mortals.

Proceeding onwards, and still guiding your progress by the principles of moral truth, you were led in the Second Degree to contemplate on the intellectual faculty, and to trace it from its development through the paths of Heavenly science, even to the throne of God himself. The secrets of nature and the principles of intellectual truth were then unveiled to your view. To your mind, thus modelled by virtue and science, nature, however, presents one great and useful lesson more, she prepares you, by contemplation, for the closing hour of existence, and when, by means of that contemplation, she has conducted you through the intricate windings of this mortal life, she finally instructs you how to die.

Such, my Brother, are the peculiar objects of the Third Degree in Freemasonry; they invite you to reflect on this awful subject, and teach you to feel that to the just and virtuous man death has no terrors equal to the stain of falsehood and dishonour; of this great truth the annals of Freemasonry afford a glorious example in the unshaken fidelity and noble death of our Master, H...m A...ff, who was s...n just before the completion of K...g S...o...n's Temple, at the construction of which, you no doubt are well aware, he was the principal Architect.

Q.—As a M. M. whence come you?

A.—From the E...t.

Q.—Whither directing your course?

A.—To the W...t.

Q.—What inducement have you to leave the E...t and go to the W...t?

A.—To seek for that which was lost.

Q.—What is that which was lost?

A.—The genuine s...s of a M. M.

Q.—How came they lost?

A.—By the untimely d...h of our M. H. A.

Q.—I will thank you to inform me how our M. H. came by his d...h.

A.—Fifteen F. Cs., of that superior class appointed to preside over the rest, finding that the work was nearly completed, and that they were not in possession of the s...s of the Third Degree, conspired together to obtain them by any means, and even to have recourse to violence; at the moment, however, of carrying their conspiracy into execution, twelve of the fifteen recanted, but three of a more determined and atrocious character than the rest persisted in their impious design, in the prosecution of which they posted themselves respectively at the E., N., and S. entrances of the Temple, whither our M. H...m had retired to pay adoration to the MOST HIGH, as was his wonted custom at the hour of high twelve.

Our M. having finished his devotions attempted to return by the S. entrance, where he was opposed by the first of those ruffians, who, for want of other weapons, had armed himself with a heavy p...b r...e, and in a threatening manner demanded the s...s of a M. M., warning him that death would be the consequence of a refusal; but our M., true to his O...i...n, answered that those s...s were known but to t...e in the world, and without the consent and co-operation of the other t...o, he neither could nor would divulge them, but intimated he had no doubt that patience and industry would in due time entitle the worthy Mason to a participation of them, but for his own part he would rather suffer death than betray the sacred trust reposed in him. This answer not proving satisfactory, the ruffian aimed a violent blow at the h...d of our M., but being startled by the firmness of his demeanour, missed his f.....d, and only glanced on his r...t t...e, but with such force as to cause him to reel and sink on his l...t k...e. Recovering from this shock, he made for the N. entrance, where he was accosted by the second of those ruffians, to whom he gave a similar answer with undiminished firmness, when the villain, who was armed with a l...l, struck him a violent blow on the l...t t...e, which brought him to the ground on his r...t k...e. Our M., finding his retreat cut off at both those points, staggered faint and bleeding to the E. entrance, where the third ruffian was posted, who received a similar answer to his insolent demand (for even at this trying moment our M. remained firm and unshaken), when the villain, who was armed with a heavy m...l, struck him a violent blow on the f...e...d, which laid him l...s at his feet.

Q.—When you lay extended on the ground in this degree of F. M...y, how did the W. M. address the Lodge?

A.—The Brethren will take notice, that in the recent ceremony, as well as in his present situation, our Brother has been made to represent one of the brightest characters ever recorded in the annals of Freemasonry, namely, H. A., who lost his life in consequence of his unshaken fidelity to the sacred trust reposed in him; and I hope this will make a lasting impression on his and your minds, should you ever be placed in a similar state of trial.

Q.—What did he then order?

A.—The J. W. to endeavour to raise the representative of our M. H. by the E. A. g...p, which proved a s...p.

Q.—What did he next order?

A.—The S. W. to try the F. C. g...p, which proved a s...p likewise.

Q.—How did the W. M. then address his principal officers?

A.—Brö. Ws., having both of you failed in your attempts, there yet remains a third method, namely, by taking a firm hold of the ..... of the ..... and r...g him on the f...e p...s of f...w...p, of which with your assistance I will make trial.

Q.—Were you raised, and on what?

A.—I was, on the five p...s of f...w...p.

Q.—What enabled you to be raised to the S. D. of a M. M.?

A.—The help of God, and the united aid of the S. and C.

Q.—From what to what were you r...d?

A.—From a superficial flat to a lively perpendicular.

Q.—Repeat the address you then received from the Master.

A.—It is thus that all M. Ms. are raised from a figurative d...h to a reunion with the former companions of their toils.

Q.—Repeat the charge.

A.—Let me now beg you to observe, that the light of a M. M. is but darkness visible, serving only to express that gloom which rests on the prospect of futurity; it is that mysterious veil which the eye of human reason cannot penetrate, unless assisted by that light which is from above; yet even by this glimmering ray you may perceive that you stand on the very brink of the g...e, into which you have just figuratively descended, and which, when this transitory life shall have passed away, will again receive you into its cold bosom; let the emblems of mortality which lie before you lead you to contemplate on your inevitable destiny, and guide your reflections to that most interesting of all human studies, the knowledge of yourself. Be careful to perform your allotted task while it is yet day, continue to listen to the voice of nature, which bears witness that even in this perishable frame resides a vital and an immortal principle, which inspires a holy confidence that the Lord of life will enable us to trample the king of terrors beneath our feet, and lift our eyes to that bright morning star, whose rising brings peace and salvation to the faithful and obedient of the human race.

Q.—How did the W. M. further address you?

A.—I cannot better reward the attention you have paid to this exhortation and Charge, than by intrusting you with the s...s of this degree; you will therefore advance to me as a F. C., first as an E. A.

Q.—What did he next direct you to do?

A.—Take another short p...e with my l...t f...t, bringing my r...t h...l into the h...w as before; that, he informed me, was the t...d regular s...p in Freemasonry, and it was in this position the s...s of the degree were communicated.

Q.—Of what do those s...s consist?

A.—Of s...s, a t...n, and w...s.

Q.—After being intrusted, what permission did you receive from the W. M.?

A.—To retire, in order to restore myself to my personal comforts, and he informed me that on my return into the L...e, those s...s, t...n, and w...s should be further explained.

SECOND SECTION.

Q.—On your return to the L...e were you invested?

A.—I was, with the distinguishing b...e of a M. M., which the S. W. informed me was to mark the further progress I had made in the science.

Q.—Repeat the address you received from the W. M.

A.—I must add to what has been stated by the S. W., that the b...e with which you have just been invested, not only points out your rank as a M. M., but is meant to remind you of those great duties you have just solemnly engaged yourself to observe, and while it marks your own superiority, it calls on you to afford assistance and instruction to the Brethren in the inferior Degrees.

Q.—We left off at that part of our traditional history which mentioned the d...h of our M. H. A., what effect had that melancholy event on the Ct.?

A.—A loss so important as that of the principal architect could not fail of being generally and severely felt ; the want of those plans and designs, which had hitherto been regularly supplied to the different classes of the workmen, was the first indication that some heavy calamity had befallen our Master ; the Menatschin or Prefects, or more familiarly speaking, the Overseers, deputed some of the most eminent of their number to acquaint K...g S...n with the utter confusion into which the absence of H...m had plunged them, and to express their apprehensions that to some fatal catastrophe must be attributed his sudden and mysterious disappearance.

Q.—How did K...g S...o...n proceed on hearing this report ?

A.—He immediately ordered a general muster of the workmen throughout the different departments, when three of the same class of overseers were not to be found ; on the same day, the twelve craftsmen who had originally joined in the conspiracy came before the King and made a voluntary confession of all they knew, down to the time of withdrawing themselves from the number of the conspirators.

Q.—What did he next order ?

A.—His fears being awakened for the safety of the chief artist, he selected fifteen trusty F. Cs., and ordered them to make diligent search after the person of our M. H...m, if he were yet alive, or had suffered d...h in the attempt to extort from him the s...s of his exalted degree.

Q.—What measures did those C...s...n take ?

A.—A stated day having been appointed for their return to Jerusalem, they formed themselves into three F. C. L...s and departed from the three entrances of the Temple ; many days were spent in fruitless search ; indeed, one class returned without having made any discovery of importance.

Q.—Was a second more fortunate ?

A.—They were, for on the evening of a certain day, after having suffered the greatest privations and personal fatigues, one of the Brethren rested himself in a reclining posture, and to assist his rising caught hold of a sprig that grew near, which to his surprise came easily out of the ground ; on a closer examination, he found that the earth had been recently disturbed, he therefore hailed his companions, and with their united endeavours reopened the ground, when they found the b...y of our M. H...m indecently interred ; they covered it again with all respect and reverence, and to distinguish the spot, stuck a sprig of acacia at the head of the g...e. They then hastened to Jerusalem to impart the afflicting intelligence to K...g S...o...n.

Q.—How did K...g S...o...n proceed on hearing this melancholy report ?

A.—When the first emotions of his grief had subsided, he ordered them to return and raise our M. H...m to such a sepulture as became his rank and exalted talents ; at the same time informing them that by his untimely d...h the s...s of a M. M. were lost of a fever, on the 3rd October 1778.

Colonel Leslie

he therefore charged them to be particularly careful in observing whatever casual s...s, t...n, or w...ds might occur whilst paying this last sad tribute of respect to departed merit.

Q.—Did they perform that task?

A.—They did, for on reopening the ground, one of the Brethren looking round, saw some of his companions in this situation, as struck with h...r...r at the dreadful and afflicting sight, whilst others viewing the ghastly w...d still visible on his f...d smote their own in sympathy with his sufferings. Two of the Brethren descended the grave, one of whom endeavoured to raise our M. by the E. A. g...p, which proved a s...p; the other then tried the F. C. g...p, which proved a s...p likewise; having both failed in their attempts, a zealous and expert Bro. descended and took a more firm hold of the sinews of the hand, and with their assistance raised him on the f...e p...s of f...w...p, while others more animated exclaimed, ..... or ....., w...s of nearly a similar import, one signifying the d...h of the builder, the other the builder is s...t...n.

Q.—When those C...f...n had reported their proceedings to K...g S...n, what did he order?

A.—That those casual s...s, t...n, and w...s should designate all M. Ms. throughout the universe, till time or circumstances should restore the genuine ones.

Q.—What became of the third class?

A.—They had pursued their researches in the direction of J...a, and were meditating their return to Jerusalem, when accidentally passing the mouth of a cavern, they heard sounds of deep lamentation and regret. On entering the cave to ascertain the cause, they found three men answering the description of those missing, who on being charged with the murder, and finding all chance of escape cut off, made a full confession of their guilt. They were then bound and led to Jerusalem, where K...g S...n sentenced them to that death the heinousness of their crime so amply merited.

Q.—Where was our M. H...m ordered to be reinterred?

A.—As near to the Sanctum Sanctorum as the Israelitish law would permit; there in a grave, from the centre three feet E., three feet W., three feet between N. and S., and five feet or more perpendicular.

Q.—Why not in the Sanctum Sanctorum?

A.—Because nothing common or unclean was suffered to enter there, not even the High Priest but once a year, nor then until after many washings and purifications against the great day of expiation of sins, for by the Israelitish law all flesh was deemed unclean.

Q.—Who were ordered to attend the funeral?

A.—The same fifteen trusty F. Cs. clothed in white A...s and G...s, as emblems of their innocence.

THIRD SECTION.

Q.—Name the Ornaments of a M. M...’s L...e.

A.—The Porch, Dormer, and S...e pavement.

Q.—Their situations?

A.—The Porch is the entrance to the Sanctum Sanctorum, the Dormer the window that gives light to the same, and the S...e pavement for the High Priest to walk on.

Q.—The High Priest’s office?

A.—To burn incense to the honour and glory of the Most High, and pray fervently that the Almighty, through His unbounded wisdom and goodness, would be pleased to bestow peace and tranquillity on the Israelitish nation during the ensuing year.

Q.—Name the p...s w...d leading from the Second to the Third Degree.

A.—T...l C., &c.

Q.—What was T...l C.?

A.—The first artificer in metals.

Q.—The import of the word ?

A.—W...ly p...s...s.

Q.—Name the five p...s of f...w...p.

A.—H...d to H...d, F...t to F...t, K...e to K...e, B...t to B...t, and H...d over B...k.

Q.—Explain them briefly.

A.—H...d to h...d, I greet you as a Bro. F...t to f...t, I will support you in all your lawful undertakings. K...e to k...e, the posture of my daily supplications shall remind me of your wants. B...t to b...t, a Bro.'s lawful secrets, when intrusted to me as such, I will keep as my own. And h...d over b...k, I will support your character in your absence as in your presence.

Q.—Explain them at length.

A.—H...d to h...d, when the necessities of a Bro. call for our aid, we should not be backward in stretching forth the hand, to render the assistance that may save him from sinking, knowing him to be worthy, that not being detrimental to ourselves or our connections. F...t to f...t, indolence should not cause our feet to halt, nor wrath turn our steps aside, but forgetting every selfish consideration, and remembering that man was not born for his own enjoyment alone, but for the assistance of his generation, we should be swift of foot to help, aid, and execute benevolence to a fellow-creature, particularly a Bro. Mason. K...e to k...e, when we offer up our ejaculations to the Most High, a Brother's welfare we should remember as our own, for as the voices of babes and sucklings are heard at the throne of grace, so most assuredly will the breathings of a fervent and contrite heart reach the dominions of bliss, our prayers being reciprocally required for each other's welfare. B...t to b...t, a Brother's lawful s...s, when intrusted to us as such, we should keep as our own, for to betray the trust which one Brother reposes in another, might be to do him the greatest injury he could possibly receive in this life; nay, it would be like the villany of an assassin who, lurking in darkness, stabs his adversary to the heart when unarmed and in all probability least suspicious of danger. H...d over b...k, a Brother's character we should support absent or present; we should not wrongfully revile him ourselves, nor knowingly suffer it to be done by others. Thus, Brethren, by the five p...s of f...w...p ought we to be united in one sincere bond of fraternal affection, which will sufficiently serve to distinguish us from those who are strangers to our Masonic Order, and may demonstrate to the world in general that the term Bro. among Masons is something more than a name.

... Colonel Leslie

Q.—Name the working tools of a M. M.

A.—The S...t, P...l, and C...p...s.

Q.—Their uses?

A.—The S...t is an implement which acts on a centre pin, whence a line is drawn to mark out the ground for the foundation of the intended structure; with the P...l the skilful artist delineates the building in a draft or plan, for the instruction and guidance of the workmen; and the C...p...s

enable him with accuracy and precision to ascertain and determine the limits and proportions of its several parts.

Q.—But as we are not all Operative M...s, but Free and Accepted or Speculative, how do we apply them to our morals?

A.—In this sense, the S...t points out that straight and undeviating line of conduct laid down for our pursuit in the V. of the S. L. ; the P...l teaches us that our words and actions are observed and recorded by the Almighty Architect, to whom we must give an account of our conduct through life ; the C...s remind us of His unerring and impartial justice, who, having defined for our instruction the limits of good and evil, will reward or punish us as we have obeyed or disregarded His divine commands. Thus the working tools of a M. M. teach us to bear in mind, and to act according to, the laws of our Divine Creator, that when we shall be summoned from this sublunary abode, we may ascend to the Grand Lodge above, where the world's great Architect lives and reigns for evermore.

among F. Ms. for each Lodge once in every year, at a stated period, to select, from amongst those who are past Ws., an experienced Craftsman to preside over them in the capacity of Master: he must have been regularly elected by the M., Ws., and Brn., in open Lodge assembled, and have been presented to a Board of I. Ms., to receive from his predecessor the benefit of Installation, the better to qualify him for the discharge of the duties of his important trust.

Bro. A. B., you having been so elected and presented, I claim your attention, while I recite to you those qualifications which are essential in every Can. for the Master's Chair.

1st. Every candidate for the Office of Master ought to be of good report, true and trusty, and held in high estimation among his Brn. and Fellows.

2ndly. He must have been regularly initiated, passed, and raised in the established degrees of the Order, well skilled in the Noble Science, and have duly served the Office of Warden in a regular Lodge.

3rdly. He ought to be exemplary in conduct, courteous in manner, easy of address, and steady in principle, able and willing to undertake the management of the Work; well skilled in the Ancient Charges, Regulations, and Landmarks of the Order; have been duly elected by the M., Ws., and Brn. in open Lodge assembled, and approved by a Board of I. Ms.

Can you, my worthy Brother, undertake the Mastership of this Lodge on these qualifications?

Ans.—I can.

Then I shall direct your attention to the Secretary, while he reads to you those Ancient Charges and Regulations, to all of which your unqualified assent is essential, which you will signify by the Sign of Fidelity, at the same time bowing the head a little forward as a token of submission.

3rd. You promise not to be concerned in plots or conspiracies against Government, but patiently to submit to the decisions of the Supreme Legislature.

4th. You agree to pay a proper respect to the Civil Magistrate, to work diligently, live creditably, and act honourably by all Men.

5th. You agree to hold in veneration the original Rulers and Patrons of the Order of Freemasonry, and their regular successors, supreme and subordinate, according to their Stations; and to submit to the Awards and Resolutions of your Brn. in general L. convened, in every case consistent with the Constitutions of the Order.

6th. You agree to avoid private piques and quarrels, and to guard against intemperance and excess.

7th. You agree to be cautious in your carriage and behaviour, courteous to your Brn., and faithful to your L.

8th. You promise to respect genuine and true Brethren, and to discountenance Impostors and all Dissenters from the original Plan of Freemasonry.

9th. You agree to promote the general good of Society, to cultivate the Social Virtues, and to propagate the knowledge of the Mystic Art as far as your influence and ability can extend.

10th. You promise to pay homage to the Grand Master for the time being, and to his Officers when duly installed, and strictly to conform to every Edict of the Grand Lodge.

11th. You admit that it is not in the power of any Man or Body of Men to make innovation in the Body of Masonry.

12th. You promise a regular attendance on the Communications and Committees of the G. L., upon receiving proper notice thereof; and to pay attention to all the duties of F. My., upon proper and convenient occasions.

PRAYER.

Vouchsafe Thine aid, Almighty Father, and Supreme Governor of the Universe, to this our Solemn Rite, and grant that this Worthy and Distinguished Brother, who is now about to be numbered among the Rulers of the Craft, may be endued with Wisdom to comprehend, Judgment to define, and Ability to enforce obedience to Thy Holy Law. Sanctify him with Thy Grace, strengthen him with Thy Power, and enrich his mind with Genuine Knowledge, that he may the better be enabled to enlighten the minds of his Brethren, and sanctify this our Mansion to the honour and glory of Thy most Holy Name.

P. M.—So mote it be.

I. M. (To Candidate.)—Bro. A. B., you have already taken an Obligation as regards your duties as the Master of this Lodge; you will now take an Obligation as regards the secrets restricted to the Master's Chair. You will know on both kn...s, place

OBLIGATION.

I, A. B., in the presence of the Most High, and before this Board of Installed Masters, duly constituted and regularly assembled, of my own free will and accord, do hereby and hereon most solemnly promise and swear that I will for ever conceal and never divulge any or either of the Secrets or Mysteries restricted to the Master's Chair, except it be to an Installed Master, or a Candidate duly appointed to that Office, nor then unless assisted by two or more Installed Masters regularly assembled for that purpose. These several points I solemnly swear to observe, without evasion, equivocation, or mental reservation of any kind, under no less penalty on the infraction of any of them than that of having my r...t h...d struck off and slung over my l...t s...r, there to wither and decay ; so help me G...,

I. M.—As a pledge of your f...y, and to render this ob. binding, you will salute the V. of the S. L. three times.

(After the M. E. salutes the book, the I. M. thus proceeds:—)

I. M.—Let me once more call your attention to the three Great though Emblematical Lights in Freemasonry, viz., the V...e of the S...d L...w, the S...e, and C...p...s. The S...d V...e, that Great Light in Masonry, will guide you to all Truth, direct your steps in the Paths of Happiness, and point out to you the Whole Duty of Man. The S...e will teach you to regulate your Life and Actions according to the Masonic Line and rule. And the C...p...s remind you to limit your Desires in every station of Life; that, rising to Eminence by Merit, you will live respected and die regretted. Rise, newly obligated Installed Master.

I. M.—When the Temple at Jerusalem was completed, King Solomon, attended by a numerous retinue, went to view it.* On entering the Building, the King seeing Adonhiram at a distance beckoned him thus (the s...n is here given); he on approaching his Royal Master was about to k...l, which the King prevented by taking him thus (gives the g...p), saying, Rise, G...m, which signifies Excellent Mason. When the Royal Party were about to retire, Adonhiram saluted the King thus in token of * The following is sometimes given, but it is not the "Emulation" working:—When the Holy Temple at Jerusalem was completed by the wisdom of K. S., supported by the strength of K. H., and aided by the beautifying hand of H. A. B., the sovereigns of surrounding nations sent ambassadors to congratulate the K. on the completion of that stately edifice whose regal splendour and unparalleled lustre are said to have surpassed all imagination; but there was one to whom the splendour of that magnificent Temple had reached who, not content with sending an ambassador, as the other sovereigns had done, herself journeyed to Jerusalem. This was the Queen of Sheba, attended by a numerous retinue, and with many costly presents. On arriving at Jerusalem, she was received by K. S., who accompanied her to view the Temple.

I now invest you with the Badge and Jewel of your office, which is the highest Honour the Lodge has in its power to bestow on any of its Members. The S...e, being the Implement which forms the Rude and proves the Perfect Mass, is well applied by Master Masons to inculcate the Purest Principles of Piety and Virtue; masonically speaking, it should be the Guide of all your Actions. With the g...p and w...d of an Installed Master, I place you in the Chair of K. S., being fully satisfied you will justify the choice the Brethren have made; to that end, I place in your hand this Gavil, as an emblem of Power, to enable you to preserve Order in the Lodge, more especially in the east. You will now please to invest the immediate P. M. of the Lodge. (Which is done.)

They halt, and the Installing Master in the East, proclaims him as follows:—*

I. M.—Brethren, during your temporary absence Bro. A. B. has been regularly Installed in the chair of King Sol. according to ancient custom, and I now for the first time proclaim him W. M. of the Lodge (naming it), No. — under the Registry of the Grand Lodge of England, until the next regular period of Election within the L., and until a Successor shall have been duly elected and installed in his stead. Brethren, you will greet the Worshipful Master as Master Masons. (Which is done as usual.) and the Lodge closed in the Third Degree by the newly Installed W. M. The Fellow-Crafts are admitted, the Procession again formed, the F. M. as before, saying the second instead of the first time, the Brethren then greet him as Fellow-Crafts, giving the s...n five times. The Working Tools of the Second Degree are presented and explained, and the Lodge closed in the Second Degree. The E. Aprs. are admitted; the Procession is once more formed, the E. As. taking the lead, the others following as before. The W. M. is saluted as E. Apprentices, and the Installing Master stands in the South and proclaims him the third time; he is then greeted three times as E. Aprs. The I. I now present you with the Book of Constitutions, which I recommend to your serious perusal, as you will find there is scarcely a case can occur in your Lodge but this Book will set you right. These are the Byelaws of your Lodge, which I recommend you to have read at least once in the year, in order that the Brn. may not plead ignorance of them.*

The I. M. may continue to address the W. M. as follows :—I also intrust to you this pillar of the Ionic order, which combines the strength of the Doric with the beauty of the Corinthian orders. (The Treasurer is invested; the Secretary, Deacons, and I. G. appointed; and then the I. M. from the West delivers the following address:—)

I. M.—W. its Concerns, while the Happiness of its members will generally be promoted in proportion to the Zeal and Ability with which you promulgate the Genuine Principles of the Institution; as a pattern for imitation consider that Glorious Luminary of Nature, which, rising in the East, diffuses Light and Lustre to all within its circle, in like manner it will be your peculiar province to communicate Light and Instruction to the Brethren of your Lodge; forcibly impress upon them the Dignity and high Importance of Masonry, seriously admonish them never to disgrace it, charge them to practise out of the Lodge those duties they have been taught in it, and by virtuous, amiable, and discreet conduct prove to the world the happy and beneficial effects of our ancient Institution, so that when any one is said to be a member of it, the world may know he is one to whom the Burdened Heart may pour forth its Sorrows, to whom the Distressed may prefer their Suit, whose Hand is guided by Justice, and whose Heart is expanded by Benevolence ; in fine, W. Master, by a strict observance of the Byelaws of your Lodge, the Constitutions of Masonry, but above all by the use of the Sacred Writings, which are given as the Rule and Guide of your Faith, you will be enabled to lay up a Crown of Joy and Rejoicing, which will continue, when time with you shall be no more, and God grant you health and strength to perform the duties of your high office with satisfaction to yourself, and advantage to the Lodge.

(He then in the East delivers the address to the Wardens:—)

I. M.—Bro. Sr. and J. Wardens, the W. M. having appointed you to his principal offices, you are to consider yourselves, by the acceptance thereof, as pledged to a strict performance of the duties attached thereto, and to a regular attendance during the time for which you are appointed. You are too well acquainted with the principles of Masonry and the laws of our Institution to warrant any distrust that you will be found wanting in the discharge of the Duties of your respective Offices; suffice it to say, that what you observe praiseworthy in others you will carefully imitate, and what in them may appear defective you will in yourselves amend; you ought to be examples of Good Order and Regularity, for it is only by paying due observance to the Laws in our own conduct we can reasonably expect compliance to them from others; you are assiduously to assist the W. M. in the discharge of the duties of his important trust, by communicating light and imparting knowledge to all whom he may place under your direction. From the spirit you have hitherto evinced, we entertain no doubt your future conduct will be such as to merit the esteem of the Brn., and the gratifying testimony of a clear conscience.

(Still from the East, the In. M. gives the third address:—)

I. M.—Brethren, such is the nature of our Constitution, that as some must of necessity rule and teach, so others of course must learn to submit and obey: humility in each is an essential qualification. The Brn. whom the W. M. has selected to assist him in the ruling and governing of the Lodge are too well acquainted with the principles of Masonry and the Laws of our Institution to warrant any distrust that they will be found wanting in the discharge of the duties of their respective offices, or that they will exceed the power with which they are intrusted, and you, Brethren, are of too generous a disposition to envy their preferment; I therefore trust we shall have but one aim in view, to please each other, and unite in the grand design of being happy and communicating happiness, and as this Association has been formed and perfected with so much unanimity and concord, long may it continue; may Brotherly Love and affection ever distinguish us as men and Masons; may the principles and tenets of our profession, which are founded on the basis of religious virtue, teach us to measure our Actions by the Rule of Rectitude, square our Conduct by the Principles of Morality, and guide our Inclinations and even our Thoughts within the Compass of Propriety; hence we shall learn to be meek, humble, and resigned, to be faithful to our God, our Country, and our Laws, to drop a tear of sympathy on the failings of a Bro., and to pour the healing balm of consolation in the bosom of the afflicted. May these principles and tenets be transmitted pure and unpolluted through this Lodge from generation to generation.

END OF THE CEREMONY OF INSTALLATION.

Appendix.

FORM OF ADDRESSES TO THE OFFICERS IN THE CEREMONY OF INSTALLATION.

ADDRESS TO I. P. M.

W M.—Bro. A. B., I invest you with the Jewel of I. P. M. of this Lodge. It is an office which is not in the power of the W. M. to bestow, being yours of right, as having faithfully performed your duty in the Craft. Your Jewel is the 47th Problem of the 1st Book of Euclid, which was one of the most important discoveries of the learned Brother Pythagoras; and in the joy of his heart he is said to have exclaimed, Eureka ("I have found it"), and to have sacrificed a hecatomb. As this figure depends upon several lines, angles, and triangles, which form the whole, so Freemasonry depends upon its several members, and the principles upon which the Society is established. Some of our Brethren, from their station in life, standing as they do on the basis of earthly bliss, are emblematical of the great angle which subtends the right angle; others, blessed with means to tread the flowery meads of prosperity and affluence, are descriptive of the squares which stand on the sides; those Brethren who enjoy every social comfort, and never exceed the bounds of mediocrity, symbolise the triangles within the square; and those who have the satisfaction of administering to the wants of the indigent and industrious, may be compared to the triangle which surrounds and supports the figure; whilst the lines which form it may remind us of those Brethren who are incapable of providing the necessities of life unless aided by cheerful and ready assistance.

ADDRESS TO S. W.

W. M.—Bro. C. D., you are appointed S. W. of this Lodge, and I invest you with the Collar and Jewel of your Office. The L...l, being an emblem of equality, points out to you the equal measure you are bound to pursue, in conjunction with the W. M., in the well ruling and governing of the Lodge. Your regular and punctual attendance at our stated meetings is essentially requisite. In the absence of the Master, you are to govern the Lodge, and in his presence to assist him in the government of it. We firmly rely upon your knowledge of Masonry, and attachment to the Lodge, for the faithful discharge of the duties of your office, and that you will not fail to attend the Quarterly Communications of the Grand Lodge, in order that this Lodge may be properly represented. I now place you in this Chair,* which is the highest position it is in the power of the W. M. to bestow. I likewise give into your hands this g...l, with which you will observe due order in the W. This column is the emblem of your office, and you will keep it in its erect position whilst the Brethren are at labour, as they are then under your superintendence; but place it in a horizontal position whilst at refreshment. I also intrust to your care this pillar of the Doric Order; it is an emblem of strength, and directs that you are to use all your strength of mind and powers of intellect to preserve peace, order, and harmony among the Brethren of your Lodge, facilitate the designs of your W. M., and see that his commands are carried into full and permanent effect.

ADDRESS TO J. W.

W. M.—Bro. E. F., you are appointed J. W. of this Lodge, and I invest you with the Collar and Jewel of your Office. The p...b r...e, being an emblem of uprightness, points out the integrity of measure you are bound to pursue, in conjunction with the W. M. and Bro. S. W., in the well ruling and governing of the Lodge; but more particularly to that part of your duty which relates to the admission of visitors, lest through your neglect any unqualified person should gain admission to our assemblies, and the Brethren be thereby innocently led to violate their O. B. You are to be regular in your attendance at our stated meetings, to assist in transacting the business of the evening; this is necessary, as unless due attention be paid by the officers you cannot expect the Brethren to be punctual at the appointed time. I now place you in this Chair, and I give into your hands this g...l, with which you will preserve due order in the S. This column is the emblem of your office, and you will keep it in its erect position whilst at refreshment, as the Brethren are then under your superintendence; but place it horizontally whilst at labour. I likewise intrust to your care this pillar of the Corinthian Order, which is an emblem of beauty, and points out that you are to adorn the work with all your powers of genius and active industry, and promote regularity amongst the Brethren by the sanction of your own good example, the persuasive eloquence of precept, and the administrative encouragement of merit.

* The Master alone is installed; all the officers are ap- pointed by him, excepting the Treasurer, who is elected by the Lodge. The S. and J. Ws., in practice, would be conducted by the M. C. to the front of the W. M.'s pedestal, and there addressed by him; after which, they would be escorted by the M. C. to their Chairs.

ADDRESS TO CHAPLAIN.

(Should such be appointed.)

W. M.—Bro. G. H., you are appointed Chaplain to this Lodge, and I invest you with the Collar and Jewel of your Office. Your duty, which is to offer up prayers and invocations to the G. A. O. T. U., is better known to you than I can explain it.

ADDRESS TO TREASURER.

W. M.—Bro. I. J., you have been elected to the office of Treasurer of this Lodge, and I invest you with the Collar and Jewel of your Office. It is your duty to receive all money from the hands of the Secretary, keep just and regular accounts of the same, and pay thereout at the W. M.'s will and pleasure, with the consent of the Lodge; and I trust that your regard for the Fraternity will prompt you to the faithful discharge of the duties of your office. The cross-keys are an emblem of silence and secrecy. The metal key is to preserve the treasures of the Lodge, but the symbolical key is an emblem of the tongue, whose eloquence should be used to unlock the hearts of your Brethren, and cause them to disperse their treasures in the cause of the necessitous and the orphan. By the symbolical key, you are taught to preserve a tongue of good report, and in case you should hear a Brother slanderously spoken of, to defend and vindicate his character; but if, unfortunately, that cannot be done with honour and propriety, to preserve that excellent Masonic virtue, silence.

ADDRESS TO SECRETARY.

W. M.—Bro. K. L., you are appointed to the office of Secretary to this Lodge, and I invest you with the Collar and Jewel of your Office. It is your province to record the minutes, particularly the dates of Initiation, Passing, and Raising, lest a Brother should through neglect be deprived of his privileges ; it is also your duty to settle the accounts, and issue the Summonses of the Lodge Meetings ; you will likewise affix the Lodge Seal to such documents as the W. M. may direct. Your good inclinations to Masonry, and to this Lodge, will, no doubt, prompt you to the faithful discharge of the duties of your office, and by so doing you will merit the esteem and applause of your Brethren. The cross-pens are an emblem of silent communication. The pen should never be used in a cause of oppression, but the fluid should flow freely from it in the defence of a Brother's character when assailed, and should be eloquent in the cause of the destitute and oppressed.

ADDRESS TO S. D. AND J. D.

W. M.—Bros. M. N. and O. P., you are appointed the Ds. of this Lodge, and I invest you with your Collars and Jewels of Office. It is your duty to attend on the W. M., and assist the Ws. in the active duties of the Lodge, such as the reception of Candidates into the different Degrees of the Order, and in the immediate practice of our Rites. These wands, the emblems of your office, I intrust to you, not doubting your vigilant attention. The dove is an emblem of celerity and peace, and indicates the swiftness with which you should attend to your W. M., and you to the S. W., and preserve peace, order, and harmony in the Lodge, so that the beauty of our Ceremonies be not marred by any impropriety ; and if, unfortunately, any dissension should arise among the members of the Lodge, you are thereby instructed to hold out the olive branch, emblem of peace, betwixt the contending parties.

ADDRESS TO D. OF C.

(Should such be appointed.)

W. M.—Bro. Q. R., you are appointed D. of C. of this Lodge, and I invest you with the Collar and Jewel of your Office. Your duty is to see that the Ceremonies of the Lodge are carried on with propriety and decorum, the visitors and Brethren placed according to their rank, and the officers in their respective stations. I trust you will give to your duties the attention which their importance demands.

ADDRESS TO STEWARDS.

(Should such be appointed.)

W. M.—Bros. S. T. and U. V., you are appointed Stewards of this Lodge, and I invest you with your Collars and Jewels of Office. Your duties are to introduce visitors, and see that they are properly accommodated, to assist in the collection of the dues and Subscriptions, to keep an eye on the Lodge expenses at refreshment, and see that the tables are properly furnished, and that every Brother is suitably provided for ; and generally to assist the Ds. and other officers in performing their respective duties. Your regular and early attendance will be the best proof of your zeal and attachment.

ADDRESS TO I. G.

W. M.—Bro. W. X., you are appointed I. G. of this Lodge, and I invest you with the Collar and Jewel of your Office. Your duty is to admit Masons on proof, receive Candidates in due form, and obey the commands of the J. W. The cross-swords, which are the emblem of your office, refer to two of the four cardinal Virtues, namely, Temperance and Fortitude; they also point out to you, that while with one point you admit the Candidate, you will with the other guard the entrance of the Lodge.

ADDRESS TO TYLER.

W. M.—Bro. Y. Z., you have been appointed T. to this Lodge, and I invest you with the Collar and Jewel of your Office. Your duty is to keep off all cowans and intruders to Masonry, and see that the Candidates are properly prepared. If it should at any time unfortunately happen that a Brother should present himself in a state of inebriety, it will be your duty to report the same to the I. G.; and he to the J. W., that the responsibility of his admission rest not upon you. As the sword in the hands of the Tyler is to enable him to keep off all cowans, so it symbolically teaches us to set a guard upon our tongues, and place a watch at the entrance of our thoughts, thereby excluding every unqualified thought, word, or deed, and endeavouring to preserve a conscience void of offence against God and man.

Ceremony of Opening a Board of Installed Masters.

(The Chairs are occupied by P. Ms., and the Entrance guarded.)

I. M.—Brn., assist me to open a Board of I. Ms. (All rise.)

I. M.—Bro. J. W., what is the care of every I. M.?

J. W.—To see that the Lodge is properly tyled.

(Which is done.)

I. M.—Bro. J. W., are you an I. M.?

J. W.—I am, W. M. Try me, and prove me.

I. M.—By what Jewel in Freemasonry will you be proved?

J. W.—By the Perfect Ashlar.

I. M.—What is the Perfect Ashlar?

J. W.—It is a stone of a true die or square, fit only to be tried by the square and compasses; this represents the mind of a man in the decline of years, after a well-spent life in acts of piety and virtue, which can no otherwise be tried and approved than by the square of God's Word, and the compasses of his own self-convincing conscience.

I. M.—Bro. J. W., being well acquainted with the proper mode, you will prove the M. Ms. present to be I. Ms. by signs taken from the S. W., and demonstrate that proof to me by copying their example.

J. W.—W. M., the Brn. have proved themselves I. Ms. by signs, and I, in obedience to your command, thus copy their example. (Gives the three signs.)

I. M.—And I acknowledge the correctness of those signs.

I. M.—Attend, Brn., to a portion of the 137th Psalm.

(The S. W. repeats:—"By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when we remembered Zion. We hanged our harps upon the willows in the midst thereof. For there they that carried us away captive required of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion. How shall we sing the Lord's song in a strange land? If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning. If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy.")

I. M.—In the name of the Most High, I declare this Board of I. Ms. duly opened.

(Gives one k...k, which is repeated by the S. and J. Ws. The Ceremony of Installation then proceeds, with the usual Prayer, &c., according to custom.)

Ceremony of Closing a Board of Installed Masters.

 ... march from Raleigh to B...

Memoranda.

Brn., upon entering the Lodge Room, go to the S. W.'s left, and there take the s...p and give the s...n; the same upon leaving. Members or Visitors on entering must take the s...ps and give the s...ns up to the Degree in which the Lodge is open, but only the one s...p and s...n on retiring.

The following are the honours after the toasts :—For the Grand Master, the G...d or R...l S...n nine times; for the Deputy Grand Master, Past Master, or other Grand Officer, seven times; and for the W. M. or P. M. of a Lodge, five times.

Masons date from the creation of the world, calling it Anno Lucis (abbreviated thus, A.°. L.°.), signifying, "in the Year of Light." Thus, 1880 is A.°. L.°. 5880 (add 4000 to the vulgar era). This has a symbolic reference to the Light of Masonry.
